FEDERAL ARMY MOVES ON TORREON

$4100 In Fines Paid As Result Of County Liquor Raids

SEVEN SENT TO JAIL IN SANTA ANA

16 TO FIGHT CASES

Many Arraigned and Held To Answer—Will Clean Up Cases End of Week

WITH liquor cases being heard again today in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court which grew out of the county-wide liquor raid of last week, records of the justice court show that 29 persons of the 49 arrested in the raid had already pleaded guilty and their cases disposed of in one way or another.

The district attorney's office announced that 33 of the 49 persons arrested had pleaded guilty. Some of these are not on the records as finished because in several cases, it was explained, pronouncement of judgment was set for a later date.

The records show that 14 pleaded guilty, were fined but went to jail on their failure to produce the money for the fine and that eight pleaded guilty and were given suspended sentences.

Those who paid fines, which totalled $4,100, were: Bernice Meeks, $200; Juan Barrera, $250; Harry Woods $250; Dorothy Mahon, $100; D. Sanchez, $100; M. C. Stanley, $300; Frank Showalter, $500; John J. Doyle, $500; John Moore, $500; Jesus Esquival, $200; Thomas Gonzales, $300; Antonio Cardova, $500; William R. Hall, $200, and Harry Barnett, $200.

The records show that total fines levied against persons who were unable to pay and who are serving their sentence in jail at a dollar a day, totalled $2,900. They were: Antonio Rodriguez, $250; John Goetz, $500; Larry Kadinger, $500; Arthur Mercardo, $150; Robert Bunkley, $500; Maria Gray, $500; and Francisco Ruiz, $500.

The eight persons given suspended sentences on motion of the district attorney were: A. E. Johnson, Felipe Saldivar, Jesus Martinez, Theodore Beltran, Paul Thurston, Conception Gonzales, Consulo Saldana and T. J. Fisher.

Most of the remaining 16 persons arrested in the raid have been arraigned in Justice Morrison's court and held to answer to the superior court on charges of sale of liquor. Others are going through the preliminaries today and the cases should all be in superior court by the end of the week, it was said.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(UP)—Revenues from income tax returns due March 15 are far exceeding expectations, and the treasury will undoubtedly close the fiscal year without a deficit, Secretary of Treasury Mellon anounced today.

Returns to March 13 were $45,000,000 more than estimated which indicates the treasury will have a small surplus at least, Mellon said.

TORNADO IN SOUTH CAROLINA TAKES TOLL OF NINE LIVES

DISABLED VETS NAME CHAPTER AFTER FISHER

High Tribute Paid Memory Of Commander Who Recently Passed Away

THE NAME and memory of Jack Fisher, cherished by hundreds of World war veterans as symbols of sacrifice and courage, were honored again by his comrades last night at Ketner's cafe when the Orange county chapter, Disabled American Veterans of the World war, became the Jack Fisher chapter No. 23, Disabled American Veterans of the World war.

A vacant chair in the place of honor, draped with the colors of the United States, was eloquent evidence of the reverence in which the late commander of the chapter always will be held by those who knew him and whom he had served in countless ways since his return from service in France for his country.

The Jack Fisher chapter adopted a resolution at last night's gathering, in which his host of friends and comrades expressed their sincere sympathy to his family and

CALLIE GRIMES ON WAY TO LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, March 14.—(UP)—Mrs. Callie Grimes, who must go to trial next Wednesday with seven others on charges of conspiring to effect the false arrest of City Councilman Carl I. Jacobson on a morals violation count, was enroute here from El Paso, Texas, today. Officers bringing her here said they would arrive tonight.

She was captured in the Texas city last week after she had been sought by authorities since the indictment was returned against the group accused of "framing" the councilman.

Mrs. Grimes' confession that she received money to lure Jacobson into a compromising position led to the indictment.

KEYES IN COURT TO SEEK RELEASE

LOS ANGELES, March 14—(UP)—Former District Attorney Asa Keyes, convicted of receiving bribes while in office, will appear in court late today to hear the ruling on a motion to release him from jail on bond pending the result of an appeal to conviction and a second trial on similar counts.

Attorneys for Keyes claim that it is necessary for him to be free of custody to prepare for his trial with A. I. Lasker on conspiracy to bribe charges. They also assert that his imprisonment, resulting from his conviction with Ed Rosenberg and Ben Getzoff on conspiracy to bribe counts, is threatening his health.

Confesses Murder 15 Years Ago In Washington City

YUMA, Ariz., March 14.—(UP)—L. W. Carson, 42, of Indianapolis, Ind., was being held by police here today after confession that he had murdered a man in Seattle, Wash., 15 years ago.

Carson walked into the sheriff's office here and after stating that his conscience troubled him, told officers that he had killed a man in a drunken brawl and pushed the body off the Coleman dock.

The body was found the next day, Carson said, but was attributed to suicide. Carson formerly was a federal narcotics inspector at St. Paul, he said.

Seattle authorities were notified.

Police Seek Burglar Minus Hair

BERKELEY, March 14—(UP)—Police of this collegiate city today looked for a young man minus several locks of hair.

The police have the hair. It was given them by Mrs. Johann Kasza, proprietor of a ladies' dress shop.

"I was home—in bed," Mrs. Kasza told the officers. "I heard my bedroom window open. I looked up and there was a man's head."

"And then—?" queried an officer.

"And then I grabbed at it—I missed the head but I clutched the hair."

FARMERS FLEE FLOOD WATERS IN MISSISSIPPI

Considerable Damage Done In Western Tennessee—Levees Holding

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 14.—(UP)—Memories of the disastrous 1927 flood still fresh in their minds, farmers in the flood basins of Arkansas, Tennessee and Mississippi sought high ground today with their families and livestock when weather officials predicted the Mississippi river would continue to rise.

The "father of waters," already is two to four feet higher than flood stage from Cairo, Ill., to Vicksburg, Miss., and heavy rains in the Missouri and upper Mississippi valley are expected to send it higher.

Water lapping at the top of the levees is at the highest point reached since the overflow of 1927.

U. S. Meteorologist F. W. Brist of Memphis predicted that the river would rise at least a foot higher.

So far no lives have been reported lost but considerable damage has been done in western Tennessee where inundated highways have forced closing of schools and may cut off removal of inhabitants of lowlands should waters go higher.

Backwater overflowing into lowland counties of Mississippi and eastern Arkansas also has caused extensive damage, reports here indicated, and farmers are removing livestock to the bluffs.

Levees in the Memphis district still are holding and engineers anticipated no breaks unless the river rises beyond the expectations of weather forecasters.

Latest reports indicated the Mississippi was rising at all gage points except Cairo where it was stationary.

Former College Official Seized On Dope Charges

TUCSON, Ariz., March 14.—(UP)—Dr. W. V. Whitmore, former chancellor of the University of Arizona, will receive a preliminary hearing this afternoon on a warrant issued in connection with a state wide narcotic investigation.

Dr. Whitmore, former chairman of the Arizona state medical board, was arrested yesterday by federal inspectors, who seized more than 3500 prescriptions, many of which were signed by Dr. Whitmore, it was alleged.

With six others, for whom warrants have also been issued, the physician was specifically charged with illegal issuance of narcotic prescriptions.

AIR ACTION OF POWER TRUSTS IN CALIFORNIA

Federal Trade Commission Finds Utilities Beat Three Referendums

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(UP)—Efforts of California utility interests to defeat a proposed amendment to the state constitution which would have created a water power commission were aired today in testimony before the federal trade commission.

Three successive referendums, in 1922, 1924 and 1926, brought this question before the California voters, Victor M. Hartley, secretary of the California electrical bureau, testified.

In each of these elections, power interests were active, Hartley admitted, in opposition to the proposed amendment which he said was "considered destructive" to their interests.

Confronted with minutes of bureau meetings in 1922 indicating participation in the political campaign, Hartley said the bureau itself held itself aloof, but lent the services of its manager, R. A. Eltringham, to the campaign.

At one bureau meeting, the minutes showed, utility men present agreed the amendment was of "vital interest" to the power industry and decided to have Eltringham devote the major portion of his time to the campaign against it. Hartley denied any other bureau employe assisted Eltringham.

Because Eltringham conducted the campaign as an individual, the bureau, Hartley said, kept no record of what funds was spent or details of the fight which resulted in defeat of the amendment. He said money for the fight was supplied by private power companies, but Eltringham's reports were made to the late John A. Britten, first vice president of the Pacific Gas and Electric company. For this reason, Hartley said, the reports never were filed with the bureau and cannot be produced for the commission's examination.

Presiding Commissioner Edgar A. McCulloch asked Hartley if he thought the manager's participation as an individual entirely excused the bureau for any interest in the political campaign.

Hartley replied he was not attempting to clear the bureau entirely, but merely wanted to explain why the bureau had no records of the incident in their files.

Correspondence in the record disclosed the bureau adjusted a dispute between electrical contractors and the municipally owned power plants in Modesto and Turlock, California. The dispute centered about the sale of electrical equipment, and the bureau succeeded, Hartley said, in having the plants offer the same price as the dealers.

The hearing adjourned until next week when additional California witnesses will be heard.

BRAZIL, PARAGUAY TROOPS IN CLASH

BUENOS AIRES, March 14.—(UP)—The correspondent of La Prensa reported from Asunction, Paraguay, today that the government had announced a clash of Brazilian troops with a Paraguayan river patrol.

The Paraguayan patrol was driven to the island of Gargarita in the Paraguay river, near Puerto Murtinho.

The Paraguayan government described the clash as an "incident of a personal nature" between the patrols and demanded the withdrawal of the Brazilian force from the island, the correspondent said.

Two Families Are Wiped Out Late Monday

Baby Girl Found 300 Yards From Demolished Home Slightly Injured

LIBERTY, S. C., March 14.—(UP)—Nine dead and a score injured was the toll of a freak tornado which struck the little community of Six Mile, near here, last night, relief workers found on a checkup of the wreckage today.

The twister, emerging without warning from a calm night, whipped through the village at 7:30 p. m. and cut a swath that levelled houses and stores. It then swerved south of Six Mile and wrecked five farmhouses.

Two whole families were virtually obliterated by the storm which cut telephone lines into the community and delayed complete reports of the damage until today.

The dead:

Deputy Sheriff G. N. Garrett, his wife, and three children, J. J., Edward, and Birdie.

B. Tilman Garrett, his wife, and two children, Mildred and Lucia.

A baby girl member of the Tilman Garrett family was found 300 yards from her demolished home, only slightly bruised. All of the victims were trapped in their homes.

Among the injured, who were brought to hospitals here, were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Curtis, their daughter and a negro girl.

D. C. Garrett, nephew of the deputy sheriff who was killed, said confusion in Six Mile immediately after the tornado was such that hours elapsed before bodies of the dead were recovered.

Timbers from several of the demolished houses were hurled hundreds of yards. The community church and the school house were damaged. Occupants of one demolished farmhouse escaped injury entirely.

Others injured included Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Smith, Benjamin Smith, jr., Lowry Smith, Virginia, and Mary Garrett, daughters of Tilman Garrett. All were in serious condition at a private hospital at Six Mile, but were not believed hurt critically.

Communication was restored with Six Mile later.

D. E. Peek, resident of the small town, said seven houses in the town were wrecked—some of the furniture and household goods being found half a mile away.

According to Peek, the tornado was preceded by a heavy rain.

The bodies of the dead were all found under wreckage of their homes, Peek said.

Rain was predicted for Washington and Oregon and the extreme northern part of California by Friday, with snows and rains in the northern Sierras.

STATE SENATE'S PROBE OF AN ALLEGED CEMENT TRUST ENDS BY VOTE OF COMMITTEE TODAY

By HOMER L. ROBERTS
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 14.—(UP)—The state senate's investigation of an alleged "cement trust" in California came to a sudden but definite end in committee today.

After hours of wrangling, which lasted into the early morning, the committee decided that the original resolution authorizing the "cement trust" probe was not broad enough to justify sending 10 cement company officials to jail for contempt.

The vote was 7 to 5, as follows:

For contempt proceedings—Carter, Cleveland, Inman, Mueller and Rochester.

Against contempt proceedings—Senators Allen, Baker, Christian, McKinley, Nelson, Weller and West.

Renewal of the cement investigation was expected today. It was considered likely that either Senator George W. Rochester of Los Angeles or Senator J. M. Inman of Sacramento would move to authorize prosecution of the companies by Attorney General U. S. Webb.

Webb led the fight for contempt proceedings in the committee, declaring that the senate had full power to send the officials to jail for refusing to answer questions or produce records.

"If there is nothing in the records of these companies that is incriminating, why not show them?" said Webb. "The mere fact of their defiance has amplified the belief that there is something wrong."

Former Chief Justice Louis Meyers represented the cement producers, stressing the fact that the legislative branch of the government had no business investigating an alleged violation of the anti-trust law, as it was strictly a judicial question.

First opposition to Governor Young's reorganization bills developed in the assembly late yesterday when Assemblyman William Hornblower of San Francisco declared he would fight the measure creating a new state department of veterans and military affairs, "because it includes the state athletic commission."

"The athletic commission was created by vote of the people on an initiative measure," said Hornblower. "This legislature has no power to alter or change the status

PLEAS OF 1500 STRIKERS MEET ONLY DEFIANCE

Head of Rayon Silk Concern Refuses Wage Increase, Shorter Day

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn., March 14.—(UP) — The demand of 1500 striking women employees of the American Glantzstoff corporation here for recognition of their affiliation with the United Textile Workers of America was defiantly rejected today by Dr. Arthur Mothwurf, a president of the corporation.

"We will have nothing to do with an organization that started out as this one did, initiated with riot, disorder and considerable property damage," the corporation president said in a statement issued in advance of a scheduled meeting with spokesmen of the strikers.

Protesting against a 10-hour day and a wage scale ranging from 16 cents an hour upwards, several hundreds of the women and boys in their teens rioted here yesterday, stormed a bank, and then signed up with the United Textile Workers of America at a mass meeting last night.

What the malcontent women—Tennessee hill folk who came here to manufacture rayon silk and bemberg yarn—would do about rejection of their demand was not immediately clear.

"I haven't forgotten how to use a hoe," one of them said when asked what they might do if imported workers supplanted them. "We'll go back to the farm," said another. "We got along better then than we are now," said a third.

Four hundred strikers, many of them women, crashed the gates of the rayon factory yesterday and forced out 700 other workers. The plant was ordered closed and the rest of the workers joined the unannounced strike.

The women, most of them from mountain districts which boast American stock, screamed and battered at the gates, shouting, "We can't raise families on starvation wages."

Two guards were beaten by the strikers and when Mothwurt intervened he was hit on the head with a stone. Then the strikers stormed a bank, waving their paychecks and shouting. Two were injured in the crush around tellers' windows.

6000 Employes Of Northern Pacific Ask Wage Increase

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 14.—(UP)—Nearly 6000 craftsmen employed by the Northern Pacific railway today awaited the decision of the road's officials on a demand for a six-cent an hour wage increase.

E. N. Rogers, of Billings, Mont., and a committee of 33 shop workers presented a petition to the rail heads late Wednesday which asked wage increases amounting to $750,000 annually.

The increases would affect the members of the Associated Organizations of Shop Employes of the Northern Pacific over the entire line. A decision on the matter is expected to be reached within 48 hours.

FITTS' ELECTION TO OFFICE QUESTIONED

LOS ANGELES, March 14.—(UP)—A question as to whether or not Buron Fitts was legally elected to the office of district attorney of Los Angeles county today grew out of the controversy to determine just what salary he was entitled to receive.

Fitts himself questioned the legality of his own election and at the same time stated that Asa Keyes, former district attorney, convicted of bribery charges in connection with the Julian Petroleum Corporation collapse, may be found to be legally entitled to the district attorney's salary from the date on which he was replaced until February 8, last, when the office became vacant according to law.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 14.—(UP)—William J. Stevenson, said by police to be wanted for a $47,000 bond theft in Los Angeles, was being held here today.

Stevenson, who was employed at a club in Canada, had been living here for about two weeks. Buffalo officials said Sheriff William I. Traeger of Los Angeles county had advised that Stevenson was wanted for the theft of 300 shares of Main Oil company stock, two notes and other property belonging to E. Bailey Webb, of Los Angeles and of 35 collateral trust gold bonds from the Metropolitan company of California.

REBEL HEADS INVITED TO PEACE MEET

Major Battle of Insurrection expected Soon at Durango—Defend Naco

VICTORIES CLAIMED

Americans Move Across Border and U. S. Troops Are Sent on Patrol Duty

BY UNITED PRESS

THE MAIN MEXICAN federal army drove steadily toward Torreon for the major battle of the present insurrection.

Another federal force converged on Durango.

The federals holding Naco, on the northern Mexican border, prepared to defend the city against a rebel attack.

Three hundred additional American troops were ordered to protect the waterworks of Bisbee and Naco, Ariz., from damage in the fight expected just across the border.

Rebel headquarters at Juarez claimed insurrecto victories in two engagements with federals yesterday near Saltillo and somewhere near San Luis Potosi, but these claims were discounted somewhat by American airmen who flew over the Terrain and saw government troops marching uninterruptedly toward the north.

Mexican Consul L. M. Vasquez at Nogales, Ariz., invited rebel chiefs to a "peace meeting" with federal leaders today and supported President Portes Gil's prediction that the insurrection would die out within two weeks.

The rebels said they anticipated Calles would strike soon to get possession of Torreon, which is not only an important rail center but also contains large supplies of

SEARCH FOR BOY, 6, HAMPERED BY SNOW

GORDON, Neb., March 14.—(UP)—A snowstorm which has raged in this section for more than two days hampered today the work of 250 searchers for little Willie Reeves, 6, who went out into the blizzard to find a pair of mittens.

With snow almost two and a half feet deep, search for the youth became so difficult last night that it was abandoned. Since the snow was still falling today, there was a possibility that the hunt may not be resumed until the storm ceases and part of the snow has left the ground.

4 DOCTORS, 3 NURSES ATTEND ELSIE JANIS

PARIS, March 14.—(UP)—The recovery of Elsie Janis, American stage star, depends largely on her ability to relax and sleep, it was understood today.

The actress' four doctors and three nurses said she had been getting little rest and was spending sleepless nights. They emphasized that she must relax.

Mrs. Janis, the actress' mother, denied reports that a supposed feud with Mistinguette, French actress whose place she took in the latest Moulin Rouge revue, had aggravated her condition. The mother said Mistinguette was a daily caller.

Hollywood Film Players Decide On Tax Campaign

HOLLYWOOD, March 14.—(UP)—The Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences decided last night to promote a nation-wide campaign to attempt to effect a more reasonable income tax rate for screen players.

The academy also voted to have one member of the organization file a model tax return, as suggested in a telegram from Bebe Daniels, and to make a test case of this model in event the government challenged the figures.

This model form will contain all deduction that screen players believe practical.

war material and a powder factory.

From federal sources came reports that they were slowly driving rebel outposts back toward Torreon and that several deflections had occurred in the rebel ranks.

Cooperating with Calles was General Juan Almazan, Beau Brummel of all Mexican generals. He was reported advancing on Torreon from the east while the former president was drawing his troops up from the south.

Federal advices said a detachment of rebels, fleeing from Saltillo, was overtaken and defeated, 30 being killed and 300 captured.

Saltillo, reported captured by the rebels day before yesterday, still was in the hands of revolutionists.

Sonora rebels, under the command of General Francisco Manzo who is second in command among the insurgents, mobilized at Del Rio preparatory to marching on Naco, held by General Augustin Olachea, now a federal after having been a rebel and before that a supporter of the government.

Major Manuel Negrite, a rebel who escaped badly wounded from Naco, said Olachea has made extensive preparation to defend the border city and expected reinforcements.

Americans moved across the border and a detachment of United States cavalry, requested by Arizonans, patrolled the border.

Generals Ricardo Topete and Ramon Iturbe, were marching across the desert to reach Mazatlan, Sinaloa. Their troops are marching in parallel columns and expect a stiff fight from General Jaime Carrillo, who has entrenched his troops in the seaport.

A battle was expected there in a day or so, rebel headquarters announced.

of a state agency so created."

A series of 10 bills strengthening the state laws on automobile liabiliy and highway safety was adopted by the assembly and sent to the senate.

These measures, recommended by a special investigating committee headed by Speaker Edgar C. Levey of San Francisco, represented the result of two years' study of plans to reduce the death toll from highway accidents.

The Massachusetts compulsory automobile liability insurance law, which was introduced in the legislature in 1927 and postponed during the investigation, has thus far been a failure, Levey said.

The series of bills, briefly, are as follows:

Requiring suspension of a driver's license. If final judgment for damage is not paid in 15 days, until $5000 is paid for one person killed or $10,000 for more than one, an insurance policy or cash bond is taken out.

Providing maximum penalty of one year in the county jail or $1000 fine or both for driving an automobile after the license has been suspended.

Fixing parents' responsibility for negligence of their children who are driving family automobiles with or without the parents' consent.

Fixing liability of an owner, within certain limits, for negligence of a driver operating his car with express or implied permission.

relatives. A resolution from the Riverside chapter of the disabled veterans expressing the same deep sympathy was read.

State Adjutant Harry Edwards, of Santa Ana, paid a remarkable tribute to Jack Fisher's memory when he expressed the belief that his heroism on the battlefield, although a shining example of bravery and courage, was surpassed by the heroism which he showed during his years of struggle and suffering after his return. The world knows of the sacrifices and valiant deeds of Jack Fisher on the battlefield, but his smiling, uncomplaining courage through years later of suffering from wounds received there revealed him a greater hero still, Edwards said. There probably are but two or three men in the nation, Edwards declared, who were as great both on the field of battle and at home in the field of service as Jack Fisher.

Over 100 persons gathered at last night's meeting, at which a large group of distinguished visiting officials of the Disabled American Veterans of the World war were present. Senior Vice Commander L. A. Riehl was in charge of the session. Visiting from the San Fernando chapter and addressing the gathering were Commander Dave Lawton, Adjutant John R. Salmon, Frank Muller, historian; State Executive Committeeman Herman Prisher, Albert Gallehue, officer of the day; Herbert Potts and Edward P. Nash.

Commander John F. Burke and Chaplain Harry E. Wheeler, of the Riverside chapter; Commander D. L. Vasbinder, of Ontario; and Commander Bruce McDaniels, of Redlands, also addressed the meeting.

Many others spoke briefly, including Commander Rose Edwards, of the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary; Mrs. L. A. Riehl, Mrs. E. L. Struble and Mrs. H. S. Pickard, of the auxiliary. Fifteen new members were introduced.

"Cowboy" Ed Tomlin, pitcher for the Portland Beavers, outlined the highlights in the life of a baseball player and predicted a great season for the Coast league.

The organization went on record as endorsing the candidacy of State Commander William Murphy, Santa Ana, for the position of national commander. The election will be held in June at the national convention in Detroit. Visiting chapter members also expressed their readiness to support the candidacy of Murphy.

Former Official Of Lions Speaks At Orange Banquet

ORANGE, March 14.—Jack Reilly of Long Beach, past district governor of Lions of this district, was the principal speaker at a banquet given by the local organization in the American Legion hall last night. Wives of members shared the occasion with their husbands.

Reilly spoke on the principles of Lionism. Two readings and a solo were given by Billy Dick Riehl, of Tustin. Dinner was served by the American Legion auxiliary. Paul Muench, president of the club, acted as toastmaster, a number of informal toasts being given. About 60 were present. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, Gledhill's orchestra furnishing the music.

Continuing the talks on "Women of the Passion," the Rev. W. J. Hatter, rector of the Church of the Messiah, will present the character of "Salome" at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Like most of the other women of the Passion, but little is known of this aunt of Christ, the mother of the Sons of Thunder, James and John. The legends woven about her state she was a woman of retiring disposition, zealous and faithful, altogether an interesting character of the ages, the rector declares.

Withdraw Permit For Funds Drive By Negro Church

Declaring that the time seemed inopportune, W. G. Knox, city manager, today announced withdrawal of permission to the Rev. D. L. McGriff to conduct a tag day here Saturday in behalf of the Second Baptist (colored) church here. Knox said that the Rev. Mr. McGriff had stated he would respect the opinion of the city manager and would make no effort to raise money for the church at this time.

WIT FEATURES SERMONS GIVEN BY EVANGELIST

Persons from as far north as Sacramento and as far south as Escondido attended the revival services, yesterday, in the First Church of the Nazarene, Fifth and Parton streets. Three meetings were held yesterday.

The Rev. O. G. Nease, president of Pasadena college, preached in the morning and Rev. "Uncle Bud" Robinson had charge of the other meetings.

Robinson's subject last night was "Abundant Grace." When you want to see an abundant supply, look at the Pacific ocean," he said, and holding up his pocketbook, he continued, "and when you want to see a meager supply, look at this."

Highlights of his address last night were as follows: "Women don't keep their money in stockings these days, because their skirts are too short and their stockings too thin."

"When I came to Christ, He boiled me down and skimmed me off until it looked like I would go to skimmin's."

"I may not preach like some of the doctors today but I mean to put some burrs in your wool that will be there until shearing time."

"Most of us need not brag on our brains, for there are a lot of us pulling the hill on three spark plugs."

"When God saved me, He dumped a hogshead of honey over in my soul and I have a bee gum there that I haven't tapped from last year."

"I used to play seven up, when I ought to have been playing two down," and Robinson pointed to his knees.

"When that old Methodist circuit rider came through Texas, preaching on heaven, he made me want to go. Then he preached on hell until I was afraid I would go."

"A waffle is just a non-skid pancake and it won't slide off your plate."

"Too many babes in Christ with their milk bottles—we need more soldiers of the cross."

"Some folks say they would be willing if they could just get to heaven by the skin of their teeth, when they have already warn the enamel off chewing tobacco."

"I know what poverty is. When I was a lad, I slept on the floor with a dog; he is a poor bedfellow for you can't make him straighten out."

"The preacher who is supported by money from ice cream socials ought to tip his hat to every Jersey cow."

LEGION CAMPAIGN POSTER

Former soldiers and sailors are reminded that they should be members of the Santa Ana post, American Legion, by posters similar to the one shown in the picture below, which have been distributed about the city.

SON-IN-LAW IS VICTORIOUS IN DAMAGE ACTION

Lee A. Hardy and his wife, Nellie Hardy, today had emerged victorious in a court tilt with Hardy's father-in-law, Walter Jones, despite the fact that Hardy declined to be represented by an attorney when the case was called yesterday in Superior Judge H. G. Ames' court.

Jones had brought suit against Hardy for $16,550 damages, as a result of an automobile accident in which he and Mrs. Jones claimed to have been injured. They were riding in the Hardy car when another machine collided with it at the intersection of Huntington Beach boulevard and Seventeenth street, on August 24, the complaint stated.

Hardy is said to have informed the court that the Home Accident Insurance company policy which he held provided that the concern should represent him. But when the case opened the company appeared as intervenor on its own behalf, represented by S. B. Kaufman. It was said that a "conflict of interests" was responsible for the shift.

A motion for non-suit was granted yesterday and the judgment was for the defendant. Jones was represented by Kennith Burns and A. P. Nelson.

Grand Master To Attend Santa Ana Masonic Meeting

Masons of the city today were keenly interested in the announcement by W. A. Patterson, worshipful master, that Gustax A. Hutaff, grand master, would be present at the meeting of Jubilee lodge, tomorrow night, when the third degree will be conferred by grand officers.

It was anticipated that the presence here of the grand master would be the incentive for attendance by a large number of members.

'Don't Let Old Age Overtake You' Slogan of Legion Drive

"Don't let old age overtake you."

That is the slogan of Santa Ana post, American Legion, in its 1929 campaign for new members, and is being used to good effect, according to Franklin G. West, post commander.

The Santa Ana post will initiate about 50 new members tonight at its regular meeting, which will open at 6:30.

Posters containing the slogan have been distributed about the city and are attracting much attention, according to West.

$30,301 CRASH TRIAL OPENED: P. E. DEFENDANT

Superior Judge H. G. Ames' court today was the scene of trial in a $30,301.50 damage suit brought against the Pacific Electric company by Jacob P. Vilhauer, Long Beach, who claimed that the defendant was guilty of negligence when an electric inter-urban car struck his automobile at the Lincoln boulevard crossing, near Cypress.

Selection of the jury was completed at 10:35 a. m., and opening statements were made by counsel. Vilhauer claimed that the street car did not give any warning on approaching the crossing and that it travelled at an excessive rate of speed. Attorneys for the dfeendant, E. E. Morris, and Scarborough, Forgy and Reinhaus, of Santa Ana, asserted that Vilhauer was guilty of contributory negligence and that he did not exercise ordinary care and caution to avoid the crash.

The accident occurred on April 20, 1926, while Vilhauer was driving from Anaheim to Long Beach. The complaint stated that he received a broken and unjointed hip, that his lower jaw was broken and all his teeth loosened and that he was confined to a hospital from April 20 to June 24, 1926 as a result.

H. L. Burgess was motorman and C. A. Rost conductor on the Pacific Electric car, it was reported. Vilhauer is represented by Homer N. Boardman.

305 famous Beauty Shops say, "Give your hands

Beauty Care right in the dishpan"

RECENTLY, 305 of the finest beauty salons in the United States reported this interesting fact—

"With all our experience,"—these experts said—"we cannot distinguish between hands that never wash dishes and hands that use Lux in the dishpan. . . . Evidently, Lux gives real beauty care."

These experts observe thousands of hands and they know! In their own words, Lux means "beauty care" right in your own dishpan!

Isn't this a startling idea? Yet women instinctively know it is true. Washing their fine things in the gorgeously sparkling Lux suds, women themselves noticed how smooth and white their hands looked afterward.

Now they are washing dishes with Lux to give their hands the same gentle beauty care—three times a day!

The secret is simple . . .

Lux is so utterly pure, so delicately refined by the special process used in its making, that it protects the precious beauty oils—the youth oils—of the skin. Many soaps dry up these oils, leave the skin parched—red and drawn looking.

Best of all, this beauty care costs almost nothing. Lux for all your dishes costs less than 1¢ a day!

Such Inexpensive Beauty Care—Lux in the dishpan is the wisest, most inexpensive beauty care known! Gives gentle, soothing care to your hands—with no extra time, no trouble—and costs less than 1¢ a day.

PHONE LINEMAN'S KNOWLEDGE OF FIRST AID METHODS SAVES LIVES OF AUTO CRASH VICTIMS

Instructions in first aid, such as are a required part of the training of all employes of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, not only went far toward alleviating the sufferings of a party of injured motorists, if not actually saving their lives, but it also won for H. L. Weaver, a repair man from the Santa Ana office of the "Tel. and Tel. company," the warm commendation and appreciation of the victims of the accident, and also of attending physicians in the Santa Ana Valley hospital.

The accident in question took place Sunday on the state highway between Irvine and San Juan Capistrano, where the road branches off for El Toro, but Weaver's part in coming to the aid of the victims came to the attention of Earl F. Morrow, manager here for the company, only today. Involved in the accident were Dr. O. K. Gross, a surgeon from the naval base in San Diego and driver of the wrecked car, and M. Batherick, together with a Filipino, Vicente Blas, and two young lads, the latter two, fortunately, scarcely hurt at all.

Three Seriously Hurt

The car, with Dr. Gross at the wheel, skidded on the slippery boulevard, struck another car and overturned, seriously injuring the three adults. Observe the long arm of coincidence. While the three men were lying unconscious in the rain, the first person to pass was Weaver, a leader in the aforesaid first aid classes. Faced by a phalanx of unconscious men, he would have done exactly what he did when he saw three lying injured, perhaps mortally—immediately set to work on first aid methods. But again coincidence played a part, for of all the linemen employed by the company, Weaver, as it happens, would be the only one equipped for the step which he took at once.

This was to attach the steel spurs, by means of which a lineman climbs a telegraph pole, "shin" up the nearest pole, cut in on a wire and attach the magneto test set which he alone of all his comrades, is privileged to carry, and telephone to the sheriff's office for an ambulance with physicians and nurses.

Returning to the ground, Weaver used the emergency case, with which every lineman's automobile is equipped, and deftly dressed the wounds of the three men, applying tourniquets where necessary to stop the flow of blood. He covered them over with his own coat and overcoat to protect them from the pouring rain and, when the ambulance arrived in half an hour, the attending physician, Dr. Frank Paterson, found as pretty a piece of first aid work accomplished as he ever had met in his experience, according to his own statement.

Nurses Reveal Story

Weaver's self-effacing modesty forbade his making a report of what he had done and it was only through the physician and nurses that the story came out. Weaver lives at 519 East Bishop street and has charge of the district comprising San Juan Capistrano, Dana Point and San Clemente. He has been in the employ of the company for a number of years and was a member of thef irst aid class that gave instructions to the state motor squad some two or three years ago.

Thanks to the aid which Fate sent so opportunely, the stay of the accident victims in the hospital was not a lengthy one and all now have returned to their homes.

RECTOR TELLS CHARACTER OF PONTIUS PILATE

Brought upon the stage in the midweek sermon of last night by the Rev. W. J. Hatter, rector of the Church of the Messiah, was Pontius Pilate, Roman governor of Jerusalem, in the rector's fourth sermon on "The Men who Crucified Christ." The Rev. Mr. Hatter said, in part:

"This governor, representing the power, wealth and luxury of Rome, came from Caesarea to Jerusalem to remain during the feasts of the Passover. It was part of his duty to be in the holy city during the feasts and celebrations of the Jewish people, history states.

"Pilate hated the Jews and the Jews hated Pilate. Three times he had mortally offended the Jewish people of that province. Once by bringing in the Roman standards on the flagstaffs. So great was the tumult following this act that Pilate had to send the standards back to the seat of government at Caesarea. Once more he offended by bringing certain tablets into Jerusalem and again he was compelled to return them, so great was the uproar against them and him. Then he brought water in great quantities into the palace of Herod for his ablutions, although he knew water was scarce in the city—and again the roar against this hated Roman.

"But after the trial in the Sanhedrin, which lasted all night, Christ was dragged before Pilate for sentence. The Jews had passed sentence of death on him, but it was necessary to have Pilate confirm that sentence. In the early dawn picture Pilate upon the porch of the palace. He looked upon the howling Jews he hated and upon their prisoner. He examined Christ and in him found no fault. He tried to release him. Again and again he tried to release the innocent prisoner, for Pilate knew He was innocent. But the high priests and the rabble incited by them would have none of it. They were out for blood. They wanted the robber, not the Christ, released. How singular it was that in all that multitude, not one of his own people defended Christ. It was a foreigner who defended him, who tried to have his life.

"But Pilate was morally a coward. He was afraid of his position, he was afraid of the Jews. He could have released Christ even after he released Barrabbas, the robber. He tried to appeal to the better natures of the people by having Christ scourged, hoping that the sight of the suffering, bleeding man might incline them to mercy. But no, there was no mercy there. Away with him! Crucify him!

"Delivered into their hands to be crucified was this innocent man. Pilate ostentatiously washed his hands before the multitude, but if he washed them from that day until eternity he could not wash away the innocent blood he had shed. Strange to say Pilate afterward lost his high position, was disgraced by being relegated to some obscure post in Gaul and history declares he committed suicide. Pilate was the third one in the great tragedy responsible for the death of Christ. First, Judas; second, Ciaphas, the high priest; third, Pilate. His fear, his moral weakness is the lesson. His conscience told him to do one thing and he ignored it to do another. So, too, with us—we are so often false to our own convictions. We do not heed the voice of conscience. Like Pilate we crucify Christ."

Program Provided By Toastmasters For Kiwanis Club

The Santa Ana Toastmasters' club "performed" at the meeting, yesterday, of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club, with Chester Hawk presiding as program chairman and Warren Hillyard as toastmaster.

The efficient work of the club, formed by Ralph Smedley, executive secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, was demonstrated by the masterly manner in which two speakers from the club handled their subjects.

A. G. Green discussed "Business Ethics" and Sam Hurwitz related some of his impressions of Washington, D. C. The merchant visited in the national capital some time ago.

Banjo selections by Messrs. Sundstrom and Brooks offered the musical part of the program.

RADIO FORUM TALKS

WHO SAID "SILENT CAL"?

Calvin Coolidge, during his terms as President of the United States, made more than 40 radio addresses. In 1928 he made 16 radio addresses.

RADIO COMPASS AIDS BYRD

The radio compass, that scientific guide which proved so valuable in ship rescues recently, is getting a good workout on Byrd's Anarctic expedition. Equipped with a Kolster radio compass, the supply ship of the expedition, Eleanor Bolling, left the base in a blizzard with visibility less than a half mile, went 300 miles to the whaler Larsen, loaded up with whale meat and then dashed back to the base. The four radio operators of the expedition, Grenlie, Larsen, Berkner and Hanson, are seen here with the compass.

RADIO TO SOLVE AIR NAVIGATION, SAYS O'ROURKE

NEW YORK CITY, March 14.—Radio will be the sole means of air navigation, while all controls for a plane will contain automatic mechanisms for observation and operation, Capt. Peter V. O'Rourke said at the recent Aviation show in New York City.

Captain O'Rourke is a skilled navigator. He began his life on the sea as a wireless operator aboard the S. S. "New York," in 1910. During the World War he was a lieutenant in the merchant marine, acting as navigating officer, as by that time he held a master's license, "any tonnage, any ocean."

He has been prominent in yachting circles for 18 years, and for 10 of those years has been a yachtmaster. He has participated in many yacht races.

Takes Up Flying

For the last few years he has been deeply interested in aviation, and at the age of 37—a year ago—he took up flying. He is now regularly in flight, all the while making observations looking toward the solution of air navigation problems.

Captain O'Rourke's statement on navigation of the air by radio follows:

"The master mariner who looked contemptuously upon the radio navigator may find in that same 'Sparks' the navigator of the air whose skill will supplant the time-honored astronomical observations of the Saga of the Seas.

"Ships' wireless operators, many of whom have quit the key to become navigating officers, will return to their original calling and control the destiny of the ships of the air.

"The methods of determining position and direction as used at sea, requiring charts, mathematical tables sextants, azimuth instruments, peloruses, compasses, protractors, chronometers and a radio set with which to check some of the instruments, are not practical in ordinary use for piloting an airplane. Weight and space do not permit the use of this equipment, without considering the necessity of carrying along a skilled navigator.

No Skill Required

"Radio receivers are now being developed together with transmitting apparatus which will enable the aircraft pilot to determine at a glance the direction in which to head his ship, its altitude, position and speed. Signals and weather reports will be available both visually and orally so as to obviate the hazards of flight during inclement weather.

"Finding one's position by means of radio bearings is at present common practice at sea and in the air. This process is simple and most accurate.

"The airplane instrument board of the near future will contain lightweight simplified radio appurtenances automatically operated and requiring no skill on the part of the pilot.

"It will portray for him the complete log of the flight and will include television devices showing close-ups of the terrain beneath the plane regardless of atmospheric conditions.

"It is not beyond the bounds of reason to expect radio to furnish the motive power to propel the plane, thereby reducing mechanical weight and completely eliminating the problem of fuelling.

"To radio we must look for the future of aviation.

"On the crest of a Hertzian wave will the ship of the air ply its way."

Farm Program To Come Over Chain At 7:30 Tonight

Orange county farmer radio fans will join with millions of others at 7:30 p. m., today, in listening to the first National Farm Bureau federation broadcast ever put on the air. The Garden Grove Farm center will feature the program at its meeting tonight.

The program can be picked up either from KQW, San Jose, or KOA, Denver, according to Norman M. Blaney, executive secretary of the Orange County Farm bureau. Blaney received a telegram today from Alec Johnson, secretary of the California Farm Bureau federation, announcing the program.

Samuel Thompson, president of the national organization, will be chairman of the affair. There will be several speakers and musical numbers. The affair will last until 8:30 p. m.

RADIO FANS PAY

Last year British radio fans paid the government, in the form of receiver tax, $5,500,000. This amount went to the support of the 21 government stations. If the 600-odd stations in America were operated in this manner, it would cost listeners in this country $192,000,000 annually.

WGY AWARDED FULL TIME AND 50,000 WATTS

WASHINGTON, March 14.—On the ground that the order of the Federal Radio Commission, granting only part time to WGY, Schenectady, N. Y., was unreasonable and contrary to public opinion, interest and necessity, the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia ordererd the Commission to issue a full-time license to the station.

The other contention presented by WGY, that by virtue of its long possession of the 790 kc frequency it had a vested property right therein, akin to the possession of a trade mark in commercial affairs, and that the part-time order was an invasion of such constitutional property right, was denied.

The court was persuaded in favor of WGY because of the station's scientific importance, due to its developmental and experimental work; because of the $1,500,000 capital investment, and because of the 2,000,000 listeners in New York, Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire who depend largely on WGY for regular reception of programs.

The court compared the operation of WGY on part time, whereby it was ordered by the Commission to stop broadcasting at sunset Pacific time because KGO, Oakland, Calif., was scheduled to have exclusive use of the channel from then on, and the simultaneous operation of WGY and KGO after sunset Pacific time.

Both WGY and KGO are owned and operated by the General Electric company. WGY had been authorized to use 50,000 watts by court order, while KGO has 10,000 watts.

"It must be assumed," the opinion contends, "that WGY, operating in the evening at 50,000 watts, would at certain distances interfere with the broadcasting of KGO, with its smaller power."

The court held that such interference would be secondary to public inconvenience caused by WGY being silenced at night.

BEFORE THE MIKE

Women are more receptive to radio programs than men, according to Anne Brae, one of the team of Phil and Anna Brae at WOR, Newark. "Both Phil and I have worked on the air at all hours and the count is overwhelmingly in favor of the women," says Anne. "At one time we got 6185 letters from men." The Brae act, incidentally, is a portrayal of married life.

Everyone will probably welcome the announcement that the Seiberling Singers quartet is back on the air again and will hold forth on Thursday nights on the NBC network. While they were away the Seiberling orchestra, under the direction of Erno Rapee, substituted for them.

Revere

Note the "iron hat." That's worn because once he was a movie actor. This gentleman, because of his resemblance to the late Wallace Reid, doubled for him in his last two pictures. But his present love is radio. He chatters amusingly, sings and plays the piano at KGO, San Francisco. Although he's reticent about it, he may be a descendant of America's first night rider, for his name is Paul Revere!

Miss Baklor

WBAL'S latest acquisition is Elsa Baklor, a Virginian by birth, but who received her entire vocal training in Baltimore. Miss Baklor is a soprano and appears in solo recitals and special broadcasts. Miss Baklor got her start when she appeared as a guest artist with the De Feo Opera company at Baltimore. Then followed a series of engagements with the Baltimore Symphony orchestra and concerts at other cities signed by Frederick R. Huber, director of WBAL.

SENATE'S RADIO DIRECTOR

Radio fans now get in on the ground floor of the U. S. senate. Co-operating with the senate broadcasting committee, the NBC is broadcasting a weekly series of programs known as "Half Hours with the Senate." In this series, prominent statesmen discuss matters confronting the senate. Senator Jesse H. Metcalf, of Rhode Island, shown here, is chairman of the broadcasting committee.

Reports of new developments in the radio field have been coming thick and fast. New tubes, new loud speakers, new controls, switches and integral parts of receivers promise to raise the level of radio reception manifold.

When the radio manufacturers and dealers get together in Chicago next June, preparatory to plans for the popular radio shows in September, they will discuss, among other things, the following outstanding innovations:

1. Screen-grid tubes of the heater type for A. C. operation.
2. Inductor-dynamic loud speakers and electro-static loud speakers—novelties in reproducer design over even the electro-dynamic reproducer of today.

More Automatic Devices

3. Automatic volume control.
4. Single tuning control, line voltage control and remote control tuning.
5. Improved amplification design and more selective radio frequency control.
6. New detector and power tubes.
7. Time clock switch for automatic operation of the receiver.

The list, incomplete as it is, reveals the amazing possibilities for development still before us in the radio field. These innovations promise much more faithful reproduction of all tones within ear range, less squeals and whistles, more perfect tuning and less distraction in the process of tuning from sudden ear-bursting noises.

The screen-grid tube has been over a year in use in the battery-operated receivers and has proven its value in increased sensitivity and the prevention of oscillation, with its accompanying howls, in radio frequency circuits of receivers. Two such tubes in the radio frequency stages are said to equal five ordinary tubes. The result of the use of fewer tubes in reception would be smaller and

BAD RECEPTION SEEN IN RESULT OF WGY BATTLE

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Louis G. Caldwell, formerly chief counsel of the Federal Radio Commission, and now its special counsel, commenting on the court decision whereby WGY was granted full time, declared that the decision destroys the equalization between the First and Fifth Zones. He said:

"The opinion holds that WGY is entitled to full-time operation with 50,000 watts power on the frequency of 790 kc. This frequency or channel was assigned by General Order 40 to the Fifth Zone to be used by the General Electric Company station at Oakland, California.

"Although the court does not say so, this decision necessarily holds that General Order 40 is invalid to the extent that it assigns this channel to the Fifth Zone; and if both KGO and WGY are to continue to operate on it, the channel ceases to be a cleared channel, with the result that all the listening public outside of a comparatively small area around either station will have reception spoiled for them by a heterodyne whistle.

"It also means that the equalization which the commission so carefully worked out between the five Zones has been destroyed as between the First and Fifth Zones with respect to cleared channels. Just what effect, if any, the decision will have on the other portions of General Order 40 it is too early to say."

He added that the decision was handed down while a brief prepared by him was being printed, and that according to rules of the court he still had several days left to file the brief. He said a rehearing would be asked, and the case taken to the United States supreme court, if possible.

Senator Dill, Democrat, of the state of Washington, said in the senate:

"Throughout the case, the court's treatment of counsel of the Commission has been discourteous to say the least. I do not know of any case of a legal nature where counsel has been treated with so little courtesy or where his rights have been so overridden as in this case."

Radio Will Boost New Mexico

LAS CRUCES, N. M., March 14.—In response to numerous requests from school children of the country, asking for information about New Mexico, the chamber of commerce of Las Cruces, New Mexico, has arranged for a series of lectures on "The State Nobody Knows."

These will be broadcast every Tuesday night at 8 o'clock for the next two months from Radio Station KOB, State College, New Mexico. The lecturer is Prof. R. G. Breland, head of the English department of the English department of the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.

Professor Breland has spent many vacations in investigating the little-known beauties of this state.

SIGRID ONEGIN ON KENT SUNDAY HOUR

"Sigrid the toiler," who typed and stenogged her way to musical fame, might be part of the story of the struggle of Sigrid Onegin, the newest and youngest European concert contralto and operatic star who is to be guest artist during the Atwater Kent Radio Hour Sunday night. But there is considerably more to the life history of this truly international singer, whose voice a coast-to-coast network of the National Broadcasting company will carry to the entire American nation.

Born in Stockholm, the daughter of an attache of the French embassy and his German wife, Mme. Onogin married a Russian, who died in a military prison during the World War. She made her first great triumph as a singer in a performance of "Carmen" with the late Enrico Caruso as chief star. Educated from childhood to speak and understand the philosophy of three languages—Swedish, French and German, she added many others during a life in which tragedy stalked and forced her to work as a stenographer and typist to earn money for her music lessons.

DRESSING ROOM RADIO LATEST SHUBERT IDEA

With the realization that comedians must have topical matter at their finger tips if they are to "get across" the footlights, the Messrs. J. J. and Lee Shubert have, by special arrangement with C. A. Earl, president of the Freshman company, makers of Freed-Eisemann and Freshman radio receivers, purchased receiving sets for the dressing rooms of Shubert theaters throughout the United States. It is planned that one dressing room in each house will be radio equipped and that this dressing room will be assigned to the comedians of musical attractions playing the houses.

Spot news reaches actors first via the radio, it was pointed out by an executive of the Shubert office. He said in part:

"I do not mean that the press is slower than the radio in picking up news and reaching the great mass of people but simply that actors are notoriously late risers, frequently turning over in bed only just in time to arrive at the theater for the 'half hour' call. Moreover many events, some of great importance, happen during the course of an evening's performance. I recall that President Wilson asked Congress to declare war against Germany almost in the middle of the evening and the fact wasn't brought home to many theater-goers until they were on their way home. If radio sets had been in the dressing rooms of the theaters back in 1917, and if radio, at that time, had reached its present day perfection, why the President's request would have been made an 'added attraction' in every theater in the nation.

"We are happy at the Shubert office that we have been able to be the first chain of important theaters to install radio sets in dressing rooms."

Earl, commenting upon the purchase, stressed the fact that the radio and the theater were in no way competitors. He said, "The theater as well as motion pictures and the radio has a definite place in every life that is lived to its fullest and each should do its utmost to increase the happiness of every man, woman and child throughout the world. I feel that our agreement with the Shubert theaters will enable the theater to increase its usefulness to a greater degree than ever before. Radio has a definite contribution to make to the theater, just as the theater has one to make to radio."

WATSON IS ROILED BY CANADIAN PACT

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Senator Watson, (Republican), of Indiana, chairman of the senate committee on Interstate Commerce, is "violently opposed" to any agreement with Canada on continental wavelengths that would give the United States only 1½ waves to 1 for Canada.

He questioned W. D. Terrell, chief of the Radio Division of the Department of Commerce, who was a delegate to the short-wave conference with Canadians, recently held in Canada. The questioning took place at a hearing held by the Interstate Commerce committee. Terrell said he was informed such an agreement was contemplated.

Senator Watson then declared: "I am violently opposed to that allocation. It's based on our population as it existed a century ago and on the estimated population of Canada a century hence."

Mr. Terrell said no agreement had been made yet, but that an effort was being made to reach an agreement.

DIAL MARKINGS ARE DISCUSSED BY RAY MANSON

By RAY H. MANSON
Chief Engineer Stromberg-Carlson Company

Real pleasure can be had from an automobile only when it is easy to handle. Likewise, thorough enjoyment from a radio receiver can be had only when stations are easily and instantly tuned in.

With the coming of the single dial tuner a great step was taken in making the radio receiver easily operated. However, as is usually the case with all new developments, it was not achieved without certain problems arising which were solved in different ways by different manufacturers.

This problem, which might seem to be a rather unimportant one, was how to mark the dial—in wavelengths, in kilocycles, or from 0 to 100? Set makers have used all three methods, resulting in wide variations in receiving set tuning. The government and its radio commission speak in terms of kilocycles and have tried to establish it as a common practice, but it has been impossible to get the radio public out of its original habit of thinking in terms of wavelengths. It is much more logical to the public mind to think of wavelengths, inasmuch as wavelengths increase from the bottom to the top of the dial, whereas kilocycles decrease.

There is one objection, however, in using either wavelengths or kilocycles for dial markings, and this is the relative instability of the broadcasting allocations over long periods of time. In its effort to improve radio reception, the radio commission constantly is changing wavelengths. It is much easier to remember the position of a station by numbers from 0 to 100 than by having to remember numbers from 200 to 550, the present broadcast range.

For the present, therefore, we believe that the simple marking from 0 to 100 best serves the convenience of the listener.

The San Francisco studio of the NBC reports that its musical library, composed of some 10,000 pieces of music, is valued at about $25,000.

LIBERIA HAS ITS RADIO FANS, TOO!

A wholly new conception of music is being gained by the natives of Liberia, on the west coast of Africa, since the arrival of American enterprise which is rapidly developing the jungle into fertile rubber lands. Despite the deep love of music inherent in the native soul, their opportunities heretofore have been confined to the crude instruments and harmonies common to the bush. But with the coming of the white man all this is being changed. As the native Liberians are beginning to enjoy the advantages of improved educational and industrial progress, so are they receiving with joy the new world of music opening up to them. Thousands of natives travelled great distances in response to an invitation to assemble at the Firestone plantation headquarters to hear the first "Voice of Firestone" program broadcast from America to Africa. These programs go on the air every Monday night to 43 stations in the United States and over short wave from WGY, Schenectady, to every part of the world. It is 5000 miles from Akron to Liberia, but although sound travels 186,000 miles per second the programs are not heard in Monrovia until five hours later on account of the difference in time on the other side of the earth. But the natives patiently wait until 1 a. m. to hear the beautiful western melodies and they listen with deep attention and respect as at Akron the Great White Chief, as they term Harvey S. Firestone, greets his employes assembled in this far-off little African republic. The first picture shows a typical group of natives and white employes assembled in this far-off little African republic. The first picture shows a typical group of natives and white employes listening to a "Voice of Firestone" program broadcast from Schenectady. To the left is a Liberia belle in a native dance which she is evidently hugly enjoying. At the right, a typical Bush "orchestra" is playing the crude instruments in use in Liberia for centuries.

CENTRAL RADIO INSTALLED BY BIG HOSTELRY

The first major hotel installation of its new centralized radio system was announced today by the Radio Corporation of America. To the Allerton House of Chicago, lragest hotel of the Allerton chain, goes the distinction of providing individual radio reception, through a wall-type loudspeaker, to guests in 887 of its 990 rooms, and pioneering in a new field of hotel service.

Other hotels have experimented with radio service in guest rooms. Head-phones, plugged into a baseboard switch and movable loudspeakers connected in the same manner, have been installed in several hotels. The Allerton House, however, is the first important hotel to adopt the standard centralized equipment developed only a few months ago by the Radio Corporation's engineers.

Briefly, the present centralized radio installation comprises a central receiving unit with one, two, three or four "channels," each tuned to a different program; a powerful and highly efficient amplifying unit, and a number of automatic controls. The entire equipment of this central receiving station, as it is called, is mounted ruggedly and compactly on a switchboard.

Secondly, there is the distribution, or "feeder" system which takes the program to all parts of the hotel. Lastly, there is the listening-in equipment which takes the form of headphones or loudspeakers, installed in each room. The loudspeaker is equipped with a manual volume control as well as with a channel selector switch permits the occupant of the room to enjoy a choice of programs.

The complete equipment required for the reception of a single program constitutes what is known as a "channel" and is mounted at the back of the vertically arranged panels. Each receiving channel comprises a monitoring loudspeaker, by means of which the operator may adjust both the receiver proper and the amplifier at will.

There also is a time which starts and stops the programs automatically at any designated hour. Once the channel receiver has been satisfactorily tuned to a given station, its controls are locked to avoid tinkering. Separate panels are provided for both receiving and amplifying units, as well as a distribution panel for regulating the output.

-MY FRIENDS, KNOWING I COULD BOX, INSISTED ON MY GOING INTO THE RING-YOU SHOULD HAVE SEEN THE LOOK OF DISGUST ON THE CHAMP'S FACE WHEN I CRAWLED THROUGH THE ROPES—

-TO SHOW HIS DISREGARD FOR MY ABILITY, HE STARTED TO CLOWN TRYING TO PLAY CLAP HANDS WITH ME AND HITTING ME GENTLY WITH THE OPEN GLOVE, SAYING- "TAKE THAT AND THAT"

THE AUDIENCE WAS BEGINNING TO ENJOY HIS ANTICS GREATLY- THIS WAS VERY RIDICULING TO ME, BUT I SOON BROUGHT A STOP TO IT WHEN I BROUGHT UP MY RIGHT FROM MY KNEE FLUSH ON HIS JAW.

HE TOOK THE MATCH SERIOUSLY FROM THEN ON AND THE CUSTOMERS SAT BACK IN THEIR SEATS AND SAW A REAL SCRAP-

I STARTED TO GIVE THAT BIRD A BOXING LESSON, BEATING HIM TO EVERY PUNCH-THIS MADE HIM FURIOUS-HE STARTED A HAYMAKER FROM THE CANVAS AND IF IT HAD HIT ME THE SHOW WOULD HAVE BEEN OVER, BUT I SIDESTEPPED IT AND HE WENT CLEAR THROUGH THE ROPES

THEN I SHOWED THAT BIRD SOME GLOVES-I GAVE HIM A BOXING LESSON HE DIDN'T KNOW WAS IN THE BOOK—

AND ABOUT THE MIDDLE OF THE 3RD. ROUND, I UNCORKED ONE THAT LANDED SQUARE ON HIS JAW AND MADE HIS FEET CHANGE PLACES WITH HIS HEAD

I HAD HIM OUT BUT THEY PULLED THE CURTAIN -YOU SHOULD HAVE HEARD THE AUDIENCE CHEER ME AND I HAD SOME WONDERFUL OFFERS TO BOX BUT I REJECTED THEM ALL.

ST. PATRICK'S PROGRAM PLAN OF SEIBERLINGS

The ether will be tinted green and the air thick with brogue this evening, March 14, when the Seiberling Singers will do a pre-St. Patrick's Day program of Irish medleys, melodies, jigs and reels.

This shamrock-laden program promises to include some of the loveliest of Erin's songs. It will open with an Irish Medley arrangement by Frank Black, Musical director of the Seiberling Hour and one of the foremost of modern composers, which will be done by the Seiberling Singers quartet. It will include Ernest R. Ball's "A Little Bit of Heaven" sung by James Melton, Seiberling's own tenor, several rollicking moments while Phil Ohman and Victor Arden play a group of Irish jigs and reels on their two famous pianos, and Claribel's beloved "Come Back to Erin" done as a violin chorus number by the Seiberling singing violins.

In honor of one particular Irishman—Victor Herbert—the quartet will also sing one of the most popular selections the Dublin-born American wrote—the "Entr'acte" from "Naughty Marietta."

To deepen the green of the evening ether the quartet will add an old Irish air, "Snowy Breasted Pearl," which John McCormick helped make famous.

more compact receivers and possibly a reduction in price.

Adapted for A C

The same tube is now being adapted for AC reception, with the use of a heater element such as is in the 227 tube today.

Two new types of loud speakers have appeared ready for popular adoption. Perhaps the most promising is the condenser type or electro-static reproducer designed by Colin Reproducers corporation, in Chicago. This is a flat affair of a substance called "Kylite" sandwiched in between two plates "bathed" in an electric current. Its marvel lies in its utter simplicity. Its designers promise wonders for it.

Less costly, but much more effective as a reproducer than the old magnetic type of speaker, is the new inductor speaker. This incorporates the plunger motion of the better electro-dynamic speaker without the costly use of the voice coil, and at the same time eliminates much of the distortion found in magnetic speakers. It will be found hereafter on the cheaper sets.

From Europe comes an "electro-static" reproducer which, however, has still to be perfected before it can be adopted popularly. It is similar to the Kyle condenser type speaker and has much promise for it.

Automatic Volume Control

Of perhaps as equal importance all the screen grid tube and the new loud speakers is the automatic volume control by which volume is automatically regulated while stations near or far, of varying intensities, are tuned in. This will do away with the noises that accompany the process of tuning from distant to nearby stations. The same volume of sound is maintained no matter how distant or how lacking in power a station may be.

Possibility of the use of this control with that of the automatic tuning device now being used on the Zenith receiver, presents a picture of utmost pleasure to the radio fan. Perhaps the phenomenon of fading, too, can be controlled by such a device.

These are the major developments in radio reception of late. But even the least of the minor improvements will advance the science and industry to a great degree. Such are further perfection of the circuit design of receivers, readjustment of condenser design so that stations will be an equal distance apart all the way down the dial, improvement of detector and power tubes for more dependable reception and the addition of certain accessories to make the process of tuning much simpler and more convenient.

The cabinets into which radio receivers and speakers are built are being designed to produce the best acoustical effect possible, as well as present themselves as things of beauty.

TRANS-OCEAN RADIO PROGRAMS ARE SEEN

NEW YORK CITY, March 14.—"The day of international broadcasts has arrived," M. H. Aylesworth, president of the NBC, says. "Recently a speech by the President of the United States was followed with a program from London, rebroadcast by the NBC's coast-to-coast system. Radio programs from the United States are heard regularly in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and New Zealand. We have arrived at the point where radio communication to the masses of other nations is an accomplished fact.

"We visualize in the near future an interchange of radio programs with other nations, chiefly English-speaking nations, which will be available to American listeners."

.....Team Work has brought Success to California Citrus Growers

CUT-THROAT competition, lack of standardized fruit, market shortages or gluts, price cutting and red ink on the ledger sheets—these conditions were working toward the mutual destruction of California citrus growers thirty years ago.

The turning point came with the organization of the California Fruit Growers Exchange. Growers faced the facts, pooled their resources of crops and intelligence—and began to work together for mutual benefit. This united man-power has achieved the position occupied by the industry today.

Now there are 11,500 growers in the Exchange—three out of every four in California. Theirs is one of the most successful cooperative marketing organizations in the world. United, they cooperate in growing, packing, shipping and marketing.

Marketing, perhaps, is the most important of all. For here there is competition. Not citrus grower against citrus grower. But citrus grower against apple grower, against soft-drink manufacturer, against other fruits and foods.

And here Exchange methods have brought its members unprecedented success—through lower costs, more orderly distribution, more aggressive selling and more efficient methods of increasing consumption. Many other industries, both agricultural and manufacturing, have adopted these Exchange methods. The reason is not hard to find.

They know that large-scale cooperation has made the cost of all Exchange services (including advertising) less than the marketing cost alone of any other agricultural product. They know, too, from comparative figures, that year after year Exchange members average the highest returns for their crops—because the public and trade are willing to pay a premium for this better standardized and more dependable fruit.

Join the Exchange

Non-member growers, acquaint yourselves with all the facts. By joining the Exchange, you can extend these large-scale economies still farther. Thus you can increase your own benefits and those of all other Exchange members.

Talk to the manager of your nearest District Exchange or Exchange Association. Or address Growers Service Bureau, California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C," Los Angeles, for complete information.

$4100 In Fines Paid As Result Of County Liquor Raids

SEVEN SENT TO JAIL IN SANTA ANA

16 TO FIGHT CASES

Many Arraigned and Held To Answer—Will Clean Up Cases End of Week

WITH liquor cases being heard again today in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court which grew out of the county-wide liquor raid of last week, records of the justice court show that 29 persons of the 49 arrested in the raid had already pleaded guilty and their cases disposed of in one way or another.

The district attorney's office announced that 33 of the 49 persons arrested had pleaded guilty. Some of these are not on the records as finished because in several cases, it was explained, pronouncement of judgment was set for a later date.

The records show that 14 pleaded guilty, were fined but went to jail on their failure to produce the money for the fine and that eight pleaded guilty and were given suspended sentences.

Those who paid fines, which totalled $4,100, were: Bernice Meeks, $200; Juan Barrera, $250; Harry Woods $250; Dorothy Mahon, $100; D. Sanchez, $100; M. C. Stanley, $300; Frank Showalter, $500; John J. Doyle, $500; John Moore, $500; Jesus Esquival, $200; Thomas Gonzales, $300; Antonio Cardova, $500; William R. Hall, $200, and Harry Barnett, $200.

The records show that total fines levied against persons who were unable to pay and who are serving their sentence in jail at a dollar a day, totalled $2,900. They were: Antonio Rodriguez, $250; John Goetz, $500; Larry Kadinger, $500; Arthur Mercardo, $150; Robert Bunkley, $500; Maria Gray, $500; and Francisco Ruiz, $500.

The eight persons given suspended sentences on motion of the district attorney were: A. E. Johnson, Felipe Saldivar, Jesus Martinez, Theodore Beltran, Paul Thurston, Conception Gonzales, Consulo Saldana and T. J. Fisher.

Most of the remaining 16 persons arrested in the raid have been arraigned in Justice Morrison's court and held to answer to the superior court on charges of sale of liquor. Others are going through the preliminaries today and the cases should all be in superior court by the end of the week, it was said.

DISABLED VETS NAME CHAPTER AFTER FISHER

High Tribute Paid Memory Of Commander Who Recently Passed Away

THE NAME and memory of Jack Fisher, cherished by hundreds of World war veterans as symbols of sacrifice and courage, were honored again by his comrades last night at Ketner's cafe when the Orange county chapter, Disabled American Veterans of the World war, became the Jack Fisher chapter No. 23, Disabled American Veterans of the World war.

A vacant chair in the place of honor, draped with the colors of the United States, was eloquent evidence of the reverence in which the late commander of the chapter always will be held by those who knew him and whom he had served in countless ways since his return from service in France for his country.

The Jack Fisher chapter adopted a resolution at last night's gathering, in which his host of friends and comrades expressed their sincere sympathy to his family and

CALLIE GRIMES ON WAY TO LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, March 14.—(UP)—Mrs. Callie Grimes, who must go to trial next Wednesday with seven others on charges of conspiring to effect the false arrest of City Councilman Carl I. Jacobson on a morals violation count, was enroute here from El Paso, Texas, today. Officers bringing her here said they would arrive tonight.

She was captured in the Texas city last week after she had been sought by authorities since the indictment was returned against the group accused of "framing" the councilman.

Mrs. Grimes' confession that she received money to lure Jacobson into a compromising position led to the indictment.

KEYES IN COURT TO SEEK RELEASE

LOS ANGELES, March 14—(UP)—Former District Attorney Asa Keyes, convicted of receiving bribes while in office, will appear in court late today to hear the ruling on a motion to release him from jail on bond pending the result of an appeal to conviction and a second trial on similar counts.

Attorneys for Keyes claim that it is necessary for him to be free of custody to prepare for his trial with A. I. Lasker on conspiracy to bribe charges. They also assert that his imprisonment, resulting from his conviction with Ed Rosenberg and Ben Getzoff on conspiracy to bribe counts, is threatening his health.

Confesses Murder 15 Years Ago In Washington City

YUMA, Ariz., March 14.—(UP)—L. W. Carson, 42, of Indianapolis, Ind., was being held by police here today after confession that he had murdered a man in Seattle, Wash., 15 years ago.

Carson walked into the sheriff's office here and after stating that his conscience troubled him, told officers that he had killed a man in a drunken brawl and pushed the body off the Coleman dock.

The body was found the next day, Carson said, but was attributed to suicide. Carson formerly was a federal narcotics inspector at St. Paul, he said.

Seattle authorities were notified.

"And then—?" queried an officer.

FARMERS FLEE FLOOD WATERS IN MISSISSIPPI

Considerable Damage Done In Western Tennessee—Levees Holding

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 14.—(UP)—Memories of the disastrous 1927 flood still fresh in their minds, farmers in the flood basins of Arkansas, Tennessee and Mississippi sought high ground today with their families and livestock when weather officials predicted the Mississippi river would continue to rise.

The "father of waters," already is two to four feet higher than flood stage from Cairo, Ill., to Vicksburg, Miss., and heavy rains in the Missouri and upper Mississippi valley are expected to send it higher.

Water lapping at the top of the levees is at the highest point reached since the overflow of 1927.

U. S. Meteorologist F. W. Brist of Memphis predicted that the river would rise at least a foot higher.

So far no lives have been reported lost but considerable damage has been done in western Tennessee where inundated highways have forced closing of schools and may cut off removal of inhabitants of lowlands should waters go higher.

Backwater overflowing into lowland counties of Mississippi and eastern Arkansas also has caused extensive damage, reports here indicated, and farmers are removing livestock to the bluffs.

Levees in the Memphis district still are holding and engineers anticipated no breaks unless the river rises beyond the expectations of weather forecasters.

Latest reports indicated the Mississippi was rising at all gage points except Cairo where it was stationary.

Former College Official Seized On Dope Charges

TUCSON, Ariz., March 14.—(UP)—Dr. W. V. Whitmore, former chancellor of the University of Arizona, will receive a preliminary hearing this afternoon on a warrant issued in connection with a state wide narcotic investigation.

Dr. Whitmore, former chairman of the Arizona state medical board, was arrested yesterday by federal inspectors, who seized more than 3500 prescriptions, many of which were signed by Dr. Whitmore, it was alleged.

With six others, for whom warrants have also been issued, the physician was specifically charged with illegal issuance of narcotic prescriptions.

AIR ACTION OF POWER TRUSTS IN CALIFORNIA

Federal Trade Commission Finds Utilities Beat Three Referendums

WASHINGTON, March 14.—(UP)—Efforts of California utility interests to defeat a proposed amendment to the state constitution which would have created a water power commission were aired today in testimony before the federal trade commission.

Three successive referendums, in 1922, 1924 and 1926, brought this question before the California voters, Victor M. Hartley, secretary of the California electrical bureau, testified.

In each of these elections, power interests were active, Hartley admitted, in opposition to the proposed amendment which he said was "considered destructive" to their interests.

Confronted with minutes of bureau meetings in 1922 indicating participation in the political campaign, Hartley said the bureau itself held itself aloof, but lent the services of its manager, R. A. Eltringham, to the campaign.

At one bureau meeting, the minutes showed, utility men present agreed the amendment was of "vital interest" to the power industry and decided to have Eltringham devote the major portion of his time to the campaign against it. Hartley denied any other bureau employe assisted Eltringham.

Because Eltringham conducted the campaign as an individual, the bureau, Hartley said, kept no record of what funds was spent or details of the fight which resulted in defeat of the amendment. He said money for the fight was supplied by private power companies, but Eltringham's reports were made to the late John A. Britten, first vice president of the Pacific Gas and Electric company. For this reason, Hartley said, the reports never were filed with the bureau and cannot be produced for the commission's examination.

Presiding Commissioner Edgar A. McCulloch asked Hartley if he thought the manager's participation as an individual entirely excused the bureau for any interest in the political campaign.

Hartley replied he was not attempting to clear the bureau entirely, but merely wanted to explain why the bureau had no records of the incident in their files.

Correspondence in the record disclosed the bureau adjusted a dispute between electrical contractors and the municipally owned power plants in Modesto and Turlock, California. The dispute centered about the sale of electrical equipment, and the bureau succeeded, Hartley said, in having the plants offer the same price as the dealers.

The hearing adjourned until next week when additional California witnesses will be heard.

BRAZIL, PARAGUAY TROOPS IN CLASH

BUENOS AIRES, March 14.—(UP)—The correspondent of La Prensa reported from Asunction, Paraguay, today that the government had announced a clash of Brazilian troops with a Paraguayan river patrol.

The Paraguayan patrol was driven to the island of Gargarita in the Paraguay river, near Puerto Murtinho.

The Paraguayan government described the clash as an "incident of a personal nature" between the patrols and demanded the withdrawal of the Brazilian force from the island, the correspondent said.

SO HE GOT FINED

When the tomatoes weren't red enough, she said, he fined her. When she did not look at him properly, he fined her. The judge ordered Elias to pay his wife $12.50 a week.

Two Families Are Wiped Out Late Monday

Baby Girl Found 300 Yards From Demolished Home Slightly Injured

LIBERTY, S. C., March 14.—(UP)—Nine dead and a score injured was the toll of a freak tornado which struck the little community of Six Mile, near here, last night, relief workers found on a checkup of the wreckage today.

The twister, emerging without warning from a calm night, whipped through the village at 7:30 p. m. and cut a swath that levelled houses and stores. It then swerved south of Six Mile and wrecked five farmhouses.

Two whole families were virtually obliterated by the storm which cut telephone lines into the community and delayed complete reports of the damage until today.

The dead:

Deputy Sheriff G. N. Garrett, his wife, and three children, J. J., Edward, and Birdie.

B. Tilman Garrett, his wife, and two children, Mildred and Lucia.

A baby girl member of the Tilman Garrett family was found 300 yards from her demolished home, only slightly bruised. All of the victims were trapped in their homes.

Among the injured, who were brought to hospitals here, were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Curtis, their daughter and a negro girl.

D. C. Garrett, nephew of the deputy sheriff who was killed, said confusion in Six Mile immediately after the tornado was such that hours elapsed before bodies of the dead were recovered.

Timbers from several of the demolished houses were hurled hundreds of yards. The community church and the school house were damaged. Occupants of one demolished farmhouse escaped injury entirely.

Others injured included Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Smith, Benjamin Smith, jr., Lowry Smith, Virginia, and Mary Garrett, daughters of Tilman Garrett. All were in serious condition at a private hospital at Six Mile, but were not believed hurt critically.

Communication was restored with Six Mile later.

D. E. Peek, resident of the small town, said seven houses in the town were wrecked—some of the furniture and household goods being found half a mile away.

According to Peek, the tornado was preceded by a heavy rain.

UNSETTLED WEATHER FOR PACIFIC COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—(UP)—With storm warnings for small craft posted on the coasts of Washington and Oregon, somewhat unsettled weather arrived today over the far western states.

The outlook was for fair weather tonight and Friday in central and southern California and the plateau region, but with colder weather in the higher altitudes.

Rain was predicted for Washington and Oregon and the extreme northern part of California by Friday, with snows and rains in the northern Sierras.

Hollywood Dentist Dies After Taking Drink Of Whiskey

HOLLYWOOD, March 14.—(UP)—A bottle of whiskey, from which Dr. Arthur Johnston, 54, prominent and wealthy dentist, drank shortly before his sudden death in an isolated Laurel canyon glen, will be analyzed by police today.

The body was found by officers, who were summoned by Mrs. Clara Collins, 32, the dentist's companion during an evening stroll through the canyon. Mrs. Collins said that She and Dr. Johnston met by appointment. After taking several drinks of the liquor he collapsed, she said.

STATE SENATE'S PROBE OF AN ALLEGED CEMENT TRUST ENDS BY VOTE OF COMMITTEE TODAY

By HOMER L. ROBERTS
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 14.—(UP)—The state senate's investigation of an alleged "cement trust" in California came to a sudden but definite end in committee today.

After hours of wrangling, which lasted into the early morning, the committee decided that the original resolution authorizing the "cement trust" probe was not broad enough to justify sending 10 cement company officials to jail for contempt.

The vote was 7 to 5, as follows:

For contempt proceedings—Carter, Cleveland, Inman, Mueller and Rochester.

Against contempt proceedings—Senators Allen, Baker, Christian, McKinley, Nelson, Weller and West.

Renewal of the cement investigation was expected today. It was considered likely that either Senator George W. Rochester of Los Angeles or Senator J. M. Inman of Sacramento would move to authorize prosecution of the companies by Attorney General U. S. Webb.

Webb led the fight for contempt proceedings in the committee, declaring that the senate had full power to send the officials to jail for refusing to answer questions or produce records.

"If there is nothing in the records of these companies that is incriminating, why not show them?" said Webb. "The mere fact of their defiance has amplified the belief that there is something wrong."

Former Chief Justice Louis Meyers represented the cement producers, stressing the fact that the legislative branch of the government had no business investigating an alleged violation of the anti-trust law, as it was strictly a judicial question.

First opposition to Governor Young's reorganization bills developed in the assembly late yesterday when Assemblyman William Hornblower of San Francisco declared he would fight the measure creating a new state department of veterans and military affairs, "because it includes the state athletic commission."

"The athletic commission was created by vote of the people on an initiative measure," said Hornblower. "This legislature has no power to alter or change the status

PLEAS OF 1500 STRIKERS MEET ONLY DEFIANCE

Head of Rayon Silk Concern Refuses Wage Increase, Shorter Day

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn., March 14.—(UP) — The demand of 1500 striking women employees of the American Glantzstoff corporation here for recognition of their affiliation with the United Textile Workers of America was defiantly rejected today by Dr. Arthur Mothwurf, a president of the corporation.

"We will have nothing to do with an organization that started out as this one did, initiated with riot, disorder and considerable property damage," the corporation president said in a statement issued in advance of a scheduled meeting with spokesmen of the strikers.

Protesting against a 10-hour day and a wage scale ranging from 16 cents an hour upwards, several hundreds of the women and boys in their teens rioted here yesterday, stormed a bank, and then signed up with the United Textile Workers of America at a mass meeting last night.

What the malcontent women—Tennessee hill folk who came here to manufacture rayon silk and bemberg yarn—would do about rejection of their demand was not immediately clear.

"I haven't forgotten how to use a hoe," one of them said when asked what they might do if imported workers supplanted them. "We'll go back to the farm," said another. "We got along better then than we are now," said a third.

Four hundred strikers, many of them women, crashed the gates of the rayon factory yesterday and forced out 700 other workers. The plant was ordered closed and the rest of the workers joined the unannounced strike.

The women, most of them from mountain districts which boast American stock, screamed and battered at the gates, shouting, "We can't raise families on starvation wages."

Two guards were beaten by the strikers and when Mothwurt intervened he was hit on the head with a stone. Then the strikers stormed a bank, waving their paychecks and shouting. Two were injured in the crush around tellers' windows.

LIGHT VOTE CAST IN PASADENA TODAY

PASADENA, March 14.—(UP)—The municipal primary election was being held here today with only a small percentage of registered voters casting ballots. The vote will determine the nomination of two candidates from each of three of the seven districts within the city for election to the board of directors.

6000 Employes Of Northern Pacific Ask Wage Increase

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 14.—(UP)—Nearly 6000 craftsmen employed by the Northern Pacific railway today awaited the decision of the road's officials on a demand for a six-cent an hour wage increase.

E. N. Rogers, of Billings, Mont., and a committee of 33 shop workers presented a petition to the rail heads late Wednesday which asked wage increases amounting to $750,000 annually.

The increases would affect the members of the Associated Organizations of Shop Employes of the Northern Pacific over the entire line. A decision on the matter is expected to be reached within 48 hours.

FITTS' ELECTION TO OFFICE QUESTIONED

LOS ANGELES, March 14.—(UP)—A question as to whether or not Buron Fitts was legally elected to the office of district attorney of Los Angeles county today grew out of the controversy to determine just what salary he was entitled to receive.

Fitts himself questioned the legality of his own election and at the same time stated that Asa Keyes, former district attorney, convicted of bribery charges in connection with the Julian Petroleum Corporation collapse, may be found to be legally entitled to the district attorney's salary from the date on which he was replaced until February 8, last, when the office became vacant according to law.

BODY OF FORMER SENATOR ARRIVES

Public funeral services will be held in city hall in Los Angeles Saturday after which private services will be held in the family home at Flintridge.

Man Wanted For $47,000 Theft In L. A. Is Arrested

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 14.—(UP)—William J. Stevenson, said by police to be wanted for a $47,000 bond theft in Los Angeles, was being held here today.

Stevenson, who was employed at a club in Canada, had been living here for about two weeks. Buffalo officials said Sheriff William I. Traeger of Los Angeles county had advised that Stevenson was wanted for the theft of 300 shares of Main Oil company stock, two notes and other property belonging to E. Bailey Webb, of Los Angeles and of 35 collateral trust gold bonds from the Metropolitan company of California.

REBEL HEADS INVITED TO PEACE MEET

Major Battle of Insurrection expected Soon at Durango—Defend Naco

VICTORIES CLAIMED

Americans Move Across Border and U. S. Troops Are Sent on Patrol Duty

BY UNITED PRESS

THE MAIN MEXICAN federal army drove steadily toward Torreon for the major battle of the present insurrection.

Another federal force converged on Durango.

The federals holding Naco, on the northern Mexican border, prepared to defend the city against a rebel attack.

Three hundred additional American troops were ordered to protect the waterworks of Bisbee and Naco, Ariz., from damage in the fight expected just across the border.

Rebel headquarters at Juarez claimed insurrecto victories in two engagements with federals yesterday near Saltillo and somewhere near San Luis Potosi, but these claims were discounted somewhat by American airmen who flew over the Terrain and saw government troops marching uninterruptedly toward the north.

Mexican Consul I. M. Vasquez at Nogales, Ariz., invited rebel chiefs to a "peace meeting" with federal leaders today and supported President Portes Gil's prediction that the insurrection would die out within two weeks.

The rebels said they anticipated Calles would strike soon to get possession of Torreon, which is not only an important rail center but also contains large supplies of

SEARCH FOR BOY, 6, HAMPERED BY SNOW

GORDON, Neb., March 14.—(UP)—A snowstorm which has raged in this section for more than two days hampered today the work of 250 searchers for little Willie Reeves, 6, who went out into the blizzard to find a pair of mittens.

With snow almost two and a half feet deep, search for the youth became so difficult last night that it was abandoned. Since the snow was still falling today, there was a possibility that the hunt may not be resumed until the storm ceases and part of the snow has left the ground.

4 DOCTORS, 3 NURSES ATTEND ELSIE JANIS

PARIS, March 14.—(UP)—The recovery of Elsie Janis, American stage star, depends largely on her ability to relax and sleep, it was understood today.

The actress' four doctors and three nurses said she had been getting little rest and was spending sleepless nights. They emphasized that she must relax.

Mrs. Janis, the actress' mother, denied reports that a supposed feud with Mistinguette, French actress whose place she took in the latest Moulin Rouge revue, had aggravated her condition. The mother said Mistinguette was a daily caller.

Hollywood Film Players Decide On Tax Campaign

HOLLYWOOD, March 14.—(UP)—The Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences decided last night to promote a nation-wide campaign to attempt to effect a more reasonable income tax rate for screen players.

The academy also voted to have one member of the organization file a model tax return, as suggested in a telegram from Bebe Daniels, and to make a test case of this model in event the government challenged the figures.

This model form will contain all deduction that screen players believe practical.

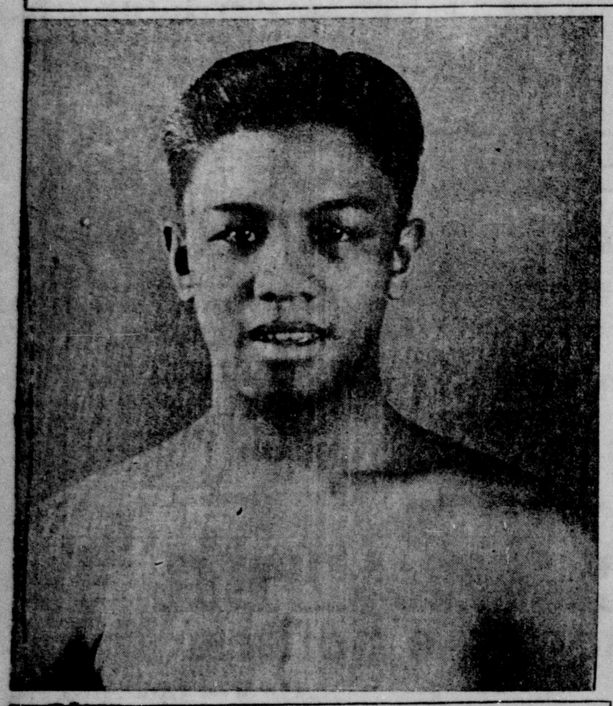
COFFROTH HANDICAP BELIEVED OPEN RACE

Biggest Crowd Expected At Limbaco-Valarde Bout

MAIN EVENTER FRIDAY NIGHT

Smart with his fists and smart with his dollars—that's Trip Limbaco, dynamic little Filipino, who meets Joey Velarde in the feature attraction at the Orange County Athletic club's boxing card here tomorow night. Limbaco recently gave Earl Mastro one of his closest battles at the Olympic. He is said to have saved $100,000 out of the boxing game.



TRIPLE TOP IS ATTRACTIVE TO LOCAL FANDOM

An attendance that will equal, if not eclipse, the standing record at the Orange County Athletic club is expected by officials of the Santa Ana professional arena tomorrow night when Trip Lambaco and Joey Velarde, high class 122-pounders, go to work in the feature of an all-star card.

Zenaydo Chavez and Jimmie Rivers almost packed the house when they met two months ago but the call for advance reservations for that "grudge" mixup was no greater than has been the demand this week, according to Major M. Anderson, business director of the O. C. A. C.

Lambaco and Valarde probably are the best boys yet to show here. Both are at the top of their profession in Southern California and their records are so well known that fandom apparently feels it is taking no chance paying for their encounter.

Lambaco, a shrewd, experienced, Filipino, has been meeting top-notchers of the trade up and down the coast for several seasons, one of his recent starts being against Earl Mastro, now in line for a bout in Los Angeles with "Bud" Taylor.

Valarde hasn't the reputation of his foeman but he is considered an even better prospect. He created a sensation here several weeks ago when he filled in on a few hours' notice and punched Jesse Gabuco, a good one in his own right, into submission.

There will be three main events and Kid Mexico, the astute matchmaker for the club, insists that Lambaco and Valarde have no more class than the other four graduates.

Billy Blake, a growing fellow who has met all the good ones in his division such as Johnny Adams, Baby Joe Gans, Tommy O'Brien and Mushy Callahan, faces Hi Gill, well known in Santa Ana, in the second main event. Gill may be going out of his class for this one.

Jimmy Black and Rosalio Caballero are likely to take all the play away from the windups. Black, colored, is a whirlwind type of battler, always throwing gloves and most always winning. Caballero fought "Red" Humphries here at one time and lost, by a close margin.

There will be three other bouts, all four-rounders. The three windups will go six rounds, or less.

SANTA ANA ENTRIES IN SOUTH COUNTIES INVITATIONAL MEET ANNOUNCED BY COACH OLIVER

Nineteen athletes, all in superb condition, will represent Santa Ana high school in the eighth annual Southern Counties Invitational track and field meet at Huntington Beach Saturday afternoon. This is the classic twice won by the Saints and four times in the last four years by teams developed by "Tex" Oliver, Santa Ana coach.

The Huntington Beach Invitational will be bigger than ever this season, virtually every school outside of Los Angeles county, having forwarded entries to Harry Sheue and Ray Elliott, meet managers.

Santa Ana's entries follow:

100 yard dash — Bob Beaver, Ralph Gordon.

220 yard dash—Norman Paul, "Red" Cooke, Bob Beaver.

440 yard dash—James Daneri, Lloyd Nuzum, Bob Blair.

880 yard run—Captain Tommy Cone, Carl Schoenberg, Asa Herren.

Mile run—Tom Donahue.

120 yard high hurdles—Al Reboin.

220 yard low hurdles—Reboin.

880-yard relay—Reboin, Paul, Cone, Schoenberg.

Broad jump—Paul, Doyle Gilbert.

High jump—Elwood Lindley, Paul Jacques, McGee.

Pole vault—Stiles, Reboin, Russell Sullivan.

Shot put—Paul, Cooke, Alfred Poulsen.

Discus—Daneri, Beaver, Poulsen.

Because of its undenied strength in several events, the hurdles, distances, broad jump and shot put, Santa Ana has been made a pre-meet favorite by the dopesters who figure it will be a three-cornered battle for supremacy between the Saints, San Diego and Chaffey. San Diego probably will be Santa Ana's most dangerous competitor although Chaffey has two outstanding entries in Grey, weight thrower, and Reeder, sprinter.

Thrity-five points will be enough to win, it is believed, and optimistic Santa Ana adherents claim Paul, Reboin, Cone and Donahue will furnish 30 of that number.

EXPECT RECORD ENTRY TO FACE BARRIER SUNDAY

TIJUANA RACE TRACK, March 14.—The field of equine thoroughbreds which will face Starter Marshall Cassidy's barrier in the Coffroth Handicap, world's richest stake race, to be decided here Sunday, may be one of the largest ever to go postwards, from present aspects. The race is wide open, turf experts declare, with perhaps 10 of the 20 odd active candidates having a royal chance for the $100,000 pot. The race will gross more than $125,000.

A cool $500 is the starting fee—$500 against $100,000. It is a magnificent chance. That is why this year's field promises to be not only dazzling in its splendor, but populous in numbers.

Genie, great son of Man O' War in the stable of Gifford A. Cochran, continues the ruling favorite. His performances have been such that, despite his top weight of 126 pounds in the mile-and-a-quarter test of stamina, he holds top favor with the fans.

Genie is being pressed, however, by such noted thoroughbreds as Hydromel, the giant in the stable of Senator Johnson N. Camden, of Kentucky, W. R. Coe's Algernon, winner of the $30,000 Tijuana Derby; Alexander Pantages, California the Wilshire stable's Naishapur, bred horse racing for the western theatrical magnate of the same name, and Vermajo, winner of the rich New Orleans Handicap and which will carry the red, white and blue silks of the powerful Three D's stable. These horses are being given the most consideration in the race.

These, together with a dozen or so other stars, will make up the backbone of the field that will go to the post in the quest for riches and fame. For the Coffroth carries with it the glamor that few other stakes possess. Run each year in Old Mexico, it has rapidly become the leading stake of the world in point of money hung up by James Wood Coffroth, president of the Tijuana Jockey club, and one of the world's great stakes for the determination of the true quality of the thoroughbred.

Further lustre is lent the running of the stake this year with the announcement that a total of 14 races would be run Coffroth Day. The custom was borrowed from England and Australia, where all day racing has proven popular. The celebration will take on a holiday aspect. Preparations are being made by Jockey club officials to handle a capacity throng and reservations at San Diego hotels and Auga Caliente, indicate that the stake is drawing lovers of sport from all over the country, particularly the southwest and bay district of San Francisco.

OUT OF THE PAST

This is different and younger Walter Johnson from the one that will manage the Washington Senators this season. It should be, naturally, as this pose of Johnson standing in the Washington dugout before a game was snapped on Aug. 17, 1912. Johnson had been in the American league only a few years when this was taken, but he had been with the Senators long enough to be rated as one of the outstanding hurlers of baseball even at that date. His fast ball was at its fastest then. The season after this was taken, in 1913, Johnson won 36 games and lost only seven.

BEAVERS WAIST-DEEP IN FAIR GROUNDS SCHEDULE; L. A. GETS EARLY LEAD, WINS BY 10 TO 4

The Portland Beavers were waist-deep today in their schedule of exhibition games at the Orange County Fair grounds. Eight of their 17 training camp contests already have been accounted for and they were playing the ninth this afternoon with Ernie Johnson's Seattle Indians whose headquarters are at San Clemente.

Even so, the choice bits of the Beavers' extravaganza here are yet to come. There will be no more National Baseball school or Fullerton junior colleges on the docket. Gradually rounding into something like baseball condition under the benign rays of a friendly sun, Bill Rodgers' band will tackle nothing less than Double A competition the rest of the way in.

The Beavers will engage in regular routine work at the Fair grounds tomorrow but they swing into action again Saturday and Sunday against Hollywood, rest Monday and then Tuesday play "Bucky" Harris' first string Detroit Tigers in one of the two "gigantics" of the spring season.

After Detroit comes Los Angeles again and the following day, March 21, Seattle. Then to wind up the training camp in a blaze of glory the Portlanders will meet, on March 23, 24 and 25, Seattle, Seattle and Pittsburgh respectively. The Beavers will break camp the night of the Pittsburgh tussle and leave for San Francisco where they are scheduled to open the Pacific Coast league season March 26.

Ike Powers

Marty Krug's Los Angeles Angels defeated Portland 10 to 4, at the Fair grounds yesterday in a game replete with extra base knocks. There were four home runs, a triple and six doubles.

Art Seydler, a right hander with a side arm delivery who came into camp and asked for a trial, started for the Beavers and last one inning. He got rid of the first two Angels only to have Webb single, Tolson home, Berger double, Schulmerich single, Dittmar double and Warren single, all in succession, and manufacture five runs.

Roy Mahaffey, Tom Turner's new hurler from the Pirates, toiled the next four frames. He was wild and was hit fairly hard but appeared to have plenty on the ball. Ike Powers, the former Athletic, came along next and in the three innings he worked looked like the best gunner Portland has shown in this camp. He has a nice breaking curve and a beautiful change of pace. "Cowboy Ed" Tomlin finished up in good style.

"Tex" Weathersby threw the first five and "Red" Roberts the last four for Los Angeles. All of Portland's runs were the result of home runs over the short center fence. Wuestling bagged one after Jahn had walked in the second and Jim

JACK DEMPSEY OFF TO DISCUSS PLANS

NEW YORK, March 14.—Without reaching a decision concerning his future, Jack Dempsey departed quietly last night for Detroit, where it was said he would confer with a group of Michigan men headed by former governor Green relative to becoming associated with them in promoting moxing matches.

Rumors that Dempsey would return to the ring were revived in boxing circles but anything concerning the former champion's plans was without confirmation.

CHAVEZ KNOCKS OUT WILMINGTON FOE

Catching up with his cycling opponent in the fifth round, Zenaydo Chavez, Santa Ana welterweight, three times floored Vearle Whitehead, Ocean Park sensation, in the semi-windup at Wilmington last night and the third one "took." Whitehead was counted out and another knockout was added to Chavez's long list.

A fast and clever boxer, Whitehead outpointed Chavez in the first two rounds by backing away and jabbing as he went in the finest Gene Tunney imitation but Chavez caught up in the third, stung Whitehead in the fourth and finished him in the fifth. The bout was to have gone six rounds.

Earl Grigsby, Chavez's manager, said the Santa Ana lad had signed to meet Billy Clark at Wilmington next Wednesday night.

MAGEE, FORMER BIG LEAGUE STAR, DEAD

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—Sherwood Magee, former foe of umpires as a major league baseball player and later an umpire himself, is dead. He succumbed to pneumonia last night at the age of 44.

He was a left fielder for the Phillies from 1904 to 1914, when he was traded to the Boston Braves. Two years later he went to the Cincinnati Reds. In 1919 he was injured and released.

ELLIS GETS ACQUAINTED

STOCKTON, March 14.—George ("Rube") Ellis, new manager of the farm at San Bernardino for rookies of the Mission club of the Coast league, is on the job here, getting acquainted with the players who will be under his tutelage in the next few months.

COUNTY LEAGUE FOLK TO MEET AGAIN APRIL 3

Representatives of franchise-holding clubs in the Orange County Night Baseball league met but adjourned last night without accomplishing any real business.

Anaheim, Garden Grove, Olive and Huntington Beach sent spokesmen to the meeting in the Anaheim city hall. Santa Ana, Fullerton and Orange were not represented officially. La Habra already had resigned from the league.

Victor Baden and Jimmie Heffron, president and secretary for the last two years, announced their resignation but their successors were not appointed because of the small attendance. Elections will be held at the next meeting of the association April 3.

Long Beach and Arlington sent assurance that they intended to organize a new Major league in the Southland.

The only definite action taken by the county circuit was to adopt a schedule which will provide night ball only once instead of twice weekly and to play around twice.

LOUGHRAN IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, March 14.—Tommy Loughran, light heavyweight boxing champion, was to arrive here today to begin training for his title bout with Micky Walker, March 28.

JULIA LATHROP TRACK SQUADS DEFEAT TUSTIN

Julia Lathrop junior high school's seventh and eighth grade seniors and intermediates scored lopsided victories over track teams from Tustin grammar school yesterday, the Santa Ana seniors winning, 37 to 4, and the intermediates, 35 to 6.

Lathrop's seniors looked considerably stronger than they did a week ago when Colzado and Floyd were ineligible. This was especially true in the high jump and relay which were well taken care of yesterday.

Johnnie Shinto was high point man with 15. Colzado and Shaffer were tied for second honors with 10 each. The results:

GETTY GIVES 'LOW-DOWN' ON MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING AFFAIR DEMPSEY REPORTED AT MIAMI

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, March 14.—So many persons have asked us, since our return from Miami Beach, for the "low-down" on that mysterious early morning shooting affair reported by Jack Dempsey on the eve of the Sharkey-Stribling fight, that we have decided to come right out and tell all about it. In the first place, it wasn't a publicity stunt. As a matter of fact, it was mighty poor publicity and angered a number of people who felt their intelligence was being imposed upon.

The entire incident was a compilation of vivid imaginations.

If the Miami police had been equally impressed with the dramatic possibilities of the affair, the handsome hoosegow on the 12th floor of the city hall tower would be filled with suspects to this day. But the police, after lifting the tops from a few ash cans and peering into a few abandoned bath houses, decided that the mysterious little five-foot-two prowler with the celluloid collar must have made good his escape and so went back to their checkers.

It develops that what happened out at Harry Moir's house was this:

Dempsey and his friend Floyd Fitzsimmons, were sharing a bedroom, and had also shared a large and succulent welsh rarebit shortly before retiring. Jack also dreamed that pink elephants with celluloid collars were prancing on his bed posts, while Floyd saw something simple such as a big yellow snake going down stairs with its shoes under its arm.

A breeze from the ocean swept in through the wide windows. A door, left ajar, swung on its hinges,

Hagen Has Chance To Win Big Purse

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 14.—Walter Hagen has a chance to win the largest stake ever offered a professional golfer—$10,000 for victory in the La Gorce Open here next week.

L. A. Young, Chicago sportsman, has offered to duplicate any prize money Hagen may win, according to Bob Harlow, Hagen's manager. Thus, if Hagan wins first prize of $5000, he will get another $5000 for Young.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

By Henry L. Farrell

MY, SUCH A QUESTION!

Ruth, the Babe, considering that he is a high-priced journalist and newspaperman on the side, is a hard man to interview. In his newspaper writing career he hasn't learned yet that a reporter has to ask foolish questions at times just to satisfy the curiosity of the editor.

I was forced to put a foolish question to him in the Yankee training camp at St. Petersburg, Fla. He was full of sweat and a little out of breath and patience, perhaps, and I might have picked a better moment.

"Who's going to win the pennant this year, Mr. Ruth?" I asked him, and the first response was a swell glare.

"Don't give me that Mister stuff. Are you trying to give me the razz?" he gruffed back.

Then he thought for a moment and said: "Well, the Athletics ain't going to win this year, and neither are the Browns or the Detroits. Now use your own bean."

I suggested rather meekly that he meant the Yankees were going to win, and he admitted it.

"You've got a great bean," he said. "That's just what I mean. The Yanks are in."

He took a big slug of water out of the cooler and wiped off his face on his dirty sweat shirt and went into a little oratory.

"You're a helluva expert to be asking questions like that," he said. "What do we need to win a pennant that we ain't got? What have them other guys got that we ain't? We got pitchers and hitters and we got guts.

"And, if you was around last year, you know what guts meant to our club. When you want to ask me what year it is, come around again, and you don't have to rap on the door. Walk right in."

BABE IN GREAT SHAPE

The Babe seems to be himself again after a very unfortunate experience that he was forced to go through during the winter. No one speaks about the experience to him, of course, but we know from some of his few intimates that he has shaken it off. At least when he is on the ball field.

There is so much real love of baseball in the Babe that he can't think of anything else when he is on the field. What he consoles or distracts himself with off the ball field is his own business. But he obviously is in good condition.

THROUGH AS GREATEST

Personally, I think that the Babe is through as the Babe who was so magnificent in the World Series. The other ball players agree that he will be a good ball player as long as he is able to walk, but a great number of them I have talked to in the spring training camps think he is through as one of the greatest ball players of all times. If not the greatest.

They think that his legs are gone and, in baseball, as the legs go so goes the nation.

MUM'S THE WORD

I asked the players on several American league clubs if the bench jockeys would work on the Babe this season, and they all war material and a powder factory.

FEDERAL ARMY TROOPS MOVE ON TORREON

From federal sources came reports that they were slowly driving rebel outposts back toward Torreon and that several deflections had occurred in the rebel ranks.

Cooperating with Calles was General Juan Almazan, Beau Brummel of all Mexican generals. He was reported advancing on Torreon from the east while the former president was drawing his troops up from the south.

Federal advices said a detachment of rebels, fleeing from Saltillo, was overtaken and defeated, 30 being killed and 300 captured.

Saltillo, reported captured by the rebels day before yesterday, still was in the hands of revolutionists.

Sonora rebels, under the command of General Francisco Manzo who is second in command among the insurgents, mobilized at Del Rio preparatory to marching on Naco, held by General Augustin Olachea, now a federal after having been a rebel and before that a supporter of the government.

Major Manuel Negrite, a rebel who escaped badly wounded from Naco, said Olachea has made extensive preparation to defend the border city and expected reinforcements.

Americans moved across the border and a detachment of United States cavalry, requested by Arizonans, patrolled the border.

Generals Ricardo Topete and Ramon Iturbe, were marching across the desert to reach Mazatlan, Sinaloa. Their troops are marching in parallel columns and expect a stiff fight from General Jaime Carrillo, who has entrenched his troops in the seaport.

A battle was expected there in a day or so, rebel headquarters announced.

STATE SENATE'S PROBE OF AN ALLEGED CEMENT TRUST ENDS BY VOTE OF COMMITTEE TODAY

A series of 10 bills strengthening the state laws on automobile liability and highway safety was adopted by the assembly and sent to the senate.

These measures, recommended by a special investigating committee headed by Speaker Edgar C. Levey of San Francisco, represented the result of two years' study of plans to reduce the death toll from highway accidents.

The Massachusetts compulsory automobile liability insurance law, which was introduced in the legislature in 1927 and postponed during the investigation, has thus far been a failure, Levey said.

The series of bills, briefly, are as follows:

Requiring suspension of a driver's license. If final judgment for damage is not paid in 15 days, until $5000 is paid for one person killed or $10,000 for more than one, an insurance policy or cash bond is taken out.

Providing maximum penalty of one year in the county jail or $1000 fine or both for driving an automobile after the license has been suspended.

Fixing parents' responsibility for negligence of their children who are driving family automobiles with or without the parents' consent.

Fixing liability of an owner, within certain limits, for negligence of a driver operating his car with express or implied permission.

PIRATES LOOK WEAK WITHOUT BROTHER STARS

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, March 14.—Holdouts and injuries are retarding several National league teams in their spring training.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Brooklyn Robins have been the hardest hit, and with one thing and another happening to these two clubs it's hard to distinguish them from minor league outfits around their respective training camps.

A striking example of what the Pirates will look like this season without the Waners, who are holding out for a joint salary of $35,000, was on view at Paso Robles, Calif., yesterday, where the San Francisco Seals drubbed Donie Bush's club, 10 to 1.

The Pirates could garner only five hits off minor league pitching, while Pittsburgh's three aces, Carmen Hill, Jess Petty and Burleigh Grimes, were rapped for 13 hits.

Barney Dreyfuss has said that he has made his last offer to the Waners and that unless they come to terms both of them will be forced to remain out of baseball this season.

Picture, if you can, an outfield composed of George Grantham, Adam Comorosky and Fred Brickell—a veteran shifted from first baseman and a pair of youngsters neither of whom can be termed a major league regular—and there you have the Pirates' outfield if the Waners don't report.

With Glenn Wright's arm threatening to ruin his major league career and "Dazzy" Vance lolling around the Florida golf links while waiting for his $25,000 salary terms to be met, the Brooklyn Robins resemble first-class cellar material.

Brooklyn's infield is none too strong with Wright at shortstop, while without him the Robins' inner works is the weakest in the National league. Wally Gilbert, an Atlanta Youngster, is being tried at third, Jake Flowers is stationed at second and Del Bissonette is at first. If Wright is unable to play short, Davy Bancroft, who has seen his best days, will have to be shoved into the breach.

Vance, who won 22 games last season, almost is certain to get his demands and join the Robins soon, but he isn't getting into shape in the meantime.

ON THE TRAIL OF BIG LEAGUERS

LOS ANGELES, March 14.—The Waner brothers, Pittsburgh's prize holdouts, need not go to work for the Pirates at all this season if they accept a barnstorming tour offer made them by Gene Doyle, publicity man for the Hollywood American Legion fight stadium. Doyle wired the Waners, Lloyd and Paul, at their home in Ada, Okla., the offer to back a tour of the United States and Japan. He expected an answer today.

He said the American tour ought to net the $30,000 and the Japanese tour much more. He is familiar with the situation there, having taken a team of big leaguers across in 1920-21 and cleaning up financially. Doyle also managed Babe Ruth's first tour of the Pacific Coast in 1919, when the Babe had just set a new home run record.

Lloyd, the younger of the Waners, wants $12,000 from the Pirates, and his brother asks $18,000.

TAMPA, Fla.—"Sad Sam" Jones, star right-handed pitcher of the Washington Senators, was under orders today to sign his contract or leave camp. President Clark Griffith issued his ultimatum to Jones last night, offering him a $1000 increase over last season with an option in the difference in his present demands and his actual contract provided the Senators had a good financial year. Jones is believed to be demanding $12,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—The New York Yankees were one up on the Boston Braves in their annual spring exhibition series today, having won yesterday, 6 to 3. Lou Gehrig broke up the game with a triple to right in the eighth. Babe Ruth did not make a hit. Benny Bengough, Yankee catcher, is out again after an operation for the removal of his tonsils, but it probably will be several days before he is able to workout.

AVALON, Catalina Island—Clarence Blair, recruit infielder from the Little Rock Southern league club, has been elected by Manager Joe McCarthy to plug the gap in the Chicago Cubs' infield pending the recovery of "Woody" English, who is nursing an infected toe. Clyde Beck will shift from third base to shortstop and Blair will play third.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — After watching Glenn Wright, injured Brooklyn shortstop, in a workout at Miami, Fla., where he is under observation of Dr. Cecil Ferguson, Max Carey said he believed Wright would be in good condition in a couple of weeks. There is no change in the status of "Dazzy" Vance, lone holdout, who is demanding a $25,000 salary.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—The New York Giants have not had a real workout since last Sunday's practice game with the San Antonio Texas league club at Laredo, and Manager John McGraw expected to put them through a long session today, weather permitting. Rain and muddy grounds prevented the Giants from doing anything yesterday.

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Two week-end contests between the regulars and yannigans will occupy the attention of the Detroit Tigers. On Monday "Bucky" Harris will take his regulars to San Diego for a game with the Hollywood Sheiks and on Tuesday to Santa Ana for a contest with the Portland Beavers. The rookies will remain here.

gathered momentum and closed with a crash!

When Jack finally pried Floyd out from underneath the bed, they asked each other what had happened.

"There were two of them," suggested Floyd.

"Yes," agreed Jack, "there must have been at least two of them.

"It's very mysterious," murmured Floyd, idly picking a bullet hole in the plaster behind his back.

"Aha," said Jack, "that gives me an idea. If it's mysterious, let us send for Sergeant Tapscott, my faithful bodyguard, who is sleeping off a hangover a few blocks down the beach. He is a detective and mysterious things are right in his alley."

Came the Tapscott, girding on his trousers, and from that time on it was just a matter of getting together on the details, ascribing a logical motive and such simple things as that.

Steve Hannagan, the Miami bout's publicity man, wouldn't have pulled a raw one like that. Steve has too much appreciation of news lavlues to leave the original announcement to a chauffeur. He would have started it from the police station, and saved time for his clients, the newspapermen.

said they wouldn't, and they said that any player in baseball who would jockey the Babe about that certain matter ought to have his head knocked off by the men on his own bench and probably would have it done to him.

"Anyway," most of them said, "the dirtiest jockeys in the league are on the Yankee bench, and they won't ride their own man."

CAGE TITLE TOURNEY FIELD CUT TO EIGHT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 14.—Eight teams representing six states remained in the National A. A. U. basketball tournament today. The fourth round will be played tonight.

Denver university ruined the hopes of the South for a championship bid when it eliminated Paul's Tires of Miami, Fla., by a 25 to 20 score last night. Phillips' university of Enid, Okla., a team that barnstormed the Pacific coast this year, defeated the Far West's entry, St. Ignatius college of San Francisco, 26 to 17.

Ke-Nash-A club of Kenosha, Wis., put the Kansas City Athletic club, one-time national champions, out of the race by a 27 to 12 score.

Cooks, Kansas City, defeated Bethany college, Lindsborg, Kas., 33 to 24. The Cooks were given a big scare and nosed out Bethany only by making 12 points in the last few minutes of play.

DISABLED VETS NAME CHAPTER AFTER FISHER

relatives. A resolution from the Riverside chapter of the disabled veterans expressing the same deep sympathy was read.

State Adjutant Harry Edwards, of Santa Ana, paid a remarkable tribute to Jack Fisher's memory when he expressed the belief that his heroism on the battlefield, although a shining example of bravery and courage, was surpassed by the heroism which he showed during his years of struggle and suffering after his return. The world knows of the sacrifices and valiant deeds of Jack Fisher on the battlefield, but his smiling, uncomplaining courage through years later of suffering from wounds received there revealed him a greater hero still, Edwards said. There probably are but two or three men in the nation, Edwards declared, who were as great both on the field of battle and at home in the field of service as Jack Fisher.

Over 100 persons gathered at last night's meeting, at which a large group of distinguished visiting officials of the Disabled American Veterans of the World war were present. Senior Vice Commander L. A. Riehl was in charge of the session. Visiting from the San Fernando chapter and addressing the gathering were Commander Dave Lawton, Adjutant John R. Salmon, Frank Muller, historian; State Executive Committeeman Herman Prisher, Albert Gallehue, officer of the day; Herbert Potts and Edward P. Nash.

Commander John F. Burke and Chaplain Harry E. Wheeler, of the Riverside chapter; Commander D. L. Vasbinder, of Ontario; and Commander Bruce McDaniels, of Redlands, also addressed the meeting.

Many others spoke briefly, including Commander Rose Edwards, of the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary; Mrs. L. A. Riehl, Mrs. E. L. Struble and Mrs. H. S. Pickard, of the auxiliary. Fifteen new members were introduced.

"Cowboy" Ed Tomlin, pitcher for the Portland Beavers, outlined the highlights in the life of a baseball player and predicted a great season for the Coast league.

The organization went on record as endorsing the candidacy of State Commander William Murphy, Santa Ana, for the position of national commander. The election will be held in June at the national convention in Detroit. Visiting chapter members also expressed their readiness to support the candidacy of Murphy.

Former Official Of Lions Speaks At Orange Banquet

ORANGE, March 14.—Jack Reilly of Long Beach, past district governor of Lions of this district, was the principal speaker at a banquet given by the local organization in the American Legion hall last night. Wives of members shared the occasion with their husbands.

Reilly spoke on the principles of Lionism. Two readings and a solo were given by Billy Dick Riehl, of Tustin. Dinner was served by the American Legion auxiliary. Paul Muench, president of the club, acted as toastmaster, a number of informal toasts being given. About 60 were present. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, Gledhill's orchestra furnishing the music.

Saturday afternoon I met an old customer, who told me that it was a mighty nice thing to be so proficient at one's business that he could go out of the beaten path—and still get all the work he wanted to do—and come to think of it, it is one of the nicest compliments that the public can pay me. And it's also one that will bring out of a workman the best effort he has in him.

Continuing the talks on "Women of the Passion," the Rev. W. J. Hatter, rector of the Church of the Messiah, will present the character of "Salome" at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Like most of the other women of the Passion, but little is known of this aunt of Christ, the mother of the Sons of Thunder, James and John. The legends woven about her state she was a woman of retiring disposition, zealous and faithful, altogether an interesting character of the ages, the rector declares.

Withdraw Permit For Funds Drive By Negro Church

Declaring that the time seemed inopportune, W. G. Knox, city manager, today announced withdrawal of permission to the Rev. D. L. McGriff to conduct a tag day here Saturday in behalf of the Second Baptist (colored) church here. Knox said that the Rev. Mr. McGriff had stated he would respect the opinion of the city manager and would make no effort to raise money for the church at this time.

WIT FEATURES SERMONS GIVEN BY EVANGELIST

Persons from as far north as Sacramento and as far south as Escondido attended the revival services, yesterday, in the First Church of the Nazarene, Fifth and Parton streets. Three meetings were held yesterday.

The Rev. O. G. Nease, president of Pasadena college, preached in the morning and Rev. "Uncle Bud" Robinson had charge of the other meetings.

Robinson's subject last night was "Abundant Grace." When you want to see an abundant supply, look at the Pacific ocean," he said, and holding up his pocketbook, he continued, "and when you want to see a meager supply, look at this."

Highlights of his address last night were as follows: "Women don't keep their money in stockings these days, because their skirts are too short and their stockings too thin."

"When I came to Christ, He boiled me down and skimmed me off until it looked like I would go to skimmin's."

"I may not preach like some of the doctors today but I mean to put some burrs in your wool that will be there until shearing time."

"Most of us need not brag on our brains, for there are a lot of us pulling the hill on three spark plugs."

"When God saved me, He dumped a hogshead of honey over in my soul and I have a bee gum there that I haven't tapped from last year."

"I used to play seven up, when I ought to have been playing two down," and Robinson pointed to his knees.

"When that old Methodist circuit rider came through Texas, preaching on heaven, he made me want to go. Then he preached on hell until I was afraid I would go."

"A waffle is just a non-skid pancake and it won't slide off your plate."

"Too many babes in Christ with their milk bottles—we need more soldiers of the cross."

"Some folks say they would be willing if they could just get to heaven by the skin of their teeth, when they have already warn the enamel off chewing tobacco."

"I know what poverty is. When I was a lad, I slept on the floor with a dog; he is a poor bedfellow for you can't make him straighten out."

"The preacher who is supported by money from ice cream socials ought to tip his hat to every Jersey cow."

LEGION CAMPAIGN POSTER

SON-IN-LAW IS VICTORIOUS IN DAMAGE ACTION

Lee A. Hardy and his wife, Nellie Hardy, today had emerged victorious in a court tilt with Hardy's father-in-law, Walter Jones, despite the fact that Hardy declined to be represented by an attorney when the case was called yesterday in Superior Judge H. G. Ames' court.

Jones had brought suit against Hardy for $16,550 damages, as a result of an automobile accident in which he and Mrs. Jones claimed to have been injured. They were riding in the Hardy car when another machine collided with it at the intersection of Huntington Beach boulevard and Seventeenth street, on August 24, the complaint stated.

Hardy is said to have informed the court that the Home Accident Insurance company policy which he held provided that the concern should represent him. But when the case opened the company appeared as intervenor on its own behalf, represented by S. B. Kaufman. It was said that a "conflict of interests" was responsible for the shift.

A motion for non-suit was granted yesterday and the judgment was for the defendant. Jones was represented by Kennith Burns and A. P. Nelson.

$30,301 CRASH TRIAL OPENED: P. E. DEFENDANT

Superior Judge H. G. Ames' court today was the scene of trial in a $30,301.50 damage suit brought against the Pacific Electric company by Jacob P. Vilhauer, Long Beach, who claimed that the defendant was guilty of negligence when an electric inter-urban car struck his automobile at the Lincoln boulevard crossing, near Cypress.

Selection of the jury was completed at 10:35 a. m., and opening statements were made by counsel. Vilhauer claimed that the street car did not give any warning on approaching the crossing and that it travelled at an excessive rate of speed. Attorneys for the dfeendant, E. E. Morris, and Scarborough, Forgy and Reinhaus, of Santa Ana, asserted that Vilhauer was guilty of contributory negligence and that he did not exercise ordinary care and caution to avoid the crash.

The accident occurred on April 20, 1926, while Vilhauer was driving from Anaheim to Long Beach. The complaint stated that he received a broken and unjointed hip, that his lower jaw was broken and all his teeth loosened and that he was confined to a hospital from April 20 to June 24, 1926 as a result.

H. L. Burgess was motorman and C. A. Rost conductor on the Pacific Electric car, it was reported. Vilhauer is represented by Homer N. Boardman.

The Santa Ana post will initiate about 50 new members tonight at its regular meeting, which will open at 6:30.

Posters containing the slogan have been distributed about the city and are attracting much attention, according to West.

305 famous Beauty Shops say, "Give your hands

Beauty Care right in the dishpan"

RECENTLY, 305 of the finest beauty salons in the United States reported this interesting fact—

"With all our experience,"—these experts said—"we cannot distinguish between hands that never wash dishes and hands that use Lux in the dishpan. . . . Evidently, Lux gives real beauty care."

These experts observe thousands of hands and they know! In their own words, Lux means "beauty care" right in your own dishpan!

Isn't this a startling idea? Yet women instinctively know it is true. Washing their fine things in the gorgeously sparkling Lux suds, women themselves noticed how smooth and white their hands looked afterward.

Now they are washing dishes with Lux to give their hands the same gentle beauty care—three times a day!

The secret is simple . . .

Lux is so utterly pure, so delicately refined by the special process used in its making, that it protects the precious beauty oils—the youth oils—of the skin. Many soaps dry up these oils, leave the skin parched—red and drawn looking.

Best of all, this beauty care costs almost nothing. Lux for all your dishes costs less than 1¢ a day!

Such Inexpensive Beauty Care—
Lux in the dishpan is the wisest, most inexpensive beauty care known! Gives gentle, soothing care to your hands—with no extra time, no trouble—and costs less than 1¢ a day.

ARTIST PLAYS VIOLIN GIVEN BY GRAND DUKE

Santa Ana's interest in rare old violins is always a lively one, for there are several rare and valuable instruments owned in this community, including that played by Ollimae Enlow Matthews, talented young artist now on a concert trip through the middle western states, and another owned by Fred Mills, formerly of Garden Grove, now of El Centro, kept in the vaults of the Farmers and Merchants bank because of its value as a genuine Stradivarius. But these are not so valuable to their owners as the first violin which Mischa Elman ever owned, is to the heart of that great virtuoso.

Mischa Elman is to be presented in concert in this city Friday night, March 22, under the auspices of Ebell society, and his appearance at the high school auditorium promises to be quite the biggest musical event in the history of the community. Undoubtedly his public will feel a keener interest in the concert, if the story of his first violin is told.

It was when the lad was only 10 years old, and when his remarkable talent had brought him to the attention of Leopold Auer, the greatest maestro the world has known, that Saul Elman, father of the young Mischa, was notified by Leopold Auer, that some mysterious stranger, moved by the playing of the boy prodigy, had secretly purchased an expensive Amati violin for him. The father was requested to go to the store for the instrument, a rich antique made in 1763.

The father himself relates the story with all the pride and fondness that a devoted parent can feel for a brilliant child.

"My eyes still grow moist when I think of that night, when my boy was still the simple child, and all mine. I remember his little pale face as he lay fast asleep later, the violin clasped in his arms, and traces of tears of excitement and joy still on his cheeks. It was much later that we learned that the donor of the violin was the Grand Duke Mecklembouk of Strelitz, a relative of the czar of all the Russias."

Though Elman, the matured artist of today, is now the possessor of two Stradivari violins, that first Italian violin remains one of his dearest and most valued possessions. One Stradivarius he owns is one of the first three violins in the world. It was presented to the great artist by his wife and was purchased in Paris. Its date is 1717. The other "Strad" (1722) was once in the possession of Joachim, the eminent German maestro who pronounced Elman "a finished artist" when he was only 12 years old. It was purchased by Elman's father for the artist's American debut.

Motorist Jailed On Liquor Charge

Fred Van Fergusoe, 42, Santa Ana mechanic, was arrested near the Orange County hospital last night by Deputy Sheriff A. L. Steward and is being held in the county jail on a liquor charge. Steward said he followed the Van Fergusoe machine for some time and, when it crowded another car off the road, stopped it. A small bottle of liquor was said to have been found in the car.

A PROCLAMATION

By The Mayor of Santa Ana

The American Legion will soon celebrate the tenth anniversary of its organization. To those who so nobly served their country in time of great peril it will be an anniversary of achievement for a great work has been performed by the Legion in the decade of peace that has followed the close of the World war. The American Legion was born out of the spirit of comradeship and mutual helpfulness that was so outstanding among those who fought side by side in the great struggle and it is today carrying on a program of public service that has no parallel in the nation's history.

The greatest work of the Legion has been to care for those who suffered most by the war. The best efforts of the organization have been exerted in the behalf of the disabled soldiers, the war orphans and those who were left widows by the war. Although much has been accomplished for these war sufferers there is still a great deal to be done. The Legion has given assurance that this work will be continued as long as there is a need for it. In the field of community service the Legion has successfully conducted civic betterment projects in all parts of the country that have demonstrated in a concrete way the power of the Legion to serve in time of peace. The celebration of the Legion's tenth anniversary on March 15 and 16 will be the occasion for a renewed effort to enroll more war veterans in this work. It is the purpose of the Legion to increase its membership in order that its work for the year may be broadened and extended. The people of this city are truly appreciative of the character of the work that is being done by the Legion and they believe every encouragement should be given for its continuance.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank Purinton, Mayor of the City of Santa Ana, do hereby proclaim Friday, March 15, and Saturday, March 16, as the dates for the Tenth Anniversary Celebration of The American Legion and urge all citizens to aid the Legion in every possible way to increase its membership strength. Every veteran should subscribe to the progam of the organization by wearing the Legion button.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Santa Ana to be affixed. Done in the City of Santa Ana this 13th day of March, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-Nine.

(Signed) F. L. PURINTON,
Mayor of Santa Ana.

VETERANS TO BE ENTERTAINED BY COUNTY BODY

To give their buddies in the San Fernando government hospital a real "old time" party, the Orange county voiture of the Forty and Eight society will go in a body to the hospital next Sunday, according to an announcement made today by Robert W. Walker, correspondent.

The Orange County Drum and Bugle corps will accompany the Forty and Eight society to the hospital and the Sadie Halperin theatrical agency, Los Angeles, has agreed to donate a two-hour vaudeville show for the wounded veterans, it was said.

In addition to the two-hour bill, a number of individual performers have offered their services for the entertainment of the wounded men.

Arrangements were to be made today to have the program broadcast by radio.

Every effort is being made by the voiture to make the show one of the outstanding events in this year's work among wounded veterans, Walker said.

S. A. BREAKFAST CLUB DECIDES MEMBER CRAZY

A kangaroo court session was held this morning at the meeting of the Breakfast club, when O. A. Haley was haled before the court on a serious charge, with Robt. Gramm as the complaining witness.

The charge was based on an episode at the meeting of the club on February 1, in which Haley hurled a slam at Sheriff Sam Jernigan and Gramm, who was his guest. The court convened with J. A. Harvey as judge, Hunter Leach as bailiff, Jess Elliott as clerk and B. Z. McKiney as prosecuting attorney, with Franklin West, Reeves Aylmore and Milburn Harvey as his associates. Fred Forgy was counsel for the defendant.

It was a session of "The superior court of supreme lunacy, in the county of incompetency, state of lunacy." Conduct of the session fully justified the name.

Following completion of testimony offered by Gramm, George Boyd, Guy Gilbert and E. S. Morrow, and summing up of the evidence by Judge Homer Ames, as special counsel, Haley was found insane and sentenced by Judge Harvey to a fine of 50 cents.

The evidence presented and the examination of witnesses by attorneys kept the club members in an uproar.

The program was arranged by the attorneys of the club, and B. Z. McKinney officiated as chairman.

The program committee for next week is composed of E. L. Vegely, R. G. Cartwright, T. G. Johnston, and V. D. Johnson.

'COLLEGE DAZE' TITLE OF HIGH SCHOOL MOVIE

"College Daze" has been selected as the title for the Santa Ana High School Movie club's two-reel motion picture, according to announcement made today by Ted Newcomb, club president.

The final scene in the picture was filmed today and the club is now at work titling and editing the production. A print of the finished film will be entered in the Photoplay magazine amateur motion picture contest.

More than 40 students of the high school have been actively engaged in the making of the film during the past two months, and the production when finished will be entirely a product of the school.

Titles for the film are being printed in the high school print shop, under the supervision of Thomas E. Williams, printing instructor.

Members of the technical staff of the club spent last Saturday at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios in Culver City, and arrangements are being made to make another trip to a Hollywood studio in the near future.

CONTRACT VIOLATION IS CHARGED IN SUIT

Asserting that Frank Stockebrand had removed his copy of a contract setting forth terms of a real estate deal in order to defraud him of a commission for completing a land transfer, A. W. Fuller, real estate broker, today brought suit against Stockebrand, asking judgment for $425.

According to the complaint, Stockebrand agreed with Fuller and his agent, Roy Fowler, to pay a commission to them for arranging a trade whereby he exchanged property in Kansas, valued at $11,500, for property of C. D. Newman in Tustin, worth $6000, with an additional cash consideration. Fuller asserted that, on the day before the deal was closed, Stockebrand took the contract and has refused to give it up.

The exchange was made on the following day on terms secured by Fuller and Fowler, the complaint stated. The plaintiff is represented by C. N. Mozley.

LEGION POST TO CELEBRATE THIS EVENING

Plans were completed today for the Santa Ana American Legion's "birthday" party, to be held in the form of a huge meeting in the Legion home on Birch street, tonight.

The American Legion is 10 years old this week, and the Santa Ana post has arranged an appropriate program for the occasion. William Iverson, post member, will deliver an address on the work of the Legion during the past decade.

Approximately 50 new members will be initiated into the organization and a musical and entertainment program is announced by the entertainment committee.

Jack Finlenson, assistant chief of police of Los Angeles, is slated for a talk on police work.

Midway City Carrier Goes 15 Miles Every Day In Delivering Papers

Delivering papers in the same territory for two whole years is some record but William Schmidt, Midway City, Register carrier, has this to his credit. He has built his route from 23 subscribers two years ago to over 90 at the present time.

Bill believes that regular delivery and courtesy to his subscribers have been great factors in carrying on his successful business. Owing to the fact that his profit for delivering papers is adjusted according to the number of subscribers he serves, Bill's eye for business would not allow his number of customers to decrease. He has been a winner in all carrier contests.

Elsie Murrell, First street and Huntington Beach boulevard, who has been one of young Schmidt's subscribers since he began carrying states: "Bill has been very faithful. He travels 15 miles every day in carrying his route and during his two years has never once failed to deliver our paper."

He has nearly completed his quota of new subscribers for the Catalina trip with The Register carriers during April and has stated his intention of going.

'PROBLEMS OF TODAY' TOPIC OF INSTRUCTOR

The new educational-social unit of the First Methodist church was crowded to capacity at the opening of the church training night program last night. Five hundred guests were accommodated and many were turned away at the dinner hour. Preparations are underway to care for 600 persons next week.

Richard Taylor and William Motley delighted with an instrumental duet during the social hour. The music planned for next week's program will feature the Long Beach high school sextette.

Sketching the background to his series of lectures, Prof. Carl F. Knopf, of the University of Southern California, delivered the first of his addresses on "The Prophets of Yesterday and the Problems of Today." He gave an interesting characterization of the prophet Amos.

One of the classes which proved to be most attractive to Santa Ana people last evening was that in which world relations and friendship was discussed. The chapel was filled to capacity with many standing in the rear of the room. Prof. Louis T. Jones, of Whittier college, conducted the lecture on "International Good Will."

Active committees have been working with efficiency to make the eight weeks' training night programs a success. Mrs. Frank Stockabrand was in charge of the kitchen force last evening and Joe Head is doing the buying for the meals.

PHONE LINEMAN'S KNOWLEDGE OF FIRST AID METHODS SAVES LIVES OF AUTO CRASH VICTIMS

Instructions in first aid, such as are a required part of the training of all employes of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, not only went far toward alleviating the sufferings of a party of injured motorists, if not actually saving their lives, but it also won for H. L. Weaver, a repair man from the Santa Ana office of the "Tel. and Tel. company," the warm commendation and appreciation of the victims of the accident, and also of attending physicians in the Santa Ana Valley hospital.

The accident in question took place Sunday on the state highway between Irvine and San Juan Capistrano, where the road branches off for El Toro, but Weaver's part in coming to the aid of the victims came to the attention of Earl F. Morrow, manager here for the company, only today. Involved in the accident were Dr. O. K. Gross, a surfeon from the naval base in San Diego and driver of the wrecked car, and M. Batherick, together with a Filipino, Vicente Blas, and two young lads, the latter two, fortunately, scarcely hurt at all.

Three Seriously Hurt

The car, with Dr. Gross at the wheel, skidded on the slippery boulevard, struck another car and overturned, seriously injuring the three adults. Observe the long arm of coincidence. While the three men were lying unconscious in the rain, the first person to pass was Weaver, a leader in the aforesaid first aid classes. Faced by a phalanx of unconscious men, he would have done exactly what he did when he saw three lying injured, perhaps mortally—immediately set to work on first aid methods. But again coincidence played a part, for of all the linemen employed by the company, Weaver, as it happens, would be the only one equipped for the step which he took at once.

This was to attach the steel spurs, by means of which a lineman climbs a telegraph pole, "shin" up the nearest pole, cut in on a wire and attach the magneto test set which he alone of all his comrades, is privileged to carry, and telephone to the sheriff's office for an ambulance with physicians and nurses.

Returning to the ground, Weaver used the emergency case, with which every lineman's automobile is equipped, and deftly dressed the wounds of the three men, applying tourniquets where necessary to stop the flow of blood. He covered them over with his own coat and overcoat to protect them from the pouring rain and, when the ambulance arrived in half an hour, the attending physician, Dr. Frank Paterson, found as pretty a piece of first aid work accomplished as he ever had met in his experience, according to his own statement.

Nurses Reveal Story

Weaver's self-effacing modesty forbade his making a report of what he had done and it was only through the physician and nurses that the story came out. Weaver lives at 519 East Bishop street and has charge of the district comprising San Juan Capistrano, Dana Point and San Clemente. He has been in the employ of the company for a number of years and was a member of thef irst aid class that gave instructions to the state motor squad some two or three years ago.

Thanks to the aid which Fate sent so opportunely, the stay of the accident victims in the hospital was not a lengthy one and all now have returned to their homes.

RECTOR TELLS CHARACTER OF PONTIUS PILATE

Brought upon the stage in the midweek sermon of last night by the Rev. W. J. Hatter, rector of the Church of the Messiah, was Pontius Pilate, Roman governor of Jerusalem, in the rector's fourth sermon on "The Men who Crucified Christ." The Rev. Mr. Hatter said, in part:

"This governor, representing the power, wealth and luxury of Rome, came from Caesarea to Jerusalem to remain during the feasts of the Passover. It was part of his duty to be in the holy city during the feasts and celebrations of the Jewish people, history states.

"Pilate hated the Jews and the Jews hated Pilate. Three times he had mortally offended the Jewish people of that province. Once by bringing in the Roman standards on the flagstaffs. So great was the tumult following this act that Pilate had to send the standards back to the seat of government at Caesarea. Once more he offended by bringing certain tablets into Jerusalem and again he was compelled to return them, so great was the uproar against them and him. Then he brought water in great quantities into the palace of Herod for his ablutions, although he knew water was scarce in the city—and again the roar against this hated Roman.

"But after the trial in the Sanhedrin, which lasted all night, Christ was dragged before Pilate for sentence. The Jews had passed sentence of death on him, but it was necessary to have Pilate confirm that sentence. In the early dawn picture Pilate upon the porch of the palace. He looked upon the howling Jews he hated and upon their prisoner. He examined Christ and in him found no fault. He tried to release him. Again and again he tried to release the innocent prisoner, for Pilate knew He was innocent. But the high priests and the rabble incited by them would have none of it. They were out for blood. They wanted the robber, not the Christ, released. How singular it was that in all that multitude, not one of his own people defended Christ. It was a foreigner who defended him, who tried to have his life.

"But Pilate was morally a coward. He was afraid of his position, he was afraid of the Jews. He could have released Christ even after he released Barrabbas, the robber. He tried to appeal to the better natures of the people by having Christ scourged, hoping that the sight of the suffering, bleeding man might incline them to mercy. But no, there was no mercy there. Away with him! Crucify him!

"Delivered into their hands to be crucified was this innocent man. Pilate ostentatiously washed his hands before the multitude, but if he washed them from that day until eternity he could not wash away the innocent blood he had shed. Strange to say Pilate afterward lost his high position, was disgraced by being relegated to some obscure post in Gaul and history declares he committed suicide. Pilate was the third one in the great tragedy responsible for the death of Christ. First, Judas; second, Ciaphas, the high priest; third, Pilate. His fear, his moral weakness is the lesson. His conscience told him to do one thing and he ignored it to do another. So, too, with us—we are so often false to our own convictions. We do not heed the voice of conscience. Like Pilate we crucify Christ."

Program Provided By Toastmasters For Kiwanis Club

The Santa Ana Toastmasters' club "performed" at the meeting, yesterday, of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club, with Chester Hawk presiding as program chairman and Warren Hillyard as toastmaster.

The efficient work of the club, formed by Ralph Smedley, executive secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here, was demonstrated by the masterly manner in which two speakers from the club handled their subjects.

A. G. Green discussed "Business Ethics" and Sam Hurwitz related some of his impressions of Washington, D. C. The merchant visited in the national capital some time ago.

Banjo selections by Messrs. Sundstrom and Brooks offered the musical part of the program.

Once You Cook Electrically . . .

you simply won't be satisfied with any other method . . . it's so clean . . . it's so convenient . . it's so quick, you will wonder how you were ever able to cook, roast or bake over a hot, smelly, smoking, gas or coal range.

Don't labor under the mistaken idea that it is expensive to cook electrically. This is far from true, for not alone can you secure a lower electric rate from your light company, but in addition you have the added advantage of no loss of heat units through excess radiation. Electric heat is confined heat. It is economical heat. It is reliable heat and is always uniform and dependable—at your command by the turn of the switch.

Our Household Department featuring UNIVERSAL Electric Ranges is in charge of competent and thoroughly experienced men who will gladly explain just why it will pay you to install an electric range now.

The local man has the first press proofs of a volume which is likely to occupy a prominent place in all Dow libraries, and which seems to be assured of a good sale from the first.

MILITARY SCHOOL SEEN FOR COUNTY

PLACENTIA, March 14.—Members of the Placentia Chamber of Commerce are interested in the possibility of a military school being established in the vicinity in the near future. The cause of this interest was a letter which was read at the regular luncheon meeting of the chamber Tuesday. The letter was from the Robert E. Lee Military academy at Pacific Palisades and stated that as the school had outgrown its present location, it was looking for a site of from 10 to 20 acres for a permanent location.

The matter was referred to the industrial committee for action.

The opening of West Santa Fe avenue to traffic was reported at the meeting. The new road is from Walnut west to Placentia avenue and gives Placentia another outlet to the west.

It was suggested by Charles E. Lee that steps be taken to open another road to the south, connecting with Orangethorpe. Melrose street was the one thought most suitable for the project and the matter was referred to the road committee, of which Warren M. Bradford is chairman.

SAYS PEACE IS BY-PRODUCT OF ORGANIZATION

FULLERTON, March 14.—"We can prevent war in this generation if we can prevent fighting as we have done between individual cities and states," declared Mrs. Lucia Ames Mead, peace movement pioneer, lecturer and author, at the meeting of the Fullerton International Relations council at its meeting Tuesday night at Ryan's cafe.

"The country must talk world organization and not peace; peace is a by-product," she said. "Man is a struggling animal and not a fighting animal. We will always have disputes, but is it necessary to fight?

"Real damages are within the nation and not without. More people are killed today in the United States than were killed in a battle fought with foreign nations."

According to Mrs. Mead, few high school and junior college students can answer ordinary questions about federal and state government statistics.

Mrs. Mead said that many ridiculous subjects are taught when necessary knowledge that goes to make peace in international affairs is forgotten.

Another speaker was Dr. Khalil Totah, of Ram Allah, Palestine, head of the Friends' Boys' school at that place. Dr. Totah said that in his school of more than 200 boys and girls, the instructors taught students to love one another.

Dr. Richter, in speaking of his experiences on his recent trip to Mazatlan on the Pacific coast side of Mexico, compared the conditions now with those found on a previous trip made 20 years ago.

The development so apparent since his previous trip he attributed to the extension of the railroads to and beyond Mazatlan.

RADIO TO SOLVE AIR NAVIGATION, SAYS O'ROURKE

NEW YORK CITY, March 14.—Radio will be the sole means of air navigation, while all controls for a plane will contain automatic mechanisms for observation and operation, Capt. Peter V. O'Rourke said at the recent Aviation show in New York City.

Captain O'Rourke is a skilled navigator. He began his life on the sea as a wireless operator aboard the S. S. "New York," in 1910. During the World War he was a lieutenant in the merchant marine, acting as navigating officer, as by that time he held a master's license, "any tonnage, any ocean."

He has been prominent in yachting circles for 18 years, and for 10 of those years has been a yachtmaster. He has participated in many yacht races.

Takes Up Flying

For the last few years he has been deeply interested in aviation, and at the age of 37—a year ago—he took up flying. He is now regularly in flight, all the while making observations looking toward the solution of air navigation problems.

Captain O'Rourke's statement on navigation of the air by radio follows:

"The master mariner who looked contemptuously upon the radio navigator may find in that same 'Sparks' the navigator of the air whose skill will supplant the time-honored astronomical observations of the Saga of the Seas.

"Ships' wireless operators, many of whom have quit the key to become navigating officers, will return to their original calling and control the destiny of the ships of the air.

"The methods of determining position and direction as used at sea, requiring charts, mathematical tables sextants, azimuth instruments, peloruses, compasses, protractors, chronometers and a radio set with which to check some of the instruments, are not practical in ordinary use for piloting an airplane. Weight and space do not permit the use of this equipment, without considering the necessity of carrying along a skilled navigator.

No Skill Required

"Radio receivers are now being developed together with transmitting apparatus which will enable the aircraft pilot to determine at a glance the direction in which to head his ship, its altitude, position and speed. Signals and weather reports will be available both visually and orally so as to obviate the hazards of flight during inclement weather.

"Finding one's position by means of radio bearings is at present common practice at sea and in the air. This process is simple and most accurate.

"The airplane instrument board of the near future will contain lightweight simplified radio appurtenances automatically operated and requiring no skill on the part of the pilot.

"It will portray for him the complete log of the flight and will include television devices showing close-ups of the terrain beneath the plane regardless of atmospheric conditions.

"It is not beyond the bounds of reason to expect radio to furnish the motive power to propel the plane, thereby reducing mechanical weight and completely eliminating the problem of fuelling.

"To radio we must look for the future of aviation.

"On the crest of a Hertzian wave will the ship of the air ply its way."

Farm Program To Come Over Chain At 7:30 Tonight

Orange county farmer radio fans will join with millions of others at 7:30 p. m., today, in listening to the first National Farm Bureau federation broadcast ever put on the air. The Garden Grove Farm center will feature the program at its meeting tonight.

The program can be picked up either from KQW, San Jose, or KOA, Denver, according to Norman M. Blaney, executive secretary of the Orange County Farm bureau. Blaney received a telegram today from Alec Johnson, secretary of the California Farm Bureau federation, announcing the program.

Samuel Thompson, president of the national organization, will be chairman of the affair. There will be several speakers and musical numbers. The affair will last until 8:30 p. m.

RADIO FANS PAY

Last year British radio fans paid the government, in the form of receiver tax, $5,500,000. This amount went to the support of the 21 government stations. If the 600-odd stations in America were operated in this manner, it would cost listeners in this country $192,000,000 annually.

WGY AWARDED FULL TIME AND 50,000 WATTS

WASHINGTON, March 14.—On the ground that the order of the Federal Radio Commission, granting only part time to WGY, Schenectady, N. Y., was unreasonable and contrary to public opinion, interest and necessity, the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia ordered the Commission to issue a full-time license to the station.

The other contention presented by WGY, that by virtue of its long possession of the 790 kc frequency it had a vested property right therein, akin to the possession of a trade mark in commercial affairs, and that the part-time order was an invasion of such constitutional property right, was denied.

The court was persuaded in favor of WGY because of the station's scientific importance, due to its developmental and experimental work; because of the $1,500,000 capital investment, and because of the 2,000,000 listeners in New York, Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire who depend largely on WGY for regular reception of programs.

The court compared the operation of WGY on part time, whereby it was ordered by the Commission to stop broadcasting at sunset Pacific time because KGO, Oakland, Calif., was scheduled to have exclusive use of the channel from then on, and the simultaneous operation of WGY and KGO after sunset Pacific time.

Both WGY and KGO are owned and operated by the General Electric company. WGY had been authorized to use 50,000 watts by court order, while KGO has 10,000 watts.

"It must be assumed," the opinion contends, "that WGY, operating in the evening at 50,000 watts, would at certain distances interfere with the broadcasting of KGO, with its smaller power."

The court held that such interference would be secondary to public inconvenience caused by WGY being silenced at night.

BEFORE THE MIKE

Women are more receptive to radio programs than men, according to Anne Brae, one of the team of Phil and Anna Brae at WOR, Newark. "Both Phil and I have worked on the air at all hours and the count is overwhelmingly in favor of the women," says Anne. "At one time we got 6185 letters from men." The Brae act, incidentally, is a portrayal of married life.

Everyone will probably welcome the announcement that the Seiberling Singers quartet is back on the air again and will hold forth on Thursday nights on the NBC network. While they were away the Seiberling orchestra, under the direction of Erno Rapee, substituted for them.

Note the "iron hat." That's worn because once he was a movie actor. This gentleman, because of his resemblance to the late Wallace Reid, doubled for him in his last two pictures. But his present love is radio. He chatters amusingly, sings and plays the piano at KGO, San Francisco. Although he's reticent about it, he may be a descendant of America's first night rider, for his name is Paul Revere!

Miss Baklor

WBAL'S latest acquisition is Elsa Baklor, a Virginian by birth, but who received her entire vocal training in Baltimore. Miss Baklor is a soprano and appears in solo recitals and special broadcasts. Miss Baklor got her start when she appeared as a guest artist with the De Feo Opera company at Baltimore. Then followed a series of engagements with the Baltimore Symphony orchestra and concerts at other cities signed by Frederick R. Huber, director of WBAL.

SENATE'S RADIO DIRECTOR

Radio fans now get in on the ground floor of the U. S. senate. Co-operating with the senate broadcasting committee, the NBC is broadcasting a weekly series of programs known as "Half Hours with the Senate." In this series, prominent statesmen discuss matters confronting the senate. Senator Jesse H. Metcalf, of Rhode Island, shown here, is chairman of the broadcasting committee.

BETTER TUBES AND SPEAKERS ARE PERFECTED

By ISRAEL KLEIN
Science Editor, NEA Service

Reports of new developments in the radio field have been coming thick and fast. New tubes, new loud speakers, new controls, switches and integral parts of receivers promise to raise the level of radio reception manifold.

When the radio manufacturers and dealers get together in Chicago next June, preparatory to plans for the popular radio shows in September, they will discuss, among other things, the following outstanding innovations:

1. Screen-grid tubes of the heater type for A. C. operation.

2. Inductor-dynamic loud speakers and electro-static loud speakers—novelties in reproducer design over even the electro-dynamic reproducer of today.

More Automatic Devices

3. Automatic volume control.

4. Single tuning control, line voltage control and remote control tuning.

5. Improved amplification design and more selective radio frequency control.

6. New detector and power tubes.

7. Time clock switch for automatic operation of the receiver.

The list, incomplete as it is, reveals the amazing possibilities for development still before us in the radio field. These innovations promise much more faithful reproduction of all tones within ear range, less squeals and whistles, more perfect tuning and less distraction in the process of tuning from sudden ear-bursting noises.

The screen-grid tube has been over a year in use in the battery-operated receivers and has proven its value in increased sensitivity and the prevention of oscillation, with its accompanying howls, in radio frequency circuits of receivers. Two such tubes in the radio frequency stages are said to equal five ordinary tubes. The result of the use of fewer tubes in reception would be smaller and

LAWS DISCUSSED AT CLUB SESSION

YORBA LINDA, March 14.—Mab Copeland Lineman, of Los Angeles, lawyer, lecturer and author, spoke before members of the Yorba Linda Woman's club and their guests, the executive board of the county P.-T. A., at the Woman's clubhouse Tuesday afternoon.

The subject of Mrs. Lineman's address was "Laws for Women." These are the laws which concern the property rights, the home and the family.

Joint bank accounts, homestead laws, mortgages, trust deeds, dower rights, separate and community property, laws regarding wills, were touched upon by Mrs. Lineman, and the club was urged to make some sort of a law committee to further the study of these laws both in the club and in schools.

Mrs. Lineman stated that 97 per cent of the broken homes that come to her knowledge are caused by financial misunderstandings which might be averted by a better knowledge of the law, and her final message to the women was to listen, to read, to study, but above all, to learn to think.

Following Mrs. Lineman's address a short business session was held, at which Miss Kate Ray, of Anaheim, county chairman of education, spoke informally on the county unit plan which is coming before the legislature.

Miss Louise Cottem, of Atwood, cousin of Mrs. Verne Adams, finished the afternoon with two vocal solos, "Gipsy Love Song" and "Love Dreams," piano accompaniment by Mrs. Ben Selover and violin obligato by Mrs. Mildred Zwaschka.

BOLSA, March 14. — Norman Post, who purchased the large garage building located in Bolsa from Steve Elsey, Santa Ana, recently, is remodeling the building. Post, who is assisted by his brother, Hap Post, has opened the south side of the garage and is using that section of it as an airplane hangar, his two planes being housed there. The front part of the building will be devoted to a machine shop and a filling station will be located at the entrance.

SCHOOL NEWS

FRANCES WILLARD

Senate Session

The 4s social science class put on an interesting experiment in current events last week under the direction of Miss Dorothy Broadway. A real live senate session was held carrying out to the last detail the formalities and ceremonies attending a regular senate session. Guests from the various social science classes were present. The session was opened by Vice President Dawes in the person of Claude Owens, who led in the oath of allegiance and gave an introductory speech summarizing important bills to come before the senate. Roll was called by the clerk, each senator answering to his name. Some rousing speeches were given on prohibition. Roll was called by states on the next bill which provided Lindbergh should give up flying. Some excellent speeches were given on Boulder dam, the discussion being led by Senator Johnson in the person of Harold Woodard. This bill was laid on the table until the next session. The senate was adjourned to meet again on Friday.

In the session on Friday the problem of consolidation of Standard Oil companies was hotly contested. The matter was referred to a committee who was to interview Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Stewart. The Kellogg peace pact was next taken up and was defended by Ambassador Kellogg in the person of Bill Spurgeon who was introduced by Vice President Dawes. Senator Reed of Missouri (Dorothy Spicer) read the pact and gave some excellent arguments in its defense. Last came the Nicaraguan canal bill which was held over. Senator Paxton convinced the senate we should have an independent canal. The final session was closed by the president in a fitting manner.

On Monday an open forum was held in which arguments of various speakers were discussed.

Honor Society

At a recent meeting of the Willard Honor society, under the direction of Mrs. Edith Thatcher, the following officers were elected: President, Ella Pleis; vice president, George Fisk; secretary-treasurer, Marian Hawk; reporter, Margaret Arrowsmith.

The members will meet every Wednesday during home room period and it has been decided that the program committee will prepare an interesting program to present at each meeting.

Last Wednesday the president, Ella Pleis, announced the following committees to serve this semester:

Social committee, Sammy Tucker, chairman; Mary Wallace, Claude Owens, Margaret Arrowsmith, Norah La Rose.

Excursion committee, Ruth Jenkins, chairman; Carmela Italiano, Robert Wimbush, Irma Leigh Fernandes. Eqequiel Chavez, John Johnston.

Program committee, Robert Tannenbaum, chairman; Florence Warmer, Betty Heil, Marian Hawk.

—Margaret Arrowsmith.

Scholarship Pins

Ruth Jenkins, 6m section, and Carmela Itailiano, 6L section, have the honor of wearing the gold scholarship pin which means that they have been on the honor roll for five semesters of their junior high school course. They are the only students in school who have this honor.

Class Meeting

At the last meeting of the 2c girls a pro-tem secretary was appointed by the president, Neola Fox. She appointed Gertrude Vaughn. A discussion of the class party began and it was thought by the girls that it would be better to wait a few weeks. Elizabeth Garlock gave a humorous reading, "Arithmetic and Peaches," which was enjoyed very much. After the necessary announcements the meeting was adjourned.

JULIA LATHROP

The students and faculty of Julia Lathrop were very fortunate in being able to hear the inaugural program on Monday, March 4. Through the efforts of Mr. Rowley, Miss Lella Thrasher and Harold Moomaw who were a faculty committee to secure radios, we were supplied with seven radios. The program came through very clearly. Because we have no auditorium at Lathrop, these radios were installed in the larger classrooms and with added seats moved in for the occasion each student and teacher was privileged to hear the entire program.

Industrious

Seventh and eighth grade boys are very industrious in the "Shop" these days, making small electric motors. Low nine boys are learning to wire the various bell systems, burglar alarms and the different call systems.

There is an interesting display of projects on Fire Protection to be found in Miss Deane's General Science room this week.

On Thursday, March 7 all the students of Lathrop were allowed to vote for a California state bird. A list of birds was placed on the ballot and the student was asked to vote for one. Results of the election show that the bluebird is popular with the Lathrop students and the quail was second in popularity. This was a project fostered and put through by Miss Brokaw's general science classes.

Posture Week

March 11 to 15 is Posture week at Lathrop. A list of general rules has been drawn up by Mr. Scott, Miss Rideout and Miss Collins of the Physical Education department. These include all posture rules and also announce that posture tags will be given each student. At the end of the week those students whose tags have not been for poor posture are entitled to a swim at the high school. Thursday is Teacher's Tag day. At this time the students are allowed to require tags from those teachers who do not comply with the rules for good posture.

PARENT-TEACHERS

Roosevelt P.-T. A. held its monthly meeting in the kindergarten room, Mrs. Georgia Bradley presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Charles Perreung.

"Our Battle Hymn of Children," with Mrs. Harry Wetherell at the piano, was the opening song, followed by the salutation of the flag. A short business session followed.

A carnival to be held March 23 in the school building and the lectures at the Hall of Record on "Child Welfare," which are open to the public were some of the interesting things brought to the attention of the members present.

Another song, "Schools," was sung and the remainder of the afternoon was in the charge of Mrs. Earl Morris, her subject being "Laughter and Happiness in the School and Home." A number of Angelo Patri articles were read, questions which had been previously passed around were answered and a round table discussion was enjoyed, everyone responding enthusiastically to the ten questions Mrs. Morris had prepared. She has worked in the district, state and nation organizations very successfully and at present is the program chairman for the fourth district.

Mrs. Roy Beall, president of the high school P.-T. A. in a few words explained the student loan fund. The meeting was then adjourned and a social half hour followed with Mrs. O. V. Barton in charge of the refreshments.

ROOSEVELT

Track

The Roosevelt school children are beginning track work. Last week Mr. Archer was here and placed the boys into groups. There were the midgets, the juniors and the seniors. The teachers are arranging it so that only one group can have the pit at a time.

—Charles Kaufmann.

Some of the girls wanted to try high jumping, so Miss Lindsay is going to let them jump in the mornings before school, and at the afternoon recess. The girls all are very much pleased at the idea.

—Clarice Miller.

Progress Books

The fifth and sixth grades are making new progress books for writing. They will write one verse of "America" every month until June. They will paste their verses in the progress books.

—Billy Webb.

The Roosevelt school enjoyed a program Wednesday, March 6, in the kindergarten. Miss Gerrard had charge of it. First Miss Walker, Miss Lindsay, Miss Campbell and Miss Gerrard played a two-piano selection, "Adieu to the Piano," by Beethoven. Barbara Gerrard recited "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer. "Wayside Rose" was played by Sylvia White on the violin.

The last number was a talk on trees by Miss Burnell, the nature study supervisor from Los Angeles. She told us a story about a pine tree that was 1000 years old. It was very interesting. At the end of Miss Burnell's story, she gave the Roosevelt school a little pine tree that is two years old.

—Vivian Elliott.

Press Club

Roosevelt Press club held its March meeting in the kindergarten, Monday, the fourth. There was a very nice program. Mrs. Kellogg gave a talk, "How to Write Better School News." Josephine Keeler sang "Where Go the Boats," by Robert Louis Stevenson, and "Merry Brown Thrush," by Lucy Larken. She was accompanied by Marion Pletke. Louise Crawford played a piano solo, "Muset," by Bok. Marian Brannan gave a clever reading, "A Club Woman's Child," by Inez Tribit. The last number was a piano solo, "Clown Dance," by Kinscello, played by Geraldine Gilbert.

—Anne Wetherell.

The children in the upper grades are studying weeds. Mrs. Kellogg described wild mustard, hoarhound, yellow clover, shepherd's purse, mallow, groundsel, sour grass, filaree, sow thistle and pigweed to the students.

—Leonard Ash.

WINTERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntosh went to Los Angeles one day this week.

Mrs. Floyd Morris spent Thursday in Long Beach, where she was entertained by friends and had the pleasure of visiting with a party of former friends from Taft, who are in Long Beach for the present.

Dewey Huddeston, who last Monday was injured in an automobile accident, has returned home from a Long Beach hospital.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.
Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

BAD RECEPTION SEEN IN RESULT OF WGY BATTLE

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Louis G. Caldwell, formerly chief counsel of the Federal Radio Commission, and now its special counsel, commenting on the court decision whereby WGY was granted full time, declared that the decision destroys the equalization between the First and Fifth Zones. He said:

"The opinion holds that WGY is entitled to full-time operation with 50,000 watts power on the frequency of 790 kc. This frequency or channel was assigned by General Order 40 to the Fifth Zone to be used by the General Electric Company station at Oakland, California.

"Although the court does not say so, this decision necessarily holds that General Order 40 is invalid to the extent that it assigns this channel to the Fifth Zone; and if both KGO and WGY are to continue to operate on it, the channel ceases to be a cleared channel, with the result that all the listening public outside of a comparatively small area around either station will have reception spoiled for them by a heterodyne whistle.

"It also means that the equalization which the commission so carefully worked out between the five Zones has been destroyed as between the First and Fifth Zones with respect to cleared channels. Just what effect, if any, the decision will have on the other portions of General Order 40 it is too early to say."

He added that the decision was handed down while a brief prepared by him was being printed, and that according to rules of the court he still had several days left to file the brief. He said a rehearing would be asked, and the case taken to the United States supreme court, if possible.

Senator Dill, Democrat, of the state of Washington, said in the senate:

"Throughout the case, the court's treatment of counsel of the Commission has been discourteous to say the least. I do not know of any case of a legal nature where counsel has been treated with so little courtesy or where his rights have been so overridden as in this case."

Radio Will Boost New Mexico

LAS CRUCES, N. M., March 14.—In response to numerous requests from school children of the country, asking for information about New Mexico, the chamber of commerce of Las Cruces, New Mexico, has arranged for a series of lectures on "The State Nobody Knows."

These will be broadcast every Tuesday night at 8 o'clock for the next two months from Radio Station KOB, State College, New Mexico. The lecturer is Prof. R. G. Breland, head of the English department of the English department of the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.

Professor Breland has spent many vacations in investigating the little-known beauties of this state.

SIGRID ONEGIN ON KENT SUNDAY HOUR

"Sigrid the toiler," who typed and stenogged her way to musical fame, might be part of the story of the struggle of Sigrid Onegin, the newest and youngest European concert contralto and operatic star who is to be guest artist during the Atwater Kent Radio Hour Sunday night. But there is considerably more to the life history of this truly international singer, whose voice a coast-to-coast network of the National Broadcasting company will carry to the entire American nation.

Born in Stockholm, the daughter of an attache of the French embassy and his German wife, Mme. Onogin married a Russian, who died in a military prison during the World War. She made her first great triumph as a singer in a performance of "Carmen" with the late Enrico Caruso as chief star. Educated from childhood to speak and understand the philosophy of three languages—Swedish, French and German, she added many others during a life in which tragedy stalked and forced her to work as a stenographer and typist to earn money for her music lessons.

DRESSING ROOM RADIO LATEST SHUBERT IDEA

With the realization that comedians must have topical matter at their finger tips if they are to "get across" the footlights, the Messrs. J. J. and Lee Shubert have, by special arrangement with C. A. Earl, president of the Freshman company, makers of Freed-Eisemann and Freshman radio receivers, purchased receiving sets for the dressing rooms of Shubert theaters throughout the United States. It is planned that one dressing room in each house will be radio equipped and that this dressing room will be assigned to the comedians of musical attractions playing the houses.

Spot news reaches actors first via the radio, it was pointed out by an executive of the Shubert office. He said in part:

"I do not mean that the press is slower than the radio in picking up news and reaching the great mass of people but simply that actors are notoriously late risers, frequently turning over in bed only just in time to arrive at the theater for the 'half hour' call. Moreover many events, some of great importance, happen during the course of an evening's performance. I recall that President Wilson asked Congress to declare war against Germany almost in the middle of the evening and the fact wasn't brought home to many theater-goers until they were on their way home. If radio sets had been in the dressing rooms of the theaters back in 1917, and if radio, at that time, had reached its present day perfection, why the President's request would have been made an 'added attraction' in every theater in the nation.

"We are happy at the Shubert office that we have been able to be the first chain of important theaters to install radio sets in dressing rooms."

Earl, commenting upon the purchase, stressed the fact that the radio and the theater were in no way competitors. He said, "The theater as well as motion pictures and the radio has a definite place in every life that is lived to its fullest and each should do its utmost to increase the happiness of every man, woman and child throughout the world. I feel that our agreement with the Shubert theaters will enable the theater to increase its usefulness to a greater degree than ever before. Radio has a definite contribution to make to the theater, just as the theater has one to make to radio."

WATSON IS ROILED BY CANADIAN PACT

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Senator Watson, (Republican), of Indiana, chairman of the senate committee on Interstate Commerce, is "violently opposed" to any agreement with Canada on continental wavelengths that would give the United States only 1½ waves to 1 for Canada.

He questioned W. D. Terrell, chief of the Radio Division of the Department of Commerce, who was a delegate to the short-wave conference with Canadians, recently held in Canada. The questioning took place at a hearing held by the Interstate Commerce committee. Terrell said he was informed such an agreement was contemplated.

Senator Watson then declared: "I am violently opposed to that allocation. It's based on our population as it existed a century ago and on the estimated population of Canada a century hence."

Mr. Terrell said no agreement had been made yet, but that an effort was being made to reach an agreement.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN — PICTURES by KNICK

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

While Clowny slept below the ground, the others still were standing 'round the funny little wooden shaft they'd found upon the hill. Wee Carpy gazed down in the shaft, and then jumped back. The others laughed. "Why, even looking down," said he, "gives anyone a chill.

"It goes way down and gee, it's dark, and no place I would care to park. Whoe'er goes down might soon be lost or injured. Who can tell? The cave where Clowny chanced to crawl may not lead up to this at all. As far as we know this place may be nothing but a well."

Then Scouty grabbed hold of a rope, that hung way down, and said, "I hope that something's on the end of this to help us solve this mess. In pulling it there'll be no harm. Come on, somebody, lend an arm. It's rather heavy, but we all can pull it up, I guess."

"No! Wait a minute," Clowny cried. "A crank is right there by your side. All we need do is turn it and the rope will quickly rise." "You're right," cried Scouty. "This is great. There is no need to hesitate." And as they pulled a bucket 'rose. A treat for all their eyes.

"Ah, ha!" cried Scouty. "Here's a plan. You two jump in as best you can, and I will slowly let you down till you come to a stop. Then, after you are safe and sound I'll also leave this outside ground. I'll slide right down this little rope, and trust that I won't flop."

The two did just as they were told and down they went, into the cold, cold ground that lay below them. Then they shouted, "We're all right." So Scouty tied the rope up good, and slid right down, as best he could, My, goodness, what's to happen now that they're all out of sight?

DIAL MARKINGS ARE DISCUSSED BY RAY MANSON

By RAY H. MANSON
Chief Engineer Stromberg-Carlson Company

Real pleasure can be had from an automobile only when it is easy to handle. Likewise, thorough enjoyment from a radio receiver can be had only when stations are easily and instantly tuned in.

With the coming of the single dial tuner a great step was taken in making the radio receiver easily operated. However, as is usually the case with all new developments, it was not achieved without certain problems arising which were solved in different ways by different manufacturers.

This problem, which might seem to be a rather unimportant one, was how to mark the dial—in wavelengths, in kilocycles, or from 0 to 100? Set makers have used all three methods, resulting in wide variations in receiving set tuning. The government and its radio commission speak in terms of kilocycles and have tried to establish it as a common practice, but it has been impossible to get the radio public out of its original habit of thinking in terms of wavelengths. It is much more logical to the public mind to think of wavelengths, inasmuch as wavelengths increase from the bottom to the top of the dial, whereas kilocycles decrease.

There is one objection, however, in using either wavelengths or kilocycles for dial markings, and this is the relative instability of the broadcasting allocations over long periods of time. In its effort to improve radio reception, the radio commission constantly is changing wavelengths. It is much easier to remember the position of a station by numbers from 0 to 100 than by having to remember numbers from 200 to 550, the present broadcast range.

For the present, therefore, we believe that the simple marking from 0 to 100 best serves the convenience of the listener.

ONLY $2.50 EACH

The San Francisco studio of the NBC reports that its musical library, composed of some 10,000 pieces of music, is valued at about $25,000.

LIBERIA HAS ITS RADIO FANS, TOO!

A wholly new conception of music is being gained by the natives of Liberia, on the west coast of Africa, since the arrival of American enterprise which is rapidly developing the jungle into fertile rubber lands. Despite the deep love of music inherent in the native soul, their opportunities heretofore have been confined to the crude instruments and harmonies common to the bush. But with the coming of the white man all this is being changed. As the native Liberians are beginning to enjoy the advantages of improved educational and industrial progress, so are they receiving with joy the new world of music opening up to them. Thousands of natives travelled great distances in response to an invitation to assemble at the Firestone plantation headquarters to hear the first "Voice of Firestone" program broadcast from America to Africa. These programs go on the air every Monday night to 43 stations in the United States and over short wave from WGY, Schenectady, to every part of the world. It is 5000 miles from Akron to Liberia, but although sound travels 186,000 miles per second the programs are not heard in Monrovia until five hours later on account of the difference in time on the other side of the earth. But the natives patiently wait until 1 a. m. to hear the beautiful western melodies and they listen with deep attention and respect as at Akron the Great White Chief, as they term Harvey S. Firestone, greets his employes assembled in this far-off little African republic. The first picture shows a typical group of natives and white employes assembled in this far-off little African republic. The first picture shows a typical group of natives and white employes listening to a "Voice of Firestone" program broadcast from Schenectady. To the left is a Liberia belle in a native dance which she is evidently hugly enjoying. At the right, a typical Bush "orchestra" is playing the crude instruments in use in Liberia for centuries.

CENTRAL RADIO INSTALLED BY BIG HOSTELRY

The first major hotel installation of its new centralized radio system was announced today by the Radio Corporation of America. To the Allerton House of Chicago, lragest hotel of the Allerton chain, goes the distinction of providing individual radio reception, through a wall-type loudspeaker, to guests in 887 of its 990 rooms, and pioneering in a new field of hotel service.

Other hotels have experimented with radio service in guest rooms. Head-phones, plugged into a baseboard switch and movable loudspeakers connected in the same manner, have been installed in several hotels. The Allerton House, however, is the first important hotel to adopt the standard centralized equipment developed only a few months ago by the Radio Corporation's engineers.

Briefly, the present centralized radio installation comprises a central receiving unit with one, two, three or four "channels," each tuned to a different program; a powerful and highly efficient amplifying unit, and a number of automatic controls. The entire equipment of this central receiving station, as it is called, is mounted ruggedly and compactly on a switchboard.

Secondly, there is the distribution, or "feeder" system which takes the program to all parts of the hotel. Lastly, there is the listening-in equipment which takes the form of headphones or loudspeakers, installed in each room. The loudspeaker is equipped with a manual volume control as well as with a channel selector switch permits the occupant of the room to enjoy a choice of programs.

The complete equipment required for the reception of a single program constitutes what is known as a "channel" and is mounted at the back of the vertically arranged panels. Each receiving channel comprises a monitoring loudspeaker, by means of which the operator may adjust both the receiver proper and the amplifier at will.

There also is a time which starts and stops the programs automatically at any designated hour. Once the channel receiver has been satisfactorily tuned to a given station, its controls are locked to avoid tinkering. Separate panels are provided for both receiving and amplifying units, as well as a distribution panel for regulating the output.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, March 14.—(UP)—General Motors, United States Steel Common and Radio Corporation of America led today in helping the stock market into higher ground. Trading picked up from the light turnover of the last few days and profit-taking declines toward the close were absorbed easily.

Strength was apparent in all part of the last, coming from relatively easy money which ruled at 7 per cent, retention of the Boston Bank rate at 5 per cent, belief that New York would make no change today, and expectation of a decrease in brakerage loans.

Radio Corporation of America soared to $500 per share for the first time in history and the new stock made a new high at the $100.50 mark. Trading in these issues overshadowed all other stocks in point of volume. The new stock had a turnover of more than 400,000 shares or about one-tenth of the business done on the exchange. Toward the close a sale of the new came out at 99½ for 10,000 shares.

Gains in the general list ran from one to four points with special issues up from five to nearly 25 points. Pacific Telephone & Telegraph soared to $200 for a gain of $23.75.

In the afternoon General Motors suddenly got into action. There was a brief pause between sales of the issue and then it came out 13,000 shares at 84. Later it went to 85 on a sale of 15,000 shares and then it spurted to 85½ up 3⅝ points.

Steel Common was rising steadily to a new high on the movement at 188 up 5⅞, while Bethlehem reached a new high at 108⅝, up 5⅜. Gains of four to nine points weer made by such issues as Chrysler, Radio New, Commercial Solvents, General Electric and Goodyear Tire & Rubber.

Along with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, other communication stock were strong. Oils were agailn meeting good demand with particular attention paid such stocks as Mexican Seaboard, Sinclair, Houston and the Standard issues.

Rails firmed up with the industrials, featured by a rise of more than two points in New York Central which reflected the 100 per cent cash dividend declared yesterday by Michigan Central.

Motor Shares, Copper, Rubbers and Motor Equipments were bid up, Electric Auto-Lite featuring the latter group.

L. A. PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, March 14.—The market was somewhat unsteady and irregular today due to an increase in the supply of a few seasonable commodities, and an occasional dwonward price adjustment had to be made.

Imperial Valley asparagus was in good demand at $9.00@$10.00 a crate for extra fancy.

Local avocados had a fair movement, with the best Fuertes quoted at 27@28c a pound, and some poorer stock at 23@24c.

Lemons were having a very slow call and the market continues weak at $1.25@$1.50 a box for the run of stock.

Peas were in liberal supply and prices had to be lowered slightly. Pismo and San Luis Obispo stock brought 11@12c generally, and San Pedro receipts sold at 10@12c.

The orange market remains discouragingly weak.

Strawberry supplies are still very light, although receipts get slightly heavier each day. Imperial valley trays weakened to $4.75@$5.00.

The tomato market was slow at $3.25@$3.50 a lug for fancy Mexican stock.

Potatoes were dull at $1.60 per cwt. for good quality Stockton Burbanks, and $1.35 per cwt. for Idaho Russ-

CHICAGO BD. OF TRADE

CHICAGO, March 14.—(UP)—Wheat futures closed unevenly lower here today, nervous trading erasing gains made on damage reports from the southwest. Corn was lower in sympathy with dull cash trade. Oats were unevenly a shade lower.

At close wheat was ⅛ to ¾c lower, corn was off ¼ to ¾ cents and oats were unchanged to ⅜ cents lower. Provisions were slightly lower.

Wheat trading was moderately active and prices held firm throughout most of session. Cash prices were unchanged.

Corn receipts were slightly larger and weakness of cash situation was responsible for lower futures most of the day. Cash prices were ¼ to ½ cent lower.

March oats was a minor fraction lower during morning but deferred deliveries showed a fairly steady tone. Cash prices were unchanged.

ST. PATRICK'S PROGRAM PLAN OF SEIBERLINGS

The ether will be tinted green and the air thick with brogue this evening, March 14, when the Seiberling Singers will do a pre-St. Patrick's Day program of Irish medleys, melodies, jigs and reels.

This shamrock-laden program promises to include some of the loveliest of Erin's songs. It will open with an Irish Medley arrangement by Frank Black, Musical director of the Seiberling Hour and one of the foremost of modern composers, which will be done by the Seiberling Singers quartet. It will include Ernest R. Ball's "A Little Bit of Heaven" sung by James Melton, Seiberling's own tenor, several rollicking moments while Phil Ohman and Victor Arden play a group of Irish jigs and reels on their two famous pianos, and Clatibel's beloved "Come Back to Erin" done as a violin chorus number by the Seiberling singing violins.

In honor of one particular Irishman—Victor Herbert—the quartet will also sing one of the most popular selections the Dublin-born American wrote—the "Entr'acte" from "Naughty Marietta."

To deepen the green of the evening ether the quartet will add an old Irish air, "Snowy Breasted Pearl," which John McCormick helped make famous.

more compact receivers and possibly a reduction in price.

Adapted for A C

The same tube is now being adapted for AC reception, with the use of a heater element such as is in the 227 tube today.

Two new types of loud speakers have appeared ready for popular adoption. Perhaps the most promising is the condenser type or electro-static reproducer designed by Colin Reproducers corporation, in Chicago. This is a flat affair of a substance called "Kylite" sandwiched in between two plates "bathed" in an electric current. Its marvel lies in its utter simplicity. Its designers promise wonders for it.

Less costly, but much more effective as a reproducer than the old magnetic type of speaker, is the new inductor speaker. This incorporates the plunger motion of the better electro-dynamic speaker without the costly use of the voice coil, and at the same time eliminates much of the distortion found in magnetic speakers. It will be found hereafter on the cheaper sets.

From Europe comes an "electro-static" reproducer which, however, has still to be perfected before it can be adopted popularly. It is similar to the Kyle condenser type speaker and has much promise for it.

Automatic Volume Control

Of perhaps as equal importance all the screen grid tube and the new loud speakers is the automatic volume control by which volume is automatically regulated while stations near or far, of varying intensities, are tuned in. This will do away with the noises that accompany the process of tuning from distant to nearby stations. The same volume of sound is maintained no matter how distant or how lacking in power a station may be.

Possibility of the use of this control with that of the automatic tuning device now being used on the Zenith receiver, presents a picture of utmost pleasure to the radio fan. Perhaps the phenomenon of fading, too, can be controlled by such a device.

These are the major developments in radio reception of late. But even the least of the minor improvements will advance the science and industry to a great degree. Such are further perfection of the circuit design of receivers, readjustment of condenser design so that stations will be an equal distance apart all the way down the dial, improvement of detector and power tubes for more dependable reception and the addition of certain accessories to make the process of tuning much simpler and more convenient.

The cabinets into which radio receivers and speakers are built are being designed to produce the best acoustical effect possible, as well as present themselves as things of beauty.

TRANS-OCEAN RADIO PROGRAMS ARE SEEN

NEW YORK CITY, March 14.—"The day of international broadcasts has arrived," M. H. Aylesworth, president of the NBC, says. "Recently a speech by the President of the United States was followed with a program from London, rebroadcast by the NBC's coast-to-coast system. Radio programs from the United States are heard regularly in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and New Zealand. We have arrived at the point where radio communication to the masses of other nations is an accomplished fact.

"We visualize in the near future an interchange of radio programs with other nations, chiefly English-speaking nations, which will be available to American listeners."

.....Team Work

has brought Success to California Citrus Growers

CUT-THROAT competition, lack of standardized fruit, market shortages or gluts, price cutting and red ink on the ledger sheets—these conditions were working toward the mutual destruction of California citrus growers thirty years ago.

The turning point came with the organization of the California Fruit Growers Exchange. Growers faced the facts, pooled their resources of crops and intelligence—and began to work together for mutual benefit. This united man-power has achieved the position occupied by the industry today.

Now there are 11,500 growers in the Exchange—three out of every four in California. Theirs is one of the most successful cooperative marketing organizations in the world. United, they cooperate in growing, packing, shipping and marketing.

Marketing, perhaps, is the most important of all. For here there is competition. Not citrus grower against citrus grower. But citrus grower against apple grower, against soft-drink manufacturer, against other fruits and foods.

And here Exchange methods have brought its members unprecedented success—through lower costs, more orderly distribution, more aggressive selling and more efficient methods of increasing consumption. Many other industries, both agricultural and manufacturing, have adopted these Exchange methods. The reason is not hard to find.

They know that large-scale cooperation has made the cost of all Exchange services (including advertising) less than the marketing cost alone of any other agricultural product. They know, too, from comparative figures, that year after year Exchange members average the highest returns for their crops—because the public and trade are willing to pay a premium for this better standardized and more dependable fruit.

Join the Exchange

Non-member growers, acquaint yourselves with all the facts. By joining the Exchange, you can extend these large-scale economies still farther. Thus you can increase your own benefits and those of all other Exchange members.

Talk to the manager of your nearest District Exchange or Exchange Association. Or address Growers Service Bureau, California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C," Los Angeles, for complete information.

COFFROTH HANDICAP BELIEVED OPEN RACE

Biggest Crowd Expected At Limbaco-Valarde Bout

MAIN EVENTER FRIDAY NIGHT

Smart with his fists and smart with his dollars—that's Trip Limbaco, dynamic little Filipino, who meets Joey Velarde in the feature attraction at the Orange County Athletic club's boxing card here tomorow night. Limbaco recently gave Earl Mastro one of his closest battles at the Olympic. He is said to have saved $100,000 out of the boxing game.

TRIPLE TOP IS ATTRACTIVE TO LOCAL FANDOM

An attendance that will equal, if not eclipse, the standing record at the Orange County Athletic club is expected by officials of the Santa Ana professional arena tomorrow night when Trip Lambaco and Joey Velarde, high class 122-pounders, go to work in the feature of an all-star card.

Zenaydo Chavez and Jimmie Rivers almost packed the house when they met two months ago but the call for advance reservations for that "grudge" mixup was no greater than has been the demand this week, according to Major M. Anderson, business director of the O. C. A. C.

Lambaco and Valarde probably are the best boys yet to show here. Both are at the top of their profession in Southern California and their records are so well known that fandom apparently feels it is taking no chance paying for their encounter.

Lambaco, a shrewd, experienced, Filipino, has been meeting top-notchers of the trade up and down the coast for several seasons, one of his recent starts being against Earl Mastro, now in line for a bout in Los Angeles with "Bud" Taylor.

Valarde hasn't the reputation of his foeman but he is considered an even better prospect. He created a sensation here several weeks ago when he filled in on a few hours' notice and punched Jesse Gabuco, a good one in his own right, into submission.

There will be three main events and Kid Mexico, the astute matchmaker for the club, insists that Lambaco and Valarde have no more class than the other four graduates.

Billy Blake, a growing fellow who has met all the good ones in his division such as Johnny Adams, Baby Joe Gans, Tommy O'Brien and Mushy Callahan, faces Hi Gill, well known in Santa Ana, in the second main event. Gill may be going out of his class for this one.

Jimmy Black and Rosalio Caballero are likely to take all the play away from the windups. Black, colored, is a whirlwind type of battler, always throwing gloves and most always winning. Caballero fought "Red" Humphries here at one time and lost, by a close margin.

There will be three other bouts, all four-rounders. The three windups will go six rounds, or less.

SANTA ANA ENTRIES IN SOUTH COUNTIES INVITATIONAL MEET ANNOUNCED BY COACH OLIVER

Nineteen athletes, all in superb condition, will represent Santa Ana high school in the eighth annual Southern Counties Invitational track and field meet at Huntington Beach Saturday afternoon. This is the classic twice won by the Saints and four times in the last four years by teams developed by "Tex" Oliver, Santa Ana coach.

The Huntington Beach Invitational will be bigger than ever this season, virtually every school outside of Los Angeles county, having forwarded entries to Harry Sheue and Ray Elliott, meet managers.

Santa Ana's entries follow:

100 yard dash — Bob Beaver, Ralph Gordon.

220 yard dash—Norman Paul, "Red" Cooke, Bob Beaver.

440 yard dash—James Daneri, Lloyd Nuzum, Bob Blair.

880 yard run—Captain Tommy Cone, Carl Schoenberg, Asa Herren.

Mile run—Tom Donahue.

120 yard high hurdles—Al Reboin.

220 yard low hurdles—Reboin.

880-yard relay—Reboin, Paul, Cone, Schoenberg.

Broad jump—Paul, Doyle Gilbert.

High jump—Elwood Lindley, Paul Jacques, McGee.

Pole vault—Stiles, Reboin, Russell Sullivan.

Shot put—Paul, Cooke, Alfred Poulsen.

Discus—Daneri, Beaver, Poulsen.

Because of its undenied strength in several events, the hurdles, distances, broad jump and shot put, Santa Ana has been made a pre-meet favorite by the dopesters who figure it will be a three-cornered battle for supremacy between the Saints, San Diego and Chaffey. San Diego probably will be Santa Ana's most dangerous competitor although Chaffey has two outstanding entries in Grey, weight thrower, and Reeder, sprinter.

Thrity-five points will be enough to win, it is believed, and optimistic Santa Ana adherents claim Paul, Reboin, Cone and Donahue will furnish 30 of that number.

EXPECT RECORD ENTRY TO FACE BARRIER SUNDAY

TIJUANA RACE TRACK, March 14.—The field of equine thoroughbreds which will face Starter Marshall Cassidy's barrier in the Coffroth Handicap, world's richest stake race, to be decided here Sunday, may be one of the largest ever to go postwards, from present aspects. The race is wide open, turf experts declare, with perhaps 10 of the 20 odd active candidates having a royal chance for the $100,000 pot. The race will gross more than $125,000.

A cool $500 is the starting fee—$500 against $100,000. It is a magnificent chance. That is why this year's field promises to be not only dazzling in its splendor, but populous in numbers.

Genie, great son of Man O' War in the stable of Gifford A. Cochran, continues the ruling favorite. His performances have been such that, despite his top weight of 126 pounds in the mile-and-a-quarter test of stamina, he holds top favor with the fans.

Genie is being pressed, however, by such noted thoroughbreds as Hydromel, the giant in the stable of Senator Johnson N. Camden, of Kentucky, W. R. Coe's Algernon, winner of the $30,000 Tijuana Derby; Alexander Pantages, California the Wilshire stable's Naishapur, bred horse racing for the western theatrical magnate of the same name, and Vermajo, winner of the rich New Orleans Handicap and which will carry the red, white and blue silks of the powerful Three D's stable. These horses are being given the most consideration in the race.

These, together with a dozen or so other stars, will make up the backbone of the field that will go to the post in the quest for riches and fame. For the Coffroth carries with it the glamor that few other stakes possess. Run each year in Old Mexico, it has rapidly become the leading stake of the world in point of money hung up by James Wood Coffroth, president of the Tijuana Jockey club, and one of the world's great stakes for the determination of the true quality of the thoroughbred.

Further lustre is lent the running of the stake this year with the announcement that a total of 14 races would be run Coffroth Day. The custom was borrowed from England and Australia, where all day racing has proven popular. The celebration will take on a holiday aspect. Preparations are being made by Jockey club officials to handle a capacity throng and reservations at San Diego hotels and Auga Caliente, indicate that the stake is drawing lovers of sport from all over the country, particularly the southwest and bay district of San Francisco.

OUT OF THE PAST

This is different and younger Walter Johnson from the one that will manage the Washington Senators this season. It should be, naturally, as this pose of Johnson standing in the Washington dugout before a game was snapped on Aug. 17, 1912. Johnson had been in the American league only a few years when this was taken, but he had been with the Senators long enough to be rated as one of the outstanding hurlers of baseball even at that date. His fast ball was at its fastest then. The season after this was taken, in 1913, Johnson won 36 games and lost only seven.

BEAVERS WAIST-DEEP IN FAIR GROUNDS SCHEDULE; L. A. GETS EARLY LEAD, WINS BY 10 TO 4

The Portland Beavers were waist-deep today in their schedule of exhibition games at the Orange County Fair grounds. Eight of their 17 training camp contests already have been accounted for and they were playing the ninth this afternoon with Ernie Johnson's Seattle Indians whose headquarters are at San Clemente.

Even so, the choice bits of the Beavers' extravaganza here are yet to come. There will be no more National Baseball school or Fullerton junior colleges on the docket. Gradually rounding into something like baseball condition under the benign rays of a friendly sun, Bill Rodgers' band will tackle nothing less than Double A competition the rest of the way in.

The Beavers will engage in regular routine work at the Fair grounds tomorrow but they swing into action again Saturday and Sunday against Hollywood, rest Monday and then Tuesday play "Bucky" Harris' first string Detroit Tigers in one of the two "gigantics" of the spring season.

After Detroit comes Los Angeles again and the following day, March 21, Seattle. Then to wind up the training camp in a blaze of glory the Portlanders will meet, on March 23, 24 and 25, Seattle, Seattle and Pittsburgh respectively. The Beavers will break camp the night of the Pittsburgh tussle and leave for San Francisco where they are scheduled to open the Pacific Coast league season March 26.

Ike Powers

Marty Krug's Los Angeles Angels defeated Portland 10 to 4, at the Fair grounds yesterday in a game replete with extra base knocks. There were four home runs, a triple and six doubles.

Art Seydler, a right hander with a side arm delivery who came into camp and asked for a trial, started for the Beavers and last one inning. He got rid of the first two Angels only to have Webb single, Tolson home, Berger double, Schulmerich single, Dittmar double and Warren single, all in succession, and manufacture five runs.

Roy Mahaffey, Tom Turner's new hurler from the Pirates, toiled the next four frames. He was wild and was hit fairly hard but appeared to have plenty on the ball. Ike Powers, the former Athletic, came along next and in the three innings he worked looked like the best gunner Portland has shown in this camp. He has a nice breaking curve and a beautiful change of pace. "Cowboy Ed" Tomlin finished up in good style.

"Tex" Weathersby threw the first five and "Red" Roberts the last four for Los Angeles. All of Portland's runs were the result of home runs over the short center fence. Wuestling bagged one after Jahn had walked in the second and Jim

COUNTY LEAGUE FOLK TO MEET AGAIN APRIL 3

Representatives of franchise-holding clubs in the Orange County Night Baseball league met but adjourned last night without accomplishing any real business.

Anaheim, Garden Grove, Olive and Huntington Beach sent spokesmen to the meeting in the Anaheim city hall. Santa Ana, Fullerton and Orange were not represented officially. La Habra already had resigned from the league.

Victor Baden and Jimmie Heffron, president and secretary for the last two years, announced their resignation but their successors were not appointed because of the small attendance. Elections will be held at the next meeting of the association April 3.

Long Beach and Arlington sent assurance that they intended to organize a new Major league in the Southland.

The only definite action taken by the county circuit was to adopt a schedule which will provide night ball only once instead of twice weekly and to play around twice.

JULIA LATHROP TRACK SQUADS DEFEAT TUSTIN

Julia Lathrop junior high school's seventh and eighth grade seniors and intermediates scored lopsided victories over track teams from Tustin grammar school yesterday, the Santa Ana seniors winning, 37 to 4, and the intermediates, 35 to 6.

Lathrop's seniors looked considerably stronger than they did a week ago when Colzado and Floyd were ineligible. This was especially true in the high jump and relay which were well taken care of yesterday.

Johnnie Shinto was high point man with 15. Colzado and Shaffer were tied for second honors with 10 each. The results:

SENIOR EVENTS

75-yard dash—Shaffer (L) first, Colzado (L) second, Crawford (L) third. Time, 8 3-5 sec.

High jump—Colzado (L) first, Floyd (L) second, Tiscaren (L) third. Height, 4 feet, 11 inches.

Broad jump — Colzado (L) first, Shaffer (L) second, Lawrence (T) third. Distance, 16 feet, 10 inches.

Shot put—Shaffer (L) first, McInteer (T) second, Block (L) third. Distance, 39 feet, 9 inches.

Relay—Won by Julia Lathrop. Time 39 2-5 sec.

INTERMEDIATE EVENTS

60-yard dash—Shinto (L) first, Millard (L) second, Fowler (L) third. Time, 7 3-5 sec.

High jump—Aguayo (L) first, Shinto (L) and Seacord (T) tied for second. Height, 4 feet, 9 inches.

Broad jump—Shinto (L) first, Fowler (L) second, Manuel (L) third. Distance, 16 feet, 7 inches.

GETTY GIVES 'LOW-DOWN' ON MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING AFFAIR DEMPSEY REPORTED AT MIAMI

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, March 14.—So many persons have asked us, since our return from Miami Beach, for the "low-down" on that mysterious early morning shooting affair reported by Jack Dempsey on the eve of the Sharkey-Stribling fight, that we have decided to come right out and tell all about it. In the first place, it wasn't a publicity stunt. As a matter of fact, it was mighty poor publicity and angered a number of people who felt their intelligence was being imposed upon.

The entire incident was a compilation of vivid imaginations.

If the Miami police had been equally impressed with the dramatic possibilities of the affair, the handsome hoosegow on the 12th floor of the city hall tower would be filled with suspects to this day. But the police, after lifting the tops from a few ash cans and peering into a few abandoned bath houses, decided that the mysterious little five-foot-two prowler with the celluloid collar must have made good his escape and so went back to their checkers.

It develops that what happened out at Harry Moir's house was this:

Dempsey and his friend Floyd Fitzsimmons, were sharing a bedroom, and had also shared a large and succulent welsh rarebit shortly before retiring. Jack also dreamed that pink elephants with celluloid collars were prancing on his bed posts, while Floyd saw something simple such as a big yellow snake going down stairs with its shoes under its arm.

A breeze from the ocean swept in through the wide windows. A door, left ajar, swung on its hinges,

HOOKS AND SLIDES

Henry L. Farrell

MY, SUCH A QUESTION!

Ruth, the Babe, considering that he is a high-priced journalist and newspaperman on the side, is a hard man to interview. In his newspaper writing career he hasn't learned yet that a reporter has to ask foolish questions at times just to satisfy the curiosity of the editor.

I was forced to put a foolish question to him in the Yankee training camp at St. Petersburg, Fla. He was full of sweat and a little out of breath and patience, perhaps, and I might have picked a better moment.

"Who's going to win the pennant this year, Mr. Ruth?" I asked him, and the first response was a swell glare.

"Don't give me that Mister stuff. Are you trying to give me the razz?" he gruffed back.

Then he thought for a moment and said: "Well, the Athletics ain't going to win this year, and neither are the Browns or the Detroits. Now use your own bean."

I suggested rather meekly that he meant the Yankees were going to win, and he admitted it.

"You've got a great bean," he said. "That's just what I mean. The Yanks are in."

He took a big slug of water out of the cooler and wiped off his face on his dirty sweat shirt and went into a little oratory.

"You're a helluva expert to be asking questions like that," he said. "What do we need to win a pennant that we ain't got? What have them other guys got that we ain't? We got pitchers and hitters and we got guts.

"And, if you was around last year, you know what guts meant to our club. When you want to ask me what year it is, come around again, and you don't have to rap on the door. Walk right in."

BABE IN GREAT SHAPE

The Babe seems to be himself again after a very unfortunate experience that he was forced to go through during the winter. No one speaks about the experience to him, of course, but we know from some of his few intimates that he has shaken it off. At least when he is on the ball field.

There is so much real love of baseball in the Babe that he can't think of anything else when he is on the field. What he consoles or distracts himself with off the ball field is his own business. But he obviously is in good condition.

THROUGH AS GREATEST

Personally, I think that the Babe is through as the Babe who was so magnificent in the World Series. The other ball players agree that he will be a good ball player as long as he is able to walk, but a great number of them I have talked to in the spring training camps think he is through as one of the greatest ball players of all times. If not the greatest.

They think that his legs are gone and, in baseball, as the legs go so goes the nation.

MUM'S THE WORD

I asked the players on several American league clubs if the bench jockeys would work on the Babe this season, and they all

Hagen Has Chance To Win Big Purse

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 14.—Walter Hagen has a chance to win the largest stake ever offered a professional golfer—$10,000 for victory in the La Gorce Open here next week.

L. A. Young, Chicago sportsman, has offered to duplicate any prize money Hagen may win, according to Bob Harlow, Hagen's manager. Thus, if Hagan wins first prize of $5000, he will get another $5000 for Young.

CHAVEZ KNOCKS OUT WILMINGTON FOE

Catching up with his cycling opponent in the fifth round, Zenaydo Chavez, Santa Ana welterweight, three times floored Vearle Whitehead, Ocean Park sensation, in the semi-windup at Wilmington last night and the third one "took." Whitehead was counted out and another knockout was added to Chavez's long list.

A fast and clever boxer, Whitehead outpointed Chavez in the first two rounds by backing away and jabbing as he went in the finest Gene Tunney imitation but Chavez caught up in the third, stung Whitehead in the fourth and finished him in the fifth. The bout was to have gone six rounds.

Earl Grigsby, Chavez's manager, said the Santa Ana lad had signed to meet Billy Clark at Wilmington next Wednesday night.

MAGEE, FORMER BIG LEAGUE STAR, DEAD

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—Sherwood Magee, former foe of umpires as a major league baseball player and later an umpire himself, is dead. He succumbed to pneumonia last night at the age of 44.

He was a left fielder for the Phillies from 1904 to 1914, when he was traded to the Boston Braves. Two years later he went to the Cincinnati Reds. In 1919 he was injured and released.

ELLIS GETS ACQUAINTED

STOCKTON, March 14.—George ("Rube") Ellis, new manager of the farm at San Bernardino for rookies of the Mission club of the Coast league, is on the job here, getting acquainted with the players who will be under his tutelage in the next few months.

JACK DEMPSEY OFF TO DISCUSS PLANS

NEW YORK, March 14.—Without reaching a decision concerning his future, Jack Dempsey departed quietly last night for Detroit, where it was said he would confer with a group of Michigan men headed by former governor Green relative to becoming associated with them in promoting moxing matches.

Rumors that Dempsey would return to the ring were revived in boxing circles but anything concerning the former champion's plans was without confirmation.

PIRATES LOOK WEAK WITHOUT BROTHER STARS

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, March 14.—Holdouts and injuries are retarding several National league teams in their spring training.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Brooklyn Robins have been the hardest hit, and with one thing and another happening to these two clubs it's hard to distinguish them from minor league outfits around their respective training camps.

A striking example of what the Pirates will look like this season without the Waners, who are holding out for a joint salary of $35,000, was on view at Paso Robles, Calif., yesterday, where the San Francisco Seals drubbed Donie Bush's club, 10 to 1.

The Pirates could garner only five hits off minor league pitching, while Pittsburgh's three aces, Carmen Hill, Jess Petty and Burleigh Grimes, were rapped for 18 hits.

Barney Dreyfuss has said that he has made his last offer to the Waners and that unless they come to terms both of them will be forced to remain out of baseball this season.

Picture, if you can, an outfield composed of George Grantham, Adam Comorosky and Fred Brickell—a veteran shifted from first baseman and a pair of youngsters neither of whom can be termed a major league regular—and there you have the Pirates' outfield if the Waners don't report.

With Glenn Wright's arm threatening to ruin his major league career and "Dazzy" Vance lolling around the Florida golf links while waiting for his $25,000 salary terms to be met, the Brooklyn Robins resemble first-class cellar material.

Brooklyn's infield is none too strong with Wright at shortstop, while without him the Robins' inner works is the weakest in the National league. Wally Gilbert, an Atlanta Youngster, is being tried at third, Jake Flowers is stationed at second and Del Bissonette is at first. If Wright is unable to play short, Davy Bancroft, who has seen his best days, will have to be shoved into the breach.

Vance, who won 22 games last season, almost is certain to get his demands and join the Robins soon, but he isn't getting into shape in the meantime.

ON THE TRAIL OF BIG LEAGUERS

LOS ANGELES, March 14.—The Waner brothers, Pittsburgh's prize holdouts, need not go to work for the Pirates at all this season if they accept a barnstorming tour offer made them by Gene Doyle, publicity man for the Hollywood American Legion fight stadium. Doyle wired the Waners, Lloyd and Paul, at their home in Ada, Okla., the offer to back a tour of the United States and Japan. He expected an answer today.

He said the American tour ought to net the $30,000 and the Japanese tour much more. He is familiar with the situation there, having taken a team of big leaguers across in 1920-21 and cleaning up financially. Doyle also managed Babe Ruth's first tour of the Pacific Coast in 1919, when the Babe had just set a new home run record.

Lloyd, the younger of the Waners, wants $12,000 from the Pirates, and his brother asks $18,000.

TAMPA, Fla.—"Sad Sam" Jones, star right-handed pitcher of the Washington Senators, was under orders today to sign his contract or leave camp. President Clark Griffith issued his ultimatum to Jones last night, offering him a $1000 increase over last season with an option in the difference in his present demands and his actual contract provided the Senators had a good financial year. Jones is believed to be demanding $12,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—The New York Yankees were one up on the Boston Braves in their annual spring exhibition series today, having won yesterday, 6 to 3. Lou Gehrig broke up the game with a triple to right in the eighth. Babe Ruth did not make a hit. Benny Bengough, Yankee catcher, is out again after an operation for the removal of his tonsils, but it probably will be several days before he is able to workout.

AVALON, Catalina Island—Clarence Blair, recruit infielder from the Little Rock Southern league club, has been elected by Manager Joe McCarthy to plug the gap in the Chicago Cubs' infield pending the recovery of "Woody" English, who is nursing an infected toe. Clyde Beck will shift from third base to shortstop and Blair will play third.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — After watching Glenn Wright, injured Brooklyn shortstop, in a workout at Miami, Fla., where he is under observation of Dr. Cecil Ferguson, Max Carey said he believed Wright would be in good condition in a couple of weeks. There is no change in the status of "Dazzy" Vance, lone holdout, who is demanding a $25,000 salary.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—The New York Giants have not had a real workout since last Sunday's practice game with the San Antonio Texas league club at Laredo, and Manager John McGraw expected to put them through a long session today, weather permitting. Rain and muddy grounds prevented the Giants from doing anything yesterday.

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Two week-end contests between the regulars and yannigans will occupy the attention of the Detroit Tigers. On Monday "Bucky" Harris will take his regulars to San Diego for a game with the Hollywood Shelks and on Tuesday to Santa Ana for a contest with the Portland Beavers. The rookies will remain here.

gathered momentum and closed with a crash!

When Jack finally pried Floyd out from underneath the bed, they asked each other what had happened.

"There were two of them," suggested Floyd.

"Yes," agreed Jack, "there must have been at least two of them.

"It's very mysterious," murmured Floyd, idly picking a bullet hole in the plaster behind his back.

"Aha," said Jack, "that gives me an idea. If it's mysterious, let us send for Sergeant Tapscott, my faithful bodyguard, who is sleeping off a hangover a few blocks down the beach. He is a detective and mysterious things are right in his alley."

Came the Tapscott, girding on his trousers, and from that time on it was just a matter of getting together on the details, ascribing a logical motive and such simple things as that.

Steve Hannagan, the Miami bout's publicity man, wouldn't have pulled a raw one like that. Steve has too much appreciation of news lavlues to leave the original announcement to a chauffeur. He would have started it from the police station, and saved time for his clients, the newspapermen.

said they wouldn't, and they said that any player in baseball who would jockey the Babe about that certain matter ought to have his head knocked off by the men on his own bench and probably would have it done to him.

"Anyway," most of them said, "the dirtiest jockeys in the league are on the Yankee bench, and they won't ride their own man."

"I love large audiences . . . especially when there's not a cough in a house-ful!"

"Those of us who are on the stage ought to be rated as experts on coughs. We study them constantly, because how we dread them!

"If an actor coughs, he can't say his lines. If the audience coughs, it won't hear his lines. So the nuisance of coughing gets us, going and coming.

EVENING SALUTATION

There are depths in man that go to the lengths of lowest hell, as there are heights that reach highest heaven: for are not both heaven and hell made out of him, made by him, everlasting miracle and mystery that he is?

—Carlyle.

HOPE HE REALIZES HIS RESPONSIBILITY

Among the lighter events which add to the gaiety of nations is the commanding position of the Prince of Wales over the masculine fashions of England and other English speaking countries.

The Prince appeared in America in a certain kind of soft hat with the brim set at a certain angle, and at once the men of America were wearing that kind of a hat.

Now the Prince has appeared in some peculiar sort of evening clothes, and it is presumed this will be the smart thing to wear after 6 o'clock. He has also appeared in a dark-blue derby. Now what will become of the brown derby of recent fame?

What a splendid opportunity for the Prince to play some April fool jokes on the susceptible men. He no doubt, could have the men of England and America too, for that matter, going about the streets in fantastic costumes while he himself had already changed to the usual modest garb. Does the Prince have a sense of humor or is he just pleasing himself?

It is fortunate for all of us that we have no woman in a position to set and vary the styles and fashions for our wives and daughters. What might be the result on the bank account staggers us. It is bad enough for some commercial Frenchman to tell them what to wear.

What is more absurd than to imitate the clothing of anyone, whatever his position of birth or eminence, regardless of our own particular style of beauty or taste? After all one of the advantages of being an American is that most of us males and females have good sense.

An inventor has been perfecting a mechanical nursemaid that calls mother when baby cries. Then father can step in and see what's wrong.

MR. WILSON'S PLAN

Senator Glass, of Virginia, has just given publicity to a plan which Woodrow Wilson suggested for the handling of the enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment. Mr. Wilson's theory of states' rights made it difficult for him to support any measure like the Volstead Act, which to him seemed to invade the rights of the individual states. His opposition to that bill, according to Senator Glass, was not an opposition to national prohibition, but his belief that it was not the function of the Federal Government to enforce the law within the confines of any state.

The Eighteenth amendment makes it the joint obligation of the Federal Government and the State Government to enforce it. Mr. Wilson's plan was to use the power of the Federal Government to prevent the bringing in of liquor from outside the country and also its shipment from one state into another, leaving each state to enforce the amendment within its own bounds. There is a great deal to be said for that plan. With the general respect for the Constitution which exists among the people of the country, he believes, as a matter of loyalty to the fundamental law of the land, that almost all of the states would have been found loyal to the amendment. Nullification of the Constitution has never been popular in this country. No state would care to be in the position of not playing the game with the other states. It may be that the commission on the matter to be appointed by President Hoover will find some food for thought in the plan which Senator Glass has thus made public.

One of the new books, by Lytton Strachey, is "Elizabeth and Essex." Probably it came out in connection with the automobile shows.

ANOTHER CATASTROPHE DUE TO SPEED

Two more victims of extremely high speed in endeavors to break a record are recorded at Daytona Beach. The driver of the car running at the rate of over three miles per minute lost control for an instant—and an instant was enough to send him and a bystander into eternity.

Such terrific speed must have its main danger in the distance traveled and the momentum and impact possible in the length of time it takes for an impression to be recorded on the brain and acted upon.

At this speed, according to scientists, one would travel more than 250 feet before an error could be corrected. That distance is enough to result in death. Whichever way the car is headed, even at 60 miles an hour, a driver knows it must remain practically in that direction until its speed is reduced. When it is going at more than three times this speed one can imagine it can hardly swerve a hairbreadth.

MEETING THE VERDICT

Gen. Umberto Nobile, commander of the Italian north pole expedition, has resigned from the national air service. He declares he has taken this action in order to vindicate himself from the findings of the commission.

This commission blamed the General to a great degree for the loss of the Italian dirigible, and for deserting his companions when he was rescued. Public opinion throughout the world had always found the General guilty of desertion, and was undoubtedly fortified in that opinion by the story of his actions during his famous trip with Amundsen. It vindicates Amundsen's story. The strange part of it is that companions, and even a government, would still repose confidence and trust in one who had so evidently demonstrated unfitness.

There was nothing else for Nobile to do but to resign. The technical details may be discussed for a long period of time, but to the public, a captain accepting rescue with his men still in peril can have no defense.

A VALUABLE PARTNERSHIP

Those interested in business and economics have been much instructed in the past two years by some books bearing the names of Foster and Catchings as joint authors. William Trufant Foster was a college professor and is now engaged in research work for the Pollak Foundation.

Waddill Catchings is a financier and manufacturer, who serves on the directorate of such large corporations as the Sears Roebuck Company, the National Dairy Products Corporation, B. F. Goodrich Company, and many other large companies, while at the same time he is a member of the Goldman Sachs Company, one of the great financing corporations of Wall Street.

Beginning with the "Road to Plenty" and followed by others, these authors are facing the whole problem of industry and finance in a thoroughly scholarly and practical way. The combination of the scholar and the practical man of affairs, both of them open-minded and socially-minded, and both of them scholarly and practical, gives their work a value for the student and the man of affairs that can hardly be equalled by any other work that is being done today. It does away with the criticism about the impractical and the theoretical professor which is so often flung at a really great contribution of things when written by the professor alone.

That schoolgirl complexion is all right in its place, but it can cause an awful lot of trouble on father's coat.

WHERE LIFE IS CHEAP

Human life is held very cheaply in some sections, but usually the possessor of it holds his own in some respectable value. In Mexico the possessors do not seem to value their own lives to any great degree, or they must have an inflated notion of their own prowess.

We rather appreciate the attitude of the Negro servant, who, when conversing after the battle, was asked if he had held his own.

He said, "No sah, I runs."

"Well," said the questioner, "that is not very creditable to your reputation."

The Negro replied, "Well, I don't need that fo' mah reputation, I'se a cook."

And then when it was suggested that his life was not worth more than other people's, he replied, "It's wuth mo' to me."

"Rebelling" in Mexico might be interesting if there were three or four possible exits always kept free and clear for the leaders.

The head of the National Teachers' Association says radio is killing jazz.. Sometimes it does sound like a murder.

MUST THIS ALSO GO?

Christmas trees and Christmas holly will be harder to get if a bill just passed by the California Senate becomes a law. This prohibits the cutting of either without a permit on penalty of jail or fine.

What shall we do about it? The Christmas tree is a time-honored institution and its abandonment will leave a great want on that gift-giving holiday. The squeals and howls of delight on the part of the kiddies when they catch sight of the lighted, present-bearing Christmas tree, has long been one of our chief delights.

We may be obliged to seek a substitute for the tree, perhaps a synthetic tree or something else "just as good." It may be we can import the trees from other places and still enjoy Christmas as usual.

We are still thankful they have not abolished the mistletoe.

Figures Indicate Murder Is Showing a Decrease

San Bernardino Sun

With the stories of the racketeer killings and gang feuds from the cities of the East, it has probably been estimated by the average reader that murder is on the increase in the United States. But the records of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company do not bear out the suspicion. The homicide rate among the 18,500,000 industrial policyholders of the company dropped to 6.7 per 100,000 for 1928 contrasted with a rate of 7.4 in 1927. Perhaps it is that racketeers do not bother about insurance, and therefore when the official figures of murder are prepared there may be an increase. It would seem, however, that 18,500,000 policyholders would represent a fair cross-cut of population.

The safety campaigns under way in every big industry have had their effect. There was a decline of 4.1 per cent in all fatal accidents as compared with 1927 and a drop of 20.8 per cent over the death rate in 1911.

Water Power

Riverside Daily Press

Despite the great advance in efficiency that has been made in the use of fuel to generate electric power, water power continues to hold its own as a source of electricity.

A bulletin from the department of the interior reveals that 40 per cent of the kilowatt hours of electricity produced in the United States in 1928 by public utility companies was generated by water power—and this in the face of the fact that improved fueling methods at steam generating stations resulted in a saving of 8,000,000 tons of coal during the year.

Production of electricity, incidentally, continues to rise. In 1928 there were 87,851,000,000 kilowatt hours generated—an increase of 10 per cent over 1927. And it is obvious that the surface has hardly been scratched.

Lincoln's Favorite

Pasadena Star-News

The favorite poem of Abraham Lincoln was the one beginning, "Why should the spirit of mortal be proud?" The poem cites a number of reasons why the spirit of mortals should not be proud. When one considers the changes in circumstances of persons once affluent or in position of power, one is impressed with the futility and emptiness of pride. A few days ago a man died in comparative poverty who started the manufacture of an automobile that has a world-wide reputation and that has produced fortunes. And word comes that the daughter of a former Governor of one of the states is dying is destitution, although once she had lived in luxury. Fortune may change swiftly for any one.

Whose Town Is This Anyway?

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

LOOKING BACKWARD

Young Alexander never saw
A gun with rifled bore,
He had no motor cars to draw
His outfit to a war.
The radio, the telephone
Which swift the tidings brought
Of hidden foes were all unknown
When Alexander fought.
By crude and clumsy catapults
The bolts of war he hurled;
They very rarely got results,
But still he licked the world.
Though Kipling possibly may feel
That Homer was a bluff,
The old man had small chance to steal
From other people's stuff.
Good poets then were hard to find,
And so the grand old bard
Who, furthermore, was wholly blind,
Found cribbing pretty hard.
And yet the poet put a throb
And wallop in a lay
And did a rather better job
Than poets do today.
The great men who have gone before
Whose fame is now secure
Have taught us all they knew of war
As well as literature.
They've given us the benefit
Of all their art and skill
Yet we must honestly admit
They have us beaten still.
We have more ships and cars and planes
Than men had in the past
And more of everything but brains,
Which don't improve so fast.

Dr. Frank Crane's Friendly Talk

By Dr. Frank Crane

THE MORNING AFTER

Morality is question of the morning after the night before.

A thing is moral or immoral in accordance with what it produces.

The after-result is the basis of morality.

In his recently-published "Notebook," Samuel Butler, famous for Erewhon" and "The Way of All Flesh," set down this reflection:

"Morality turns on whether the pleasure precedes or follows the pain.

"Thus, it is immoral to get drunk because the headache comes after the drinking, but if the headache came first, and the drunkenness afterwards, it would be moral to get drunk."

That is something to think about.

Enlarging on the headache. It is because men beat their wives, shoot their friends, drive speeding autos into crowded schoolyards, killing children, After and Because they are drunk, that we condemn drunkenness.

Apply the same test to the other things which society has decided are immoral.

Gambling, adultery, stealing, may start out pleasantly enough, but invariably there comes a morning after.

If a chart could be made of any sin it would show pleasure first rising to a peak and then jest turning into earnest and payment coming later.

Those who are constantly crying against the infringement of their liberties by arbitrary moral codes fail to appreciate that they are based upon the after-result of things.

From long experience, society has evolved a code of morals based upon the after-effect of actions.

Things that have shown themselves productive of evil to society or to individuals have been tagged "immoral," those beneficial in the long run, "moral."

I think it was Huxley who said that, "Conscience is the accrued caution of foregoing generations."

Probably, in some respects, conscience is a product of evolution, but no matter how it came about it is here and a factor to be reckoned with.

It is function within us that points to averages and laws. These laws have been established by ages of experience and a man is not wise to violate them.

He who depends upon his own wits entirely is not as wise as he who leans upon the accumulated wits and experience of others.

In the Long Ago

Robert M. Simon was injured when he was struck by an automobile as he stood near his car that was stopped in front of the F. B. Case home at 1712 North Main street.

In an address by John A. Harvey, vice president of the Citizens' Commercial and Savings bank of Santa Ana, he stated that bank deposits in Santa Ana average between $500 to $600 per capita. The average for cities of the same population throughout the United States is $250 per capita, he said.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

INVESTMENT TRUSTS

In a four-page journal of ideas for the general reader which New York University publishes weekly under the title of New York, Lewis H. Haney analyzes the various kinds of financial agencies that operate under the name of Investment Trusts.

The facts he outlines are of such vital importance to the army of conscientious small investors that they should be widely distributed.

The average small investor thinks an Investment Trust is a trust that invests carefully and cautiously and watches his investment for him, and stops at that.

But there are many kinds of "investment trusts." and the particular character any given "investment trust" has may have a great deal to do with the safety or risk of the investor's money.

Mr. Haney suggests that these organizations make their profits in at least four different ways, viz:

First, there are investment trusts that are really investment trusts and nothing more.

These organizations really invest in stocks that, in their considered judgment, will show a steady and growing yield over a period of years, surround the investor's principle with safety, bring risk to a minimum. They diversify their investment, and seek no control of the stocks in which they invest.

Second, there are investment trusts that are really speculation trusts.

These organizations play the market, figuring that if they are right half the time they will remain going concerns. Here the investor, knowingly or not, is gambling on the skill of the managers of these trusts.

Third, there are investment trusts that are really underwriting trusts.

These organizations either finance new issues of stocks or help market old holdings of stocks. These organizations are usually offshoots of or associated with underwriting houses.

Fourth, there are investment trusts that are really operating trusts.

These organizations actually participate in the management of the companies in which they invest.

If you are thinking of investing through an Investment Trust, it is wise to find out what kind of trust it is, for the character of the trust has much to do with the outlook for your investment.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

BUT HOW?

It is so easy for the child specialist to tell a mother just what is the trouble with the wee chap. Very easy to tell her why he does so and so and wrings her heart daily. But what the mother wants to know is not so much why he does so and so and wrings her heart as HOW to get him to stop it. There's the rub.

Take running away. Here is a busy mother with a runabout child and a baby in arms. All the housework is to be done, all the countless goings and comings of a household to be attended to, and the Runabout Boy runs away.

He has been told again and again that he is to stay in the yard. He has been told again and again of the danger he runs by crossing the street. He has promised again and again "never to do it again." But he does it again and again, always selecting the time when it is most inconvenient for his mother. HOW is she to make him want to stop crossing the road? Running away? WHAT is she to do when he runs away beside going after him and bringing him home again?

Any intelligent child will seek for other children to play with and if that means crossing a dangerous street he will cross it; if it means running away, he will run away. I know of no way to stop him wanting companionship. Nobody WANTS to stop his wanting companionship. They only want him to stop crossing the dangerous roads. Then we Do know how to help the mothers of Runabouts. Make safe places for the children to play in. There is no other way.

When a couple of people marry and set up housekeeping their first thought should be about providing the space and the place for the children. This is father's duty as well as mother's. It isn't fair to leave the mother with a couple of active children on her hands and no place for them to play which means very close to having no place to grow.

Apartment house builders are hopeless. They collect rents. That alone is their business and their chief concern. Suburban developments are a little better. Nobody wants children messing up the lawns, killing young trees, making scars on the young grass with their ball fields and running tracks, their dugouts and whatnots. Lawns and gardens are a legitimate part of the scheme of living for grown-ups and they look to them sharply. But play places are essential to the moral and physical growth of children and few are they who attend to them.

What I want to see done is something like this. Let the young mothers plan a real estate development of their own; have it so planned that the children have play spaces, and walks, and courts and all other required conveniences for active living reserved for them. Make such arrangements an integral part of the scheme of living. Safe play places for all ages; shade and water and comfortable surroundings. Schools so placed, and all play places so placed that NO NEED of crossing a motor roadway arises.

Ane such plays is now abuilding. Why cannot the mothers' clubs make safe play places the motive of a year's work? Maybe the children's development would result? Not such a bad investment of time or money, either.

WHITNEY'S INVENTION

One hundred and thirty-five years ago today, on March 14, 1794, Eli Whitney secured a patent on the cotton gin and laid the foundation for the Civil war.

No single factor in our history has had a greater effect upon the political and economic life of the nation than the invention of this mechanical means to separate the seed from cotton fiber. Before its invention, from eight to ten hours work were required to clean one pound of cotton. Since one field hand could produce about 2500 pounds in a good season, it took 25 slaves working 100 days to get his output ready for market. Hence, no cotton was exported before the introduction of Whitney's gin. The year after, however, 1,500,000 pounds were exported and the year following, about 5,250,000 pounds.

The south soon found cotton growing to be its most important industry. Slaves became increasingly in demand to grow it and thus began differences between the north and south which resulted in the Civil war.

Time To Smile

The guards grimly went about their task of affixing the electrodes to the body of the doomed man in the chair. The kindly chaplain bent over him.

"Any request, my poor mortal?" he inquired.

"Yes, parson," the wretch replied. "It'll comfort me a lot if you'll just hold my hands."

"Do you suppose this shaving lotion will burn in my cigarette lighter?"

"It ought to. It burns your face."

Italians Subject For Laguna Talk

LAGUNA BEACH, March 14.—Italians as immigrants to this country and prospective citizens, with glimpses of these citizens of sunny Italy, constituted the subject of a talk given by Miss Helen Seymour before the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday evening at the Tea and Tiffin. In the brief business session indorsement was given to the project of renaming the streets of the city as proposed by a realty board committee, using the names of artists. They also sponsored a city swimming pool.

On the musical program of the evening were two songs by Miss Lee, of Los Angeles.

Flyer Enthuses Over Beach Area

NEWPORT BEACH, March 14.—Harry Williamson is in receipt of a letter from E. W. King, of Long Beach, in which he enthuses over the possibilities of the development of aviation in this locality. He states that he is a member of an aviation club which possesses a landing field and clubhouse facilities inland and desires to obtain similar arrangements at some beach location.

After looking over the local proposed field he hoped that if the proposed improvement was accomplished that arrangements could be made with the Irvine company whereby his club could base ground for a clubhouse.

ARTIST PLAYS VIOLIN GIVEN BY GRAND DUKE

Santa Ana's interest in rare old violins is always a lively one, for there are several rare and valuable instruments owned in this community, including that played by Ollimae Enlow Matthews, talented young artist now on a concert trip through the middle western states, and another owned by Fred Mills, formerly of Garden Grove, now of El Centro, kept in the vaults of the Farmers and Merchants bank because of its value as a genuine Stradivarius. But these are not so valuable to their owners as the first violin which Mischa Elman ever owned, is to the heart of that great virtuoso.

Mischa Elman is to be presented in concert in this city Friday night, March 22, under the auspices of Ebell society, and his appearance at the high school auditorium promises to be quite the biggest musical event in the history of the community. Undoubtedly his public will feel a keener interest in the concert, if the story of his first violin is told.

It was when the lad was only 10 years old, and when his remarkable talent had brought him to the attention of Leopold Auer, the greatest maestro the world has known, that Saul Elman, father of the young Mischa, was notified by Leopold Auer, that some mysterious stranger, moved by the playing of the boy prodigy, had secretly purchased an expensive Amati violin for him. The father was requested to go to the store for the instrument, a rich antique made in 1763.

The father himself relates the story with all the pride and fondness that a devoted parent can feel for a brilliant child.

"My eyes still grow moist when I think of that night, when my boy was still the simple child, and all mine. I remember his little pale face as he lay fast asleep later, the violin clasped in his arms, and traces of tears of excitement and joy still on his cheeks. It was much later that we learned that the donor of the violin was the Grand Duke Mecklembouk of Strelitz, a relative of the czar of all the Russias."

Though Elman, the matured artist of today, is now the possessor of two Stradivari violins, that first Italian violin remains one of his dearest and most valued possessions. One Stradivarius he owns is one of the first three violins in the world. It was presented to the great artist by his wife and was purchased in Paris. Its date is 1717. The other "Strad" (1722) was once in the possession of Joachim, the eminent German maestro who pronounced Elman "a finished artist" when he was only 12 years old. It was purchased by Elman's father for the artist's American debut.

Motorist Jailed On Liquor Charge

Fred Van Fergusoe, 42, Santa Ana mechanic, was arrested near the Orange County hospital last night by Deputy Sheriff A. L. Steward and is being held in the county jail on a liquor charge. Steward said he followed the Van Fergusoe machine for some time and, when it crowded another car off the road, stopped it. A small bottle of liquor was said to have been found in the car.

A PROCLAMATION

By The Mayor of Santa Ana

The American Legion will soon celebrate the tenth anniversary of its organization. To those who so nobly served their country in time of great peril it will be an anniversary of achievement for a great work has been performed by the Legion in the decade of peace that has followed the close of the World war. The American Legion was born out of the spirit of comradeship and mutual helpfulness that was so outstanding among those who fought side by side in the great struggle and it is today carrying on a program of public service that has no parallel in the nation's history.

The greatest work of the Legion has been to care for those who suffered most by the war. The best efforts of the organization have been exerted in the behalf of the disabled soldiers, the war orphans and those who were left widows by the war. Although much has been accomplished for these war sufferers there is still a great deal to be done. The Legion has given assurance that this work will be continued as long as there is a need for it. In the field of community service the Legion has successfully conducted civic betterment projects in all parts of the country that have demonstrated in a concrete way the power of the Legion to serve in time of peace. The celebration of the Legion's tenth anniversary on March 15 and 16 will be the occasion for a renewed effort to enroll more war veterans in this work. It is the purpose of the Legion to increase its membership in order that its work for the year may be broadened and extended. The people of this city are truly appreciative of the character of the work that is being done by the Legion and they believe every encouragement should be given for its continuance.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank Purinton, Mayor of the City of Santa Ana, do hereby proclaim Friday, March 15, and Saturday, March 16, as the dates for the Tenth Anniversary Celebration of The American Legion and urge all citizens to aid the Legion in every possible way to increase its membership strength. Every veteran should subscribe to the progam of the organization by wearing the Legion button.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Santa Ana to be affixed. Done in the City of Santa Ana this 13th day of March, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-Nine.

(Signed) F. L. PURINTON,
Mayor of Santa Ana.

VETERANS TO BE ENTERTAINED BY COUNTY BODY

To give their buddies in the San Fernando government hospital a real "old time" party, the Orange county voiture of the Forty and Eight society will go in a body to the hospital next Sunday, according to an announcement made today by Robert W. Walker, correspondent.

The Orange County Drum and Bugle corps will accompany the Forty and Eight society to the hospital and the Sadie Halperin theatrical agency, Los Angeles, has agreed to donate a two-hour vaudeville show for the wounded veterans, it was said.

In addition to the two-hour bill, a number of individual performers have offered their services for the entertainment of the wounded men.

Arrangements were to be made today to have the program broadcast by radio.

Every effort is being made by the voiture to make the show one of the outstanding events in this year's work among wounded veterans, Walker said.

S. A. BREAKFAST CLUB DECIDES MEMBER CRAZY

A kangaroo court session was held this morning at the meeting of the Breakfast club, when O. A. Haley was haled before the court on a serious charge, with Robt. Gramm as the complaining witness.

The charge was based on an episode at the meeting of the club on February 1, in which Haley hurled a slam at Sheriff Sam Jernigan and Gramm, who was his guest. The court convened with J. A. Harvey as judge, Hunter Leach as bailiff, Jess Elliott as clerk and B. Z. McKiney as prosecuting attorney, with Franklin West, Reeves Aylmore and Milburn Harvey as his associates. Fred Forgy was counsel for the defendant.

It was a session of "The superior court of supreme lunacy, in the county of incompetency, state of lunacy." Conduct of the session fully justified the name.

Following completion of testimony offered by Gramm, George Boyd, Guy Gilbert and E. S. Morrow, and summing up of the evidence by Judge Homer Ames, as special counsel, Haley was found insane and sentenced by Judge Harvey to a fine of 50 cents.

The evidence presented and the examination of witnesses by attorneys kept the club members in an uproar.

The program was arranged by the attorneys of the club, and B. Z. McKinney officiated as chairman.

The program committee for next week is composed of E. L. Vegely, R. G. Cartwright, T. G. Johnston, and V. D. Johnson.

'COLLEGE DAZE' TITLE OF HIGH SCHOOL MOVIE

"College Daze" has been selected as the title for the Santa Ana High School Movie club's two-reel motion picture, according to announcement made today by Ted Newcomb, club president.

The final scene in the picture was filmed today and the club is now at work titling and editing the production. A print of the finished film will be entered in the Photoplay magazine amateur motion picture contest.

More than 40 students of the high school have been actively engaged in the making of the film during the past two months, and the production when finished will be entirely a product of the school.

Titles for the film are being printed in the high school print shop, under the supervision of Thomas E. Williams, printing instructor.

Members of the technical staff of the club spent last Saturday at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios in Culver City, and arrangements are being made to make another trip to a Hollywood studio in the near future.

CONTRACT VIOLATION IS CHARGED IN SUIT

Asserting that Frank Stockebrand had removed his copy of a contract setting forth terms of a real estate deal in order to defraud him of a commission for completing a land transfer, A. W. Fuller, real estate broker, today brought suit against Stockebrand, asking judgment for $425.

According to the complaint, Stockebrand agreed with Fuller and his agent, Roy Fowler, to pay a commission to them for arranging a trade whereby he exchanged property in Kansas, valued at $11,500, for property of C. D. Newman in Tustin, worth $6000, with an additional cash consideration. Fuller asserted that, on the day before the deal was closed, Stockebrand took the contract and has refused to give it up.

The exchange was made on the following day on terms secured by Fuller and Fowler, the complaint stated. The plaintiff is represented by C. N. Mozley.

LEGION POST TO CELEBRATE THIS EVENING

Plans were completed today for the Santa Ana American Legion's "birthday" party, to be held in the form of a huge meeting in the Legion home on Birch street, tonight.

The American Legion is 10 years old this week, and the Santa Ana post has arranged an appropriate program for the occasion. William Iverson, post member, will deliver an address on the work of the Legion during the past decade.

Approximately 50 new members will be initiated into the organization and a musical and entertainment program is announced by the entertainment committee.

Jack Finlenson, assistant chief of police of Los Angeles, is slated for a talk on police work.

Midway City Carrier Goes 15 Miles Every Day In Delivering Papers

Delivering papers in the same territory for two whole years is some record but William Schmidt, Midway City, Register carrier, has this to his credit. He has built his route from 23 subscribers two years ago to over 90 at the present time.

Bill believes that regular delivery and courtesy to his subscribers have been great factors in carrying on his successful business. Owing to the fact that his profit for delivering papers is adjusted according to the number of subscribers he serves, Bill's eye for business would not allow his number of customers to decrease. He has been a winner in all carrier contests.

Elsie Murrell, First street and Huntington Beach boulevard, who has been one of young Schmidt's subscribers since he began carrying states: "Bill has been very faithful. He travels 15 miles every day in carrying his route and during his two years has never once failed to deliver our paper."

He has nearly completed his quota of new subscribers for the Catalina trip with The Register carriers during April and has stated his intention of going.

'PROBLEMS OF TODAY' TOPIC OF INSTRUCTOR

The new educational-social unit of the First Methodist church was crowded to capacity at the opening of the church training night program last night. Five hundred guests were accommodated and many were turned away at the dinner hour. Preparations are underway to care for 600 persons next week.

Richard Taylor and William Motley delighted with an instrumental duet during the social hour. The music planned for next week's program will feature the Long Beach high school sextette.

Sketching the background to his series of lectures, Prof. Carl F. Knopf, of the University of Southern California, delivered the first of his addresses on "The Prophets of Yesterday and the Problems of Today." He gave an interesting characterization of the prophet Amos.

One of the classes which proved to be most attractive to Santa Ana people last evening was that in which world relations and friendship was discussed. The chapel was filled to capacity with many standing in the rear of the room. Prof. Louis T. Jones, of Whittier college, conducted the lecture on "International Good Will."

Active committees have been working with efficiency to make the eight weeks' training night programs a success. Mrs. Frank Stockabrand was in charge of the kitchen force last evening and Joe Head is doing the buying for the meals.

LAWS DISCUSSED AT CLUB SESSION

YORBA LINDA, March 14.—Mab Copeland Lineman, of Los Angeles, lawyer, lecturer and author, spoke before members of the Yorba Linda Woman's club and their guests, the executive board of the county P.-T. A., at the Woman's clubhouse Tuesday afternoon.

The subject of Mrs. Lineman's address was "Laws for Women." These are the laws which concern the property rights, the home and the family.

Joint bank accounts, homestead laws, mortgages, trust deeds, dower rights, separate and community property, laws regarding wills, were touched upon by Mrs. Lineman, and the club was urged to make some sort of a law committee to further the study of these laws both in the club and in schools.

Mrs. Lineman stated that 97 per cent of the broken homes that come to her knowledge are caused by financial misunderstandings which might be averted by a better knowledge of the law, and her final message to the women was to listen, to read, to study, but above all, to learn to think.

Following Mrs. Lineman's address a short business session was held, at which Miss Kate Ray, of Anaheim, county chairman of education, spoke informally on the county unit plan which is coming before the legislature.

Miss Louise Cottem, of Atwood, cousin of Mrs. Verne Adams, finished the afternoon with two vocal solos, "Gipsy Love Song" and "Love Dreams," piano accompaniment by Mrs. Ben Selover and violin obligato by Mrs. Mildred Zwaschka.

NICONA-equipped spray outfits are starting the spring drive on destructive aphids, red spider, thrips and mealy bug.

NICONA is the choice of wise citrus growers at this time because of the thoroughness and economy with which it does its work in pest control. This spray contains the finest grade of summer oil plus a virulent form of nicotine—the recognized killer of orchard pests. It is easy and pleasant to use. It leaves the tree soon after application, thus not interfering with tree or fruit activities. It is, however, powerful enough to control off-hatch scale.

Call one of our offices today for spraying information.

FRANCES WILLARD

Senate Session

The 4s social science class put on an interesting experiment in current events last week under the direction of Miss Dorothy Broadway. A real live senate session was held carrying out to the last detail the formalities and ceremonies attending a regular senate session. Guests from the various social science classes were present. The session was opened by Vice President Dawes in the person of Claude Owens, who led in the oath of allegiance and gave an introductory speech summarizing important bills to come before the senate. Roll was called by the clerk, each senator answering to his name. Some rousing speeches were given on prohibition. Roll was called by states on the next bill which provided Lindbergh should give up flying. Some excellent speeches were given on Boulder dam, the discussion being led by Senator Johnson in the person of Harold Woodard. This bill was laid on the table until the next session. The senate was adjourned to meet again on Friday.

In the session on Friday the problem of consolidation of Standard Oil companies was hotly contested. The matter was referred to a committee who was to interview Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Stewart. The Kellogg peace pact was next taken up and was defended by Ambassador Kellogg in the person of Bill Spurgeon who was introduced by Vice President Dawes. Senator Reed of Missouri (Dorothy Spicer) read the pact and gave some excellent arguments in its defense. Last came the Nicaraguan canal bill which was held over. Senator Paxton convinced the senate we should have an independent canal. The final session was closed by the president in a fitting manner.

On Monday an open forum was held in which arguments of various speakers were discussed.

The members will meet every Wednesday during home room period and it has been decided that the program committee will prepare an interesting program to present at each meeting.

Last Wednesday the president, Ella Pleis, announced the following committees to serve this semester:

Social committee, Sammy Tucker, chairman; Mary Wallace, Claude Owens, Margaret Arrowsmith, Norah La Rose.

Excursion committee, Ruth Jenkins, chairman; Carmela Italiano, Robert Wimbush, Irma Leigh Fernandes, Eqequiel Chavez, John Johnston.

Program committee, Robert Tannenbaum, chairman; Florence Warmer, Betty Heil, Marian Hawk.

Transportation committee, Roy Gundrus, chairman; Dorothy Oliphant, Dorothy Spicer, Christie Demetriou, Betty Smedley.

—Margaret Arrowsmith.

Scholarship Pins

Ruth Jenkins, 6m section, and Carmela Itailiano, 6L section, have the honor of wearing the gold scholarship pin which means that they have been on the honor roll for five semesters of their junior high school course. They are the only students in school who have this honor.

Class Meeting

At the last meeting of the 2c girls a pro-tem secretary was appointed by the president, Neola Fox. She appointed Gertrude Vaughn. A discussion of the class party began and it was thought by the girls that it would be better to wait a few weeks. Elizabeth Garlock gave a humorous reading, "Arithmetic and Peaches," which was enjoyed very much. After the necessary announcements the meeting was adjourned.

—Gertrude Vaughn.

JULIA LATHROP

The students and faculty of Julia Lathrop were very fortunate in being able to hear the inaugural program on Monday, March 4. Through the efforts of Mr. Rowley, Miss Leila Thrasher and Harold Moomaw who were a faculty committee to secure radios, we were supplied with seven radios. The program came through very clearly. Because we have no auditorium at Lathrop, these radios were installed in the larger classrooms and with added seats moved in for the occasion each student and teacher was privileged to hear the entire program.

Industrious

Seventh and eighth grade boys are very industrious in the "Shop" these days, making small electric motors. Low nine boys are learning to wire the various bell systems, burglar alarms and the different call systems.

There is an interesting display of projects on Fire Protection to be found in Miss Deane's General Science room this week.

On Thursday, March 7 all the students of Lathrop were allowed to vote for a California state bird. A list of birds was placed on the ballot and the student was asked to vote for one. Results of the election show that the bluebird is popular with the Lathrop students and the quail was second in popularity. This was a project fostered and put through by Miss Brokaw's general science classes.

Posture Week

March 11 to 15 is Posture week at Lathrop. A list of general rules has been drawn up by Mr. Scott, Miss Rideout and Miss Collins of the Physical Education department. These include all posture rules and also announce that posture tags will be given each student. At the end of the week those students whose tags have not been for poor posture are entitled to a swim at the high school. Thursday is Teacher's Tag day. At this time the students are allowed to require tags from those teachers who do not comply with the rules for good posture.

PARENT-TEACHERS

Roosevelt P.-T. A. held its monthly meeting in the kindergarten room, Mrs. Georgia Bradley presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Charles Perreung.

"Our Battle Hymn of Children," with Mrs. Harry Wetherell at the piano, was the opening song, followed by the salutation of the flag. A short business session followed.

A carnival to be held March 23 in the school building and the lectures at the Hall of Record on "Child Welfare," which are open to the public were some of the interesting things brought to the attention of the members present.

Another song, "Schools," was sung and the remainder of the afternoon was in the charge of Mrs. Earl Morris, her subject being "Laughter and Happiness in the School and Home." A number of Angelo Patri articles were read, questions which had been previously passed around were answered and a round table discussion was enjoyed, everyone responding enthusiastically to the ten questions Mrs. Morris had prepared. She has worked in the district, state and nation organizations very successfully and at present is the program chairman for the fourth district.

Mrs. Roy Beall, president of the high school P.-T. A. in a few words explained the student loan fund. The meeting was then adjourned and a social half hour followed with Mrs. O. V. Barton in charge of the refreshments.

ROOSEVELT

Track

The Roosevelt school children are beginning track work. Last week Mr. Archer was here and placed the boys into groups. There were the midgets, the juniors and the seniors. The teachers are arranging it so that only one group can have the pit at a time.

—Charles Kaufmann.

Some of the girls wanted to try high jumping, so Miss Lindsay is going to let them jump in the mornings before school, and at the afternoon recess. The girls all are very much pleased at the idea.

—Clarice Miller.

Progress Books

The fifth and sixth grades are making new progress books for writing. They will write one verse of "America" every month until June. They will paste their verses in the progress books.

—Billy Webb.

The Roosevelt school enjoyed a program Wednesday, March 6, in the kindergarten. Miss Gerrard had charge of it. First Miss Walker, Miss Lindsay, Miss Campbell and Miss Gerrard played a two-piano selection, "Adieu to the Piano," by Beethoven. Barbara Gerrard recited "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer. "Wayside Rose" was played by Sylvia White on the violin.

The last number was a talk on trees by Miss Burnell, the nature study supervisor from Los Angeles. She told us a story about a pine tree that was 1000 years old. It was very interesting. At the end of Miss Burnell's story, she gave the Roosevelt school a little pine tree that is two years old.

—Vivian Elliott.

Press Club

Roosevelt Press club held its March meeting in the kindergarten, Monday, the fourth. There was a very nice program. Mrs. Kellogg gave a talk, "How to Write Better School News." Josephine Keeler sang "Where Go the Boats," by Robert Louis Stevenson, and "Merry Brown Thrush," by Lucy Larken. She was accompanied by Marion Pletke. Louise Crawford played a piano solo, "Muset," by Bok. Marian Brannan gave a clever reading, "A Club Woman's Child," by Inez Tribit. The last number was a piano solo, "Clown Dance," by Kinscello, played by Geraldine Gilbert.

—Anne Wetherell.

The children in the upper grades are studying weeds. Mrs. Kellogg described wild mustard, hoarhound, yellow clover, shepherd's purse, mallow, groundsel, sour grass, filaree, sow thistle and pigweed to the students.

—Leonard Ash.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN — PICTURES by KNICK

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

While Clowny slept below the ground, the others still were standing 'round the funny little wooden shaft they'd found upon the hill. Wee Carpy gazed down in the shaft, and then jumped back. The others laughed. "Why, even looking down," said he, "gives anyone a chill.

"It goes way down and gee, it's dark, and no place I would care to park. Whoe'er goes down might soon be lost or injured. Who can tell? The cave where Clowny chanced to crawl may not lead up to this at all. As far as we know this place may be nothing but a well."

Then Scouty grabbed hold of a rope, that hung way down, and said, "I hope that something's on the end of this to help us solve this mess. In pulling it there'll be no harm. Come on, somebody, lend an arm. It's rather heavy, but we all can pull it up, I guess."

"No! Wait a minute," Clowny cried. "A crank is right there by your side. All we need do is turn it and the rope will quickly rise." "You're right," cried Scouty. "This is great. There is no need to hesitate." And as they pulled a bucket 'rose. A treat for all their eyes.

"Ah, ha!" cried Scouty. "Here's a plan. You two jump in as best you can, and I will slowly let you down till you come to a stop. Then, after you are safe and sound I'll also leave this outside ground. I'll slide right down this little rope, and trust that I won't flop."

The two did just as they were told and down they went, into the cold, cold ground that lay below them. Then they shouted, "We're all right." So Scouty tied the rope up good, and slid right down, as best he could. My, goodness, what's to happen now that they're all out of sight?

(Clowny finds a little coal car in the next story.)

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, March 14.—(UP)—General Motors, United States Steel Common and Radio Corporation of America led today in helping the stock market into higher ground. Trading picked up from the light turnover of the last few days and profit-taking declines toward the close were absorbed easily.

Strength was apparent in all part of the last, coming from relatively easy money which ruled at 7 per cent, retention of the Boston Bank rate at 5 per cent, belief that New York would make no change today, and expectation of a decrease in brakerage loans.

Radio Corporation of America soared to $500 per share for the first time in history and the new stock made a new high at the $100.50 mark. Trading in these issues overshadowed all other stocks in point of volume. The new stock had a turnover of more than 400,000 shares or about one-tenth of the business done on the exchange. Toward the close a sale of the new came out at 99½ for 10,000 shares.

Gains in the general list ran from one to four points with special issues up from five to nearly 25 points. Pacific Telephone & Telegraph soared to $200 for a gain of $23.75.

In the afternoon General Motors suddenly got into action. There was a brief pause between sales of the issue and then it came out 13,000 shares at 84. Later it went to 85 on a sale of 15,000 shares and then it spurted to 85½ up 3⅝ points.

Steel Common was rising steadily to a new high on the movement at 188 up 5⅞, while Bethlehem reached a new high at 108⅝, up 5⅜. Gains of four to nine points weer made by such issues as Chrysler, Radio New, Commercial Solvents, General Electric and Goodyear Tire & Rubber.

Along with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, other communication stock were strong. Oils were again meeting good demand with particular attention paid such stocks as Mexican Seaboard, Sinclair, Houston and the Standard issues.

Rails firmed up with the industrials, featured by a rise of more than two points in New York Central which reflected the 100 per cent cash dividend declared yesterday by Michigan Central.

Motor Shares, Copper, Rubbers and Motor Equipments were bid up, Electric Auto-Lite featuring the latter group.

L. A. PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—The market was somewhat unsteady and irregular today due to an increase in the supply of a few seasonable commodities, and an occasional dwonward price adjustment had to be made.

Imperial Valley asparagus was in good demand at $9.00@$10.00 a crate for extra fancy.

Local avocados had a fair movement, with the best Fuertes quoted at 27@28c a pound, and some poorer stock at 23@24c.

Lemons were having a very slow call and the market continues weak at $1.25@$1.50 a box for the run of stock.

Peas were in liberal supply and prices had to be lowered slightly. Pismo and San Luis Obispo stock brought 11@12c generally, and San Pedro receipts sold at 10@12c.

The orange market remains discouragingly weak.

Strawberry supplies are still very light, although receipts get slightly heavier each day. Imperial valley trays weakened to $4.75@$5.00.

The tomato market was slow at $3.25@$3.50 a lug for fancy Mexican stock.

Potatoes were dull at $1.60 per cwt. for good quality Stockton Burbanks, and $1.35 per cwt. for Idaho Rus-

CHICAGO BD. OF TRADE

CHICAGO, March 14.—(UP)—Wheat futures closed unevenly lower here today, nervous trading erasing gains made on damage reports from the southwest. Corn was lower in sympathy with dull cash trade. Oats were unevenly a shade lower.

At close wheat was ⅛ to ⅜c lower, corn was off ¼ to ⅜ cents and oats were unchanged to ⅜ cents lower. Provisions were slightly lower.

Wheat trading was moderately active and prices held firm throughout most of session. Cash prices were unchanged.

Corn receipts were slightly larger and weakness of cash situation was responsible for lower futures most of the day. Cash prices were ¼ to ½ cent lower.

March oats was a minor fraction lower during morning but deferred deliveries showed a fairly steady tone. Cash prices were unchanged.

EVENING SALUTATION

There are depths in man that go to the lengths of lowest hell, as there are heights that reach highest heaven: for are not both heaven and hell made out of him, made by him, everlasting miracle and mystery that he is?

—Carlyle.

HOPE HE REALIZES HIS RESPONSIBILITY

Among the lighter events which add to the gaiety of nations is the commanding position of the Prince of Wales over the masculine fashions of England and other English speaking countries.

The Prince appeared in America in a certain kind of soft hat with the brim set at a certain angle, and at once the men of America were wearing that kind of a hat.

Now the Prince has appeared in some peculiar sort of evening clothes, and it is presumed this will be the smart thing to wear after 6 o'clock. He has also appeared in a dark-blue derby. Now what will become of the brown derby of recent fame?

What a splendid opportunity for the Prince to play some April fool jokes on the susceptible men. He no doubt, could have the men of England and America too, for that matter, going about the streets in fantastic costumes while he himself had already changed to the usual modest garb. Does the Prince have a sense of humor or is he just pleasing himself?

It is fortunate for all of us that we have no woman in a position to set and vary the styles and fashions for our wives and daughters. What might be the result on the bank account staggers us. It is bad enough for some commercial Frenchman to tell them what to wear.

What is more absurd than to imitate the clothing of anyone, whatever his position of birth or eminence, regardless of our own particular style of beauty or taste? After all one of the advantages of being an American is that most of us males and females have good sense.

An inventor has been perfecting a mechanical nursemaid that calls mother when baby cries. Then father can step in and see what's wrong.

MR. WILSON'S PLAN

Senator Glass, of Virginia, has just given publicity to a plan which Woodrow Wilson suggested for the handling of the enforcement of the Eighteenth amendment. Mr. Wilson's theory of states' rights made it difficult for him to support any measure like the Volstead Act, which to him seemed to invade the rights of the individual states. His opposition to that bill, according to Senator Glass, was not an opposition to national prohibition, but his belief that it was not the function of the Federal Government to enforce the law within the confines of any state.

The Eighteenth amendment makes it the joint obligation of the Federal Government and the State Government to enforce it. Mr. Wilson's plan was to use the power of the Federal Government to prevent the bringing in of liquor from outside the country and also its shipment from one state into another, leaving each state to enforce the amendment within its own bounds. There is a great deal to be said for that plan. With the general respect for the Constitution which exists among the people of the country, he believes, as a matter of loyalty to the fundamental law of the land, that almost all of the states would have been found loyal to the amendment. Nullification of the Constitution has never been popular in this country. No state would care to be in the position of not playing the game with the other states. It may be that the commission on the matter to be appointed by President Hoover will find some food for thought in the plan which Senator Glass has thus made public.

One of the new books, by Lytton Strachey, is "Elizabeth and Essex." Probably it came out in connection with the automobile shows.

ANOTHER CATASTROPHE DUE TO SPEED

Two more victims of extremely high speed in endeavors to break a record are recorded at Daytona Beach. The driver of the car running at the rate of over three miles per minute lost control for an instant—and an instant was enough to send him and a bystander into eternity.

Such terrific speed must have its main danger in the distance traveled and the momentum and impact possible in the length of time it takes for an impression to be recorded on the brain and acted upon.

At this speed, according to scientists, one would travel more than 250 feet before an error could be corrected. That distance is enough to result in death. Whichever way the car is headed, even at 60 miles an hour, a driver knows it must remain practically in that direction until its speed is reduced. When it is going at more than three times this speed one can imagine it can hardly swerve a hairbreadth.

MEETING THE VERDICT

Gen. Umberto Nobile, commander of the Italian north pole expedition, has resigned from the national air service. He declares he has taken this action in order to vindicate himself from the findings of the commission.

This commission blamed the General to a great degree for the loss of the Italian dirigible, and for deserting his companions when he was rescued. Public opinion throughout the world had always found the General guilty of desertion, and was undoubtedly fortified in that opinion by the story of his actions during his famous trip with Amundsen. It vindicates Amundsen's story. The strange part of it is that companions, and even a government, would still repose confidence and trust in one who had so evidently demonstrated unfitness.

There was nothing else for Nobile to do but to resign. The technical details may be discussed for a long period of time, but to the public, a captain accepting rescue with his men still in peril can have no defense.

A VALUABLE PARTNERSHIP

Those interested in business and economics have been much instructed in the past two years by some books bearing the names of Foster and Catchings as joint authors. William Trufant Foster was a college professor and is now engaged in research work for the Pollak Foundation.

Waddill Catchings is a financier and manufacturer, who serves on the directorate of such large corporations as the Sears Roebuck Company, the National Dairy Products Corporation, B. F. Goodrich Company, and many other large companies, while at the same time he is a member of the Goldman Sachs Company, one of the great financing corporations of Wall Street.

Beginning with the "Road to Plenty" and followed by others, these authors are facing the whole problem of industry and finance in a thoroughly scholarly and practical way. The combination of the scholar and the practical man of affairs, both of them open-minded and socially-minded, and both of them scholarly and practical, gives their work a value for the student and the man of affairs that can hardly be equalled by any other work that is being done today. It does away with the criticism about the impractical and the theoretical professor which is so often flung at a really great contribution of things when written by the professor alone.

That schoolgirl complexion is all right in its place, but it can cause an awful lot of trouble on father's coat.

WHERE LIFE IS CHEAP

Human life is held very cheaply in some sections, but usually the possessor of it holds his own in some respectable value. In Mexico the possessors do not seem to value their own lives to any great degree, or they must have an inflated notion of their own prowess.

We rather appreciate the attitude of the Negro servant, who, when conversing after the battle, was asked if he had held his own.

He said, "No sah, I runs."

"Well," said the questioner, "that is not very creditable to your reputation."

The Negro replied, "Well, I don't need that fo' mah reputation, I'se a cook."

And then when it was suggested that his life was not worth more than other people's, he replied, "It's wuth mo' to me."

"Rebelling" in Mexico might be interesting if there were three or four possible exits always kept free and clear for the leaders.

The head of the National Teachers' Association says radio is killing jazz.. Sometimes it does sound like a murder.

MUST THIS ALSO GO?

Christmas trees and Christmas holly will be harder to get if a bill just passed by the California Senate becomes a law. This prohibits the cutting of either without a permit on penalty of jail or fine.

What shall we do about it? The Christmas tree is a time-honored institution and its abandonment will leave a great want on that gift-giving holiday. The squeals and howls of delight on the part of the kiddies when they catch sight of the lighted, present-bearing Christmas tree, has long been one of our chief delights.

We may be obliged to seek a substitute for the tree, perhaps a synthetic tree or something else "just as good." It may be we can import the trees from other places and still enjoy Christmas as usual.

We are still thankful they have not abolished the mistletoe.

Figures Indicate Murder Is Showing a Decrease

San Bernardino Sun

With the stories of the racketeer killings and gang feuds from the cities of the East, it has probably been estimated by the average reader that murder is on the increase in the United States. But the records of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company do not bear out the suspicion. The homicide rate among the 18,500,000 industrial policyholders of the company dropped to 6.7 per 100,000 for 1928 contrasted with a rate of 7.4 in 1927. Perhaps it is that racketeers do not bother about insurance, and therefore when the official figures of murder are prepared there may be an increase. It would seem, however, that 18,500,000 policyholders would represent a fair cross-cut of population.

The safety campaigns under way in every big industry have had their effect. There was a decline of 4.1 per cent in all fatal accidents as compared with 1927 and a drop of 20.8 per cent over the death rate in 1911.

Water Power

Riverside Daily Press

Despite the great advance in efficiency that has been made in the use of fuel to generate electric power, water power continues to hold its own as a source of electricity.

A bulletin from the department of the interior reveals that 40 per cent of the kilowatt hours of electricity produced in the United States in 1928 by public utility companies was generated by water power—and this in the face of the fact that improved fueling methods at steam generating stations resulted in a saving of 8,000,000 tons of coal during the year.

Production of electricity, incidentally, continues to rise. In 1928 there were 87,851,000,000 kilowatt hours generated—an increase of 10 per cent over 1927. And it is obvious that the surface has hardly been scratched.

Lincoln's Favorite

Pasadena Star-News

The favorite poem of Abraham Lincoln was the one beginning, "Why should the spirit of mortal be proud?" The poem cites a number of reasons why the spirit of mortals should not be proud. When one considers the changes in circumstances of persons once affluent or in position of power, one is impressed with the futility and emptiness of pride. A few days ago a man died in comparative poverty who started the manufacture of an automobile that has a world-wide reputation and that has produced fortunes. And word comes that the daughter of a former Governor of one of the states is dying is destitution, although once she had lived in luxury. Fortune may change swiftly for any one.

Whose Town Is This Anyway?

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

LOOKING BACKWARD

Young Alexander never saw
A gun with rifled bore,
He had no motor cars to draw
His outfit to a war.
The radio, the telephone
Which swift the tidings brought
Of hidden foes were all unknown
When Alexander fought.
By crude and clumsy catapults
The bolts of war he hurled;
They very rarely got results,
But still he licked the world.
Though Kipling possibly may feel
That Homer was a bluff,
The old man had small chance to steal
From other people's stuff.
Good poets then were hard to find,
And so the grand old bard
Who, furthermore, was wholly blind,
Found cribbing pretty hard.
And yet the poet put a throb
And wallop in a lay
And did a rather better job
Than poets do today.
The great men who have gone before
Whose fame is now secure
Have taught us all they knew of war
As well as literature.
They've given us the benefit
Of all their art and skill
Yet we must honestly admit
They have us beaten still.
We have more ships and cars and planes
Than men had in the past
And more of everything but brains,
Which don't improve so fast.

Dr. Frank Crane's Friendly Talk

By Dr. Frank Crane

THE MORNING AFTER

Morality is question of the morning after the night before.

A thing is moral or immoral in accordance with what it produces.

The after-result is the basis of morality.

In his recently-published "Notebook," Samuel Butler, famous for Erewhon" and "The Way of All Flesh," set down this reflection:

"Morality turns on whether the pleasure precedes or follows the pain.

"Thus, it is immoral to get drunk because the headache comes after the drinking, but if the headache came first, and the drunkenness afterwards, it would be moral to get drunk."

That is something to think about.

Enlarging on the headache. It is because men beat their wives, shoot their friends, drive speeding autos into crowded schoolyards, killing children, After and Because they are drunk, that we condemn drunkenness.

Apply the same test to the other things which society has decided are immoral.

Gambling, adultery, stealing, may start out pleasantly enough, but invariably there comes a morning after.

If a chart could be made of any sin it would show pleasure first rising to a peak and then jest turning into earnest and payment coming later.

Those who are constantly crying against the infringement of their liberties by arbitrary moral codes fail to appreciate that they are based upon the after-result of things.

From long experience, society has evolved a code of morals based upon the after-effect of actions.

Things that have shown themselves productive of evil to society or to individuals have been tagged "immoral," those beneficial in the long run, "moral."

I think it was Huxley who said that, "Conscience is the accrued caution of foregoing generations."

Probably, in some respects, conscience is a product of evolution, but no matter how it came about it is here and a factor to be reckoned with.

It is function within us that points to averages and laws. These laws have been established by ages of experience and a man is not wise to violate them.

He who depends upon his own wits entirely is not as wise as he who leans upon the accumulated wits and experience of others.

In the Long Ago

From the Register Files 14 Years Ago Today

MARCH 14, 1915

C. H. Seasans, W. E. Swain, and T. B. Welch, representing the town of Yorba Linda, asked the board of supervisors to appropriate $2000 toward putting the main road into Yorba Linda from the highway to Olinda.

Robert M. Simon was injured when he was struck by an automobile as he stood near his car that was stopped in front of the F. B. Case home at 1712 North Main street.

In an address by John A. Harvey, vice president of the Citizens' Commercial and Savings bank of Santa Ana, he stated that bank deposits in Santa Ana average between $500 to $600 per capita. The average for cities of the same population throughout the United States is $250 per capita, he said.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

INVESTMENT TRUSTS

In a four-page journal of ideas for the general reader which New York University publishes weekly under the title of New York, Lewis H. Haney analyzes the various kinds of financial agencies that operate under the name of Investment Trusts.

The facts he outlines are of such vital importance to the army of conscientious small investors that they should be widely distributed.

The average small investor thinks an Investment Trust is a trust that invests carefully and cautiously and watches his investment for him, and stops at that.

But there are many kinds of "investment trusts." and the particular character any given "Investment trust" has may have a great deal to do with the safety or risk of the investor's money.

Mr. Haney suggests that these organizations make their profits in at least four different ways, viz:

First, there are investment trusts that are really investment trusts and nothing more.

These organizations really invest in stocks that, in their considered judgment, will show a steady and growing yield over a period of years, surround the investor's principle with safety, bring risk to a minimum. They diversify their investment, and seek no control of the stocks in which they invest.

Second, there are investment trusts that are really speculation trusts.

These organizations play the market, figuring that if they are right half the time they will remain going concerns. Here the investor, knowingly or not, is gambling on the skill of the managers of these trusts.

Third, there are investment trusts that are really underwriting trusts.

These organizations either finance new issues of stocks or help market old holdings of stocks. These organizations are usually offshoots of or associated with underwriting houses.

Fourth, there are investment trusts that are really operating trusts.

These organizations actually participate in the management of the companies in which they invest.

If you are thinking of investing through an Investment Trust, it is wise to find out what kind of trust it is, for the character of the trust has much to do with the outlook for your investment.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

BUT HOW?

It is so easy for the child specialist to tell a mother just what is the trouble with the wee chap. Very easy to tell her why he does so and so and wrings her heart daily. But what the mother wants to know is not so much why he does so and so and wrings her heart as HOW to get him to stop it. There's the rub.

Take running away. Here is a busy mother with a runabout child and a baby in arms. All the housework is to be done, all the countless goings and comings of a household to be attended to, and the Runabout Boy runs away.

He has been told again and again that he is to stay in the yard. He has been told again and again of the danger he runs by crossing the street. He has promised again and again "never to do it again." But he does it again and again, always selecting the time when it is most inconvenient for his mother. HOW is she to make him want to stop crossing the road? Running away? WHAT is she to do when he runs away beside going after him and bringing him home again?

Any intelligent child will seek for other children to play with and if that means crossing a dangerous street he will cross it; if it means running away, he will run away. I know of no way to stop him wanting companionship. Nobody WANTS to stop his wanting companionship. They only want him to stop crossing the dangerous roads. Then we Do know how to help the mothers of Runabouts. Make safe places for the children to play in. There is no other way.

When a couple of people marry and set up housekeeping their first thought should be about providing the space and the place for the children. This is father's duty as well as mother's. It isn't fair to leave the mother with a couple of active children on her hands and no place for them to play which means very close to having no place to grow.

Apartment house builders are hopeless. They collect rents. That alone is their business and their chief concern. Suburban developments are a little better. Nobody wants children messing up the lawns, killing young trees, making scars on the young grass with their ball fields and running tracks, their dugouts and whatnots. Lawns and gardens are a legitimate part of the scheme of living for grown-ups and they look to them sharply. But play places are essential to the moral and physical growth of children and few are they who attend to them.

What I want to see done is something like this. Let the young mothers plan a real estate development of their own; have it so planned that the children have play spaces, and walks, and courts and all other required conveniences for active living reserved for them. Make such arrangements an integral part of the scheme of living. Safe play places for all ages; shade and water and comfortable surroundings. Schools so placed, and all play places so placed that NO NEED of crossing a motor roadway arises.

Ane such plays is now abuilding. Why cannot the mothers' clubs make safe play places the motive of a year's work? Maybe the children's development would result? Not such a bad investment of time or money, either.

WHITNEY'S INVENTION

One hundred and thirty-five years ago today, on March 14, 1794, Eli Whitney secured a patent on the cotton gin and laid the foundation for the Civil war.

No single factor in our history has had a greater effect upon the political and economic life of the nation than the invention of this mechanical means to separate the seed from cotton fiber. Before its invention, from eight to ten hours work were required to clean one pound of cotton. Since one field hand could produce about 2500 pounds in a good season, it took 25 slaves working 100 days to get his output ready for market. Hence, no cotton was exported before the introduction of Whitney's gin. The year after, however, 1,500,000 pounds were exported and the year following, about 5,250,000 pounds.

The south soon found cotton growing to be its most important industry. Slaves became increasingly in demand to grow it and thus began differences between the north and south which resulted in the Civil war.

Time To Smile

The guards grimly went about their task of affixing the electrodes to the body of the doomed man in the chair. The kindly chaplain bent over him.

"Any request, my poor mortal?" he inquired.

"Yes, parson," the wretch replied. "It'll comfort me a lot if you'll just hold my hands."

"Do you suppose this shaving lotion will burn in my cigarette lighter?"

"It ought to. It burns your face."

NEWSPAPER SOLICITOR: You advertised with us yesterday morning for a night watchman?

SOLICITED: Yeah.

N. S.: Did you get any results?

S.: Well, my place was robbed last night.
